

ARKANSAS

K-12 COMPUTER SCIENCE

A FRAMEWORK FOR DYNAMIC LEARNING

Arkansas Computer Science and Technology Task Force Meeting Agenda

Location: Acxiom, 601 E. Third Street, Little Rock, AR
10:00a.m. – 2:00p.m. --- July 22, 2015

Call to Order – Dr. James Hendren

Presentation and Approval of Minutes – Dr. James Hendren

Committee Reports

- Awareness – Dave Wengel
- Curriculum – Carl Frank
- Metrics – Dr. Brett Powell
- Professional Development and Training – Andy Mayes
- Resources – Rasesh Patel

Old Business

New Business

Arkansas Department of Education – Commissioner Johnny Key

- Updates / Discussion – Anthony Owen
 - PRAXIS Update
 - ADE Mission and Vision Statements – discussion and feedback
 - Arkansas Belief Statements – discussion and adoption
 - Proposed Framework Development Process – discussion and feedback
- Action Requests – Anthony Owen
 - K-12 Computer Science Framework – recommend to the Commissioner of Education that ADE begin the development process
 - CSTA K-12 Standards – recommend that the ADE use as a guiding document for the state's framework development

Adjournment – Dr. James Hendren