

Traditional Educator Preparation Program

The Office of Educator Preparation at the Arkansas Department of Education is responsible for approving programs of study that lead to licensure for pre-school through grade 12 teachers, administrators, and other school personnel. These educator preparation programs must reside in professional education units accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and comply with standards of their respective specialized professional associations and their state.