Subject: Curriculum and Instruction Message #82: ASCD Releases Common Core Resource Collections on iTunes

Date: October 29, 2014

To: ccss@list.state.ar.us

From: Arkansas Department of Education Curriculum and Instruction Unit

Dear Arkansas Educators:

ASCD released today a new support site for teachers using the Common Core. The new resource is titled the Common Core Resource Collections on iTunes U.

The iTunes U courses in this collection are intended to give you ideas and resources for your classroom. Curated by teachers and for teachers, each course is organized by the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for your grade and content area. The resources listed are meant to be a jumping off point for you, not an end point. In line with the intentions of the CCSS, these courses are not a curriculum; rather, they offer ideas and materials to help you meet the goals and expectations of the standards and teach with iPad. The course provides general resources, materials targeted to specific standards, and sample items for the PARCC assessments.

Many of the iTunes lessons are free, while others have a minimal fee.

Visit their website to see the available courses and support: <http://educore.ascd.org/channels/view.aspx?guid=02d1bb32-0584-4323-908e-df822f4fc68f&tab=4> (Shortened Link: <http://goo.gl/peOAWc>)

Please share this information with others that might be interested. Thank you for serving the students of Arkansas.
