

*Farm to School programs connect schools to local farmers
by serving local produce in school cafeterias and providing agriculture, health, and nutrition education opportunities.*

Farm to School Links:

Arkansas Links

The Arkansas Grow Healthy Study: Farm to School research and capacity building in Arkansas

The Delta Garden Study: School Garden research and programming

Arkansas Grown: See a map of producers and what products they sell

Arkansas Market Maker: Search for local farmers and list your produce needs so farmers can find you.

Locate and contact your county extension agent: List of Extension offices by county

Arkansas Fruit and Vegetable Fact Sheets and Growing Calendar: See what is in season now. The fact sheets have information on the storage, preparation, nutrition, purchasing and cooking for many of the fruits and vegetables grown in Arkansas.

National Links

USDA Farm to School website

The National Farm to School Network

Food Hub's Farm to School Resources

Farm to School: A Selected and Annotated Bibliography

Resources

Connecting Farm to School and the USDA Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program: A Farmer's Guide

Oklahoma Food Service Resource guide- Including food safety worksheets and a produce cost per serving calculator