Subject: Message #7: Live Stream of AAMLE's Keynote Presentation on the new Arkansas's K-12 Science Standards

Date: March 20, 2015

To: adecurriculum@lists.state.ar.us

From: Arkansas Department of Education Curriculum and Instruction Unit

Dear Arkansas Curriculum Leaders,

The Arkansas Department of Education (ADE), in a joint effort with AETN, is pleased to announce that Dr. Heidi Schweingruber's keynote address at the AAMLE Middle School Conference is being made available via live stream at <http://ideas.aetn.org/events/aamle>.

Beginning at 8:15 a.m. on Monday, March 30th, Dr. Schweingruber will highlight the research that supports the Arkansas K-12 Science Standards and discuss implications for curriculum and instruction.

Dr. Schweingruber, the new director of the Board on Science Education at the National Research Council, co-directed the study that led to the development of the report "A Framework for K-12 Science Education" (2011). She also authored "Ready, Set, Science! Putting Research to Work in K-8 Science Classrooms" (2008) and "Surrounded by Science" (2010).

For individuals interested in attending the conference in person, more information, including registration forms, can be accessed at <http://www.aamle.org>.

Please share this information with others that might be interested. Thank you for serving the students of Arkansas.
