

Nontraditional Routes to Licensure

All nontraditional routes are alternative licensure programs that require candidates to have a bachelor's degree or higher.