WHEREAS, on April 16, 2013, Governor Mike Beebe signed into law Act 1227, the Public School Choice Act of 2013 ("Act 1227"), which was duly passed by the Arkansas General Assembly; and,

WHEREAS, Act 1227 establishes a public school choice program that would allow students who are residents of EDSD to apply for a school choice transfer to a non-resident district; and,

WHEREAS, Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-1906(b)(1) (to be codified as set forth in Act 1227) provides that "[a] school district annually may declare an exemption under this section if the school district is subject to a desegregation order or mandate of a federal court or agency remedying the effects of past racial segregation"; and,

WHEREAS, the federal court or agency orders include the original directive from the United States Supreme Court in Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas (1954), and its progeny, that maintenance of racially dual public schools is unconstitutional and directing that racially segregated schools be dismantled; and the 1969 mandate from the federal department of Health, Education, and Welfare to the same effect; and the various orders entered over the years in Kemp, et al. v. Beasley, et al., United States District Court, Western District of Arkansas, El Dorado Division, Case No. ED-1048, and *Townsend, et al. v. WHEREAS, the El Dorado School Board understands that this exemption is irrevocable for one year from the date the Department of Education is notified of the declaration of exemption.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Education of the El Dorado School District, by a vote of 6 to 0, hereby declares that EDSD is exempt from the provisions of Act 1227, the Public School Choice Act of 2013 for the school year 2013-14; and,

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Superintendent is directed to immediately notify the Arkansas State Department of Education of this declaration of exemption for the 2013-14 school year.
