

Arkansas State Council for the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children

ADE Compact Support

Audra Walters provides staff support to the Arkansas Council of the Military Interstate Children's Compact Commission. She currently serves as the Coordinated School Health director for the Arkansas Department of Education. Walters works with school district wellness committees to help create healthy school environments, particularly in the areas of nutrition and physical activity. Prior to joining the Arkansas Department of Education she served as a public health educator for both the Arkansas Department of Health and the Arkansas Children's Hospital, focusing on school health, physical activity, nutrition, and injury prevention.

Walters received a Master of Science degree in Health Science from the University of Central Arkansas and is a Certified Health Education Specialist.

She is a graduate of Valley Springs High School and currently resides in Little Rock, Arkansas.
