RE: Letter of Intent to Apply for an Open-Enrollment Public Charter School

Dear ADE Charter School Director:

ScholarMade Educational Services, an Arkansas nonprofit public benefit corporation, is filing this letter of intent to submit an application for an open-enrollment public charter school to open in Little Rock, Arkansas to be located within the boundaries of either the Little Rock School District or Pulaski County School District in August 2017. ScholarMade has received recognition of exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The contact for ScholarMade is:

Dr. Phillis Nichols-Anderson
P.O. Box 242686
Little Rock, AR 72223
Office: 501-420-2811

The proposed school will feature academies representing grades K-6 with the name ScholarMade Elementary Institute. The school will serve grades K-6 for a maximum enrollment of 320 students.

The mission of ScholarMade schools is to prepare self-confident, intellectually inquisitive, emotionally intelligent, and academically competent scholars through personalized learning, innovative leadership and excellent teaching. Our scholars will become leaders and problem solvers who will improve conditions wherever they choose to work and live.

Our vision is that ScholarMade schools will be the heart of their communities, providing safe, healthy, data driven, joyful, innovative learning environments where all are valued. ScholarMade schools will help Arkansas to close both opportunity and achievement gaps by focusing on high need communities and building strong partnerships between parents, our schools, local business and other important stakeholders.

Best Regards,
