

General Information Sites

5/21/14

Arkansas Education Alliance Group

<http://www.arkansashomeschool.org/>

(501) 978-5503

Provides home school families in Arkansas with information on conventions, graduation, transcripts, resources, support groups, national organizations, and current issues.

Colleges, College Scholarships, and Financial Aid Page

Colleges and Universities throughout the United States;

Free College Scholarship and Financial Aid searches;

SAT and ACT test preparation tips

www.college-scholarships.com

ACT Official Site

ACT Registration, Test Preparation, Taking the Test, Score Information, Frequently Asked Questions

www.act.org/aap/index.html

Arkansas Department of Education

K-12 Information, State Board, statistics, parent information, and graduation units.

<http://arkansased.org/>

<http://www.arkansased.org/im-looking-for/parents>

<http://www.arkansased.org/divisions/learning-services/curriculum-and-instruction/smart-core-core>

Arkansas Department of Higher Education

Links to Arkansas Colleges and Universities
Financial Aid Information

www.arkansashighered.com

Arkansas Department of Workforce Education

Adult Education/GED Program

<http://dwe.arkansas.gov>

Arkansas Home School Testing Office

<http://www.arhomeschooltesting.org/>

(501) 354-3136

Administers home school norm reference testing for students in grades 3-9 and provides information about testing.

Arkansas Student Loan Authority

Student Financial Aid, Loan Programs & Services, Borrower Assistance, Free Scholarship Search www.asla.state.ar.us

Mardel's Christian Bookstore

This site has a feature that will allow parents to find the curriculum that meets the needs of their student.

<http://www.mardel.com/curriculumexplorer/default.aspx>

National Center for Education Statistics

(Direct link to over 7,000 colleges and universities in the United States)

<http://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cool>

SAT Official College Board Site

Information on College Board test dates, on-line SAT registration, and financial aid calculators

www.collegeboard.com/splash

U. S. Department of Education

Student Financial Aid information

www.ed.gov/index.jhtml

Free publications.

WEB SITES PROVIDING INFORMATION ON HOME SCHOOLING:

<http://homeschooling.gomilpitas.com>

A TO Z HOME'S COOL HOMESCHOOLING SITE.

<http://homeschooling.about.com/mbody.htm>

Information on how to get started in home school, homeschool methods, course of study, curriculum resources, used curriculum, distance learning, homeschooling information for each state, etc.

<http://www.homeschoolcentral.com>

Provides the following information: State information, home school organizations, special needs, preschool, high school and beyond, curriculum and study resources, bookstore.

<http://www.midnightbeach.com/hs/>

A source of neutral, non-commercial homeschooling information.

Parents/guardians who have access to the Internet will find a tremendous amount of information regarding home school. Use one of the following search engines, enter the search words "home school," "home schooling," or "home school curriculum." Some of the available search engines are AltaVista, Google, Ask Jeeves, Excite, Hotbot, AlltheWeb, Lycos, Netscape and Yahoo.