Philosophy

Exalt Education prepares its students for competitive colleges and advanced careers through a liberal arts education. By ensuring mastery of the core subjects and developing the key behaviors required for success, students will acquire citizenship and leadership in their communities and beyond. High expectations and accountability, a longer school day and year, and a multi-modal learning environment lay the path for our students' successes. Our co-teacher model, individualized instruction and hands-on learning ensure our students succeed daily. Exalt's eight element design has been chosen because they are research validated and proven best educational practices. The eight elements are:

1. Serve students from early childhood through secondary education
2. More focused learning time using an interdisciplinary schedule
3. Multi-modal learning environment
4. Embedded Standards & Assessment
5. Greater Teacher Ownership & Opportunity
6. Enhanced Use of Technology
7. Focus on Competitive Colleges & Advanced Careers
8. Structured Leadership Development

We believe that all students deserve only the best education. The 8 elements in our design have been proven effective in preparing students for college at exemplary public schools all across the country. However, to our knowledge, no school has ever merged all 8 elements into one school model until now!

Types of Instructional Modalities

1. Direct Instruction and using Connecting Math Concepts and/or DISTAR
2. Standards Based Instruction and Rocket Math (math facts)
3. Additional Math Block

Connecting Math Concepts Course Description

Connecting Math Concepts helps all children be successful because it implements the following principles:

- The program and teacher together accept complete responsibility for teaching every student to mastery.
- All instruction is direct and unambiguous; tasks and activities are specified in detail.
- The strands are organized in an order that is easy to comprehend. Every skill and strategy that student's need is specifically taught, applied, and reviewed. Students receive consistent daily practice.

- Assessment is continuous; errors are corrected the instant they occur in a positive, productive way. Connections are made between important concepts. Instructional time is maximized, so that all students have the opportunity to learn and apply concepts.
- Concepts are introduced at a reasonable rate. 90% of the material presented daily is review, leaving 10% for new concepts; this ensures daily success for every student.
- There is both guided and independent practice. All lessons have been extensively field tested and revised before publication.

Homeroom, Standards-Based, and Rocket Math Course Descriptions

- Homeroom will serve as a homeroom time that will teach the standards students need to be successful.
- Math facts will be taught daily during advisory. We will utilize Rocket Math for the math facts program.
- Three days a week, students will have a short standards-based lesson and activities or math centers that support the lesson. Standards-based books have been created for students to use as a resource.
- Two days a week students will be doing Math centers during the advisory block. Teachers will be using the common core math standards and common core math binders to structure their lessons.

Interdisciplinary Course Description

- The term interdisciplinary means drawing from two or more areas of study. Global Studies and Natural World/FOSS units will have an integration of art, music and technology.
- We also hope to integrate ELA and Math into our daily Natural World and Global Studies Lessons.
- Through hands-on learning, project-driven learning, and authentic assessment, students will be provided with a rich learning experience.
- Students will have the opportunity to apply basic Math and ELA skills in multiple areas, which will solidify skills.
- Global Studies, Natural World, Visual Art and Music Elements will use Core Knowledge; in addition to Core Knowledge, Natural World will also utilize the FOSS program. This class will be taught whole group with one teacher teaching while the other teacher has prep. However, team teaching will occur in the planning process. Both teachers are responsible for the content taught to their students during this block.

Assessment

Exalt assesses students in many ways. In curriculum assessment, cumulative testing, authentic assessment, exit tickets, summative unit tests, Illuminate, NWEA MAP, and state testing.

Yearlong Preparation for State and National Tests

- ELA and Math standards will be integrated within the Global Studies and Natural World courses to give further practice and support for state testing.
- Applying test prep skills across subject areas helps students apply their knowledge in other areas outside of school or on a test.

Section B

Direct Instruction Implementation

Direct instruction is built upon the philosophy that all children can be taught, some children need more practice than others, and all children can succeed if provided with adequate training and materials. The curriculum is also built upon the philosophy that the details of instruction must be controlled to minimize the chance of students misinterpreting the information being taught and to maximize the reinforcing effects of instruction.

At the heart of all exercises is an oral as well as written portion. The basic learning paradigm for DI is Model, Lead, Test, and Individual Turns. DI implements this by saying ‘My turn, do it with me, your turn, and all by yourself.’ The below table demonstrates this paradigm.

|-------------------------|---------------------------|------------------------------|
| MODEL | “My turn.” | Teacher only |
| LEAD | “Do it with me.” | Teacher with students |
| TEST | “Your turn.” | Students only |
| INDIVIDUAL TURNS | “All by yourself.” | Individual student |

Exalt Education uses Direct Instruction for Reading, Math and Language classes in our schools. Those times of day are protected school wide and teachers must teach direct instruction during those times of the day. A second reading time has been created for groups who need additional support. Teachers must adhere to the schedule during the entire duration of the period. Instruction time is valued and protected. Teacher must start and stop every lesson on time, teaching bell to bell. Field trips and special events must not be scheduled during DI teaching time.

Placement Tests and Student Groups

All students are placement tested into performance groups. The groups are as homogeneous as possible. Proper placement is a key to success. If students are in ability-based performance groups, instruction can be more efficient for the teacher and students can move at a rate that is best for their learning.

Group sizes vary on the needs of students. Students who are older and higher performing can have groups between 15-20 in size. Students who are younger or lower performing should have smaller group sizes.

Groups should be organized in different ways depending on the size of the group. There are several key factors for teachers to consider when physically arranging the group. First, the teacher needs to be able to get to all the students quickly. Second, all students need to be able to see the presentation book clearly. Finally, materials need to be easy for students to access.

Behavior

Direct Instruction works to minimize distractions by controlling any classroom factors that could contribute to this. There must be clear expectations for all situations that happen during direction instruction blocks. Students must have procedures for transitions, use and storage of materials, the handing in and out of assignments, pencils and all materials.

All behavior expectations need to be taught, practiced and retaught to students to ensure high levels of academic performance during DI blocks. Every DI group has the STAR behavior expectations posted near their group. STAR stands for...

Sit tall

Talk big

Answer on signal

Respect others

Sequence and Scripts

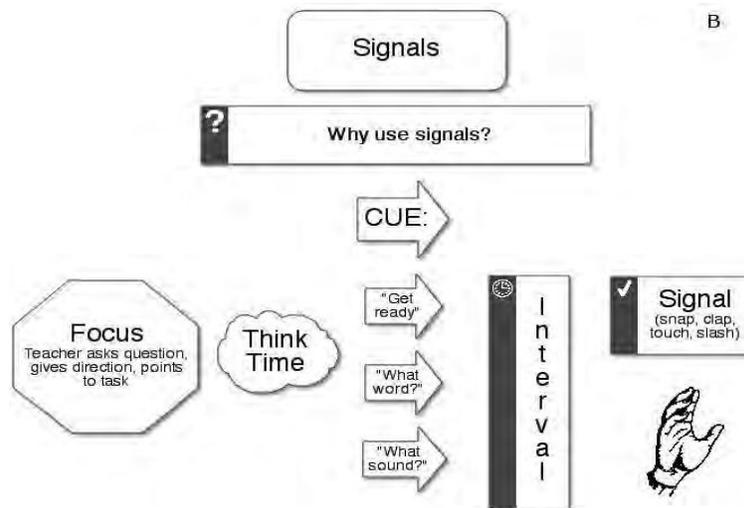

Each Direct Instruction curriculum is carefully crafted into a meaningful sequence based on research on how kids learn. It is not random or traditional, but rather what makes the most sense to student learning. Each DI program is piloted and field tested with actual students. The program is then revised based on student performance.

Direct Instruction is organized into scripts and formats. Everything that teachers and students say and do is specified in a script. The language in the program is consistent day to day so that students can attend to critical learning components. The scripts minimize the confusion and distractions. They are organized into formats or patterns of teaching steps. Over time, the formats change so that there is less structure and more independent skills. It cuts down prep time and allows teachers to focus on great delivery. The script allows a teacher's showmanship to shine.

Signals and Unison Responses

Signals and unison responses are key features in direct instruction. A signal is used to get all students to answer together. We use signals and unison response to get a clearer picture of who is firm, increase student engagement, increase student accountability, and make teaching more efficient. Unison response also gives students hundreds of times to respond per lesson verses just waiting to be called on. The teacher will be able to hear mistakes quickly and correct them immediately. Signals can be either visual or audible depending on the lesson. The diagram below shows the process of using a signal to generate a unison response.

Pacing

Another key feature of direct instruction is pacing. Brisk pacing accomplishes three major goals. These include teachers teaching more material, maintaining students' interest and reducing management problems.

Motivation

One key factor to remember when teaching DI is that it is our job as a teacher is to motivate and reinforce students. If the teacher acts like it is important, the students will respond like it is important. We can use many tools to do this. One tool used in DI is the teacher-student game.

Teacher Student Game

The teacher-student game fosters group camaraderie and reinforces good behavior and academic success. The point game reinforces desired behaviors because students can earn points with good behavior that results in tangible reinforcement. It facilitates instruction by prompting students to obey the rules and follow all directions. It reinforces academic success and promotes mastery by giving students more reinforcement for getting things correct the first time.

The game should be encouraged daily with all instructional groups at all elementary school grades. Teachers of middle school and high school students can use an alternative motivation system, such as the 90% club.

Setting Up the Game

Children can earn points for:

- working hard and following the rules
- getting the right answer.

The teacher can earn points for:

- students not following the rules
(e.g., not responding to a task because they weren't attending; speaking out of turn; making inappropriate contact; getting out of their seats when they weren't directed to)
- signal errors
(e.g., not saying sounds when the teacher touches under them; saying sounds when the teacher is not touching under them, etc.)

Teacher starts the game by stating expectations:

“We’re going to play a game. If you win the game, you get to have _____ (their reward for winning). You get points for working hard and following the rules (tell them the rules in 1 minute or less). You also get points for getting things right.”

I get points when you don’t follow the rules or if you get tricked and don’t follow my signals.”

Note: Teachers can only give themselves a point when students breaking previously stated rules or expectations. If there is not a rule to govern a situation, the teacher cannot take a point. So it is important that the teacher establishes simple, comprehensive behavioral rules and expectations the first day of school (e.g., sit tall, talk big, answer together and respect others).

When giving yourself a point, always state the expectation not being met (e.g., “Everyone is not following the direction to track when others are reading. My point”).

Mastery

Teaching to mastery is a key feature in direct instruction. Teachers must meet specific criteria for student performance in each lesson:

- Students should be at least 70% correct on anything that is being introduced for the first time.
- Students should be at least 90% correct on the parts of the lesson that deal with skills and information introduced earlier in the program sequence.
- At the end of the lesson, all students should be virtually 100% firm on all tasks and activities.
- The rate of errors should be low enough that the teacher is able to complete the lesson in the allotted time.
- Students must be at least 85% first-time correct on independent work.
- Student must have 90-100% performance on mastery tests.

Individual Turns

Individual turns are built into lessons to provide teachers for checks for understanding and to allow students additional practice. The following procedure is used when giving individual turns:

- Announce: “Time for individual turns”
- Focus the group: Point to the task or ask the question. Allow sufficient think time. More for harder tasks less for easier tasks.
- Signal: Call on an individual. “Jane, what word?” or “Marcus, what sound?”

Guidelines for Individual Turns:

- Call on students randomly, not in order.
- If an error is made, tell the answer to the whole group and repeat the task with the whole group. Then do individual turns again.
- Give three or four individual turns for each exercise. Do not give an individual turn to every student on every task.
- Generally, 50% of the individual turns should be given to the low performing students in the group.
- Students should demonstrate 100% mastery on oral individual turns.

Correction Procedures

All errors must be corrected immediately and correct answers given to students quickly.

Every time an error in an exercise occurs:

1. Give the answer (tell, show or show and tell)
2. Repeat the task statement or question)
3. Go back and repeat the part (if you can't figure out what the “part” is, go back at least two things: 2 sounds, 2 words, 2 pictures, or 2 problems). Repeat steps 1-3 until the whole part is 100% firm- no errors are made)
4. Go to the next part. Repeat parts until all parts are firm.
5. Go back to the beginning of the exercise, if it is a short exercise. In a lengthy exercise, go back to those tasks or parts where the errors occurred.
6. Give individual turn.
7. Provide a delayed test at least 2 more times. (e.g., after the next exercise, at the end of the lesson, in line in the hallway, before lunch).

Guidelines for Workcheck

Following Workcheck Procedures

1. Have students check their own work rather than exchange papers.
2. Have students use colored pens or pencils while checking their work.
3. Provide visual answers whenever appropriate or beneficial to students.
4. Show and tell students how to mark correct and incorrect items.

5. Show and tell students how to mark items to fix up later (unless a specific program suggests that students fix work as they check).
6. Provide time to have students redo the missed items. Have students redo missed items by writing next to or above original items rather than erase them.
7. Provide additional verbal or written delayed tests on commonly missed items (at the end of the lesson, before or after lunch, at the end of the day, or the next day if new copies of workbook pages are needed).

Monitoring Student Checking while Walking Around the Room

1. Monitor that students are checking their work (their eyes are on their papers).
2. Monitor that students are looking at the particular items being checked.
3. Check that students have and are using marking pens or pencils.
4. Monitor that students are marking X's and C's (or other symbols taught), and that students are making the marks appropriately next to the items, especially wrong items.

Monitoring Student Performance

1. At the beginning of the year, check all books every day. As students become consistent with accurate checking, randomly check a minimum of five books a day.
2. Each day, record a score for independent work (e.g. number of errors, points, or percentages). Whenever possible, record a percentage for independent work for each student.
3. For students with less than 85% for three days, note on the Lesson Progress Chart and talk immediately to someone else, such as a coach or building coordinator.

NOTE: These procedures are not to be used with tests.

Section C

Direct Instruction Performance Management

Why do we track data?

- To analyze the overall status of DI implementation
- To continuously monitor mastery and lesson progress
- To determine areas that require change, and to identify solutions
- To summarize and report lesson gains, mastery tests, and results
- To communicate questions or comments to the Direct Instruction Coordinator

What data keeping forms do we use?

- LPC- lesson progress chart
 - Submitted weekly
 - Tracks lesson progress
 - Gives a snapshot of group composition and test results
- STS - Student Test Summaries
 - Submitted when a test or checkout is given
 - Tracks student performance on each section of a given test
- IW- Independent work scores
 - Submitted weekly
 - Tracks student scores on daily independent work

What is done with the data?

- Data is reviewed weekly by DI coordinator, and suggestions are given regarding student placement and necessary interventions
- Questions and comments are responded to, and problem solving occurs between teachers and coordinator
- Data is archived online and can be accessed to look at student growth and achievement

What is required for weekly data submission?

- Data must be updated before you leave on Wednesday of each week
- LPC- every week
 - Download a new blank LPC each week
- STS- for each group that took a test or checkout that week
 - This is one form with multiple tabs that is used for the entirety of a program
- IW- every week
 - Download a new STS form each time you fill one up

How do I fill out an LPC?

- For each subject (yellow= reading, green = math, orange = language), enter the following:
 - Group name
 - Grades of the students in your group, and how many students in each grade (i.e. 2nd-6, 3rd- 12)
 - Total # of kids in group
 - Subject level
 - Performance level- Low, Medium, High (you may need a few weeks to figure this out)
 - Lessons taught each day
 - There are two rows for when you teach more than one lesson in a day
 - Partial lessons should be listed as what part of the new lesson you stopped at (i.e. 15 ex. 4)
 - # of lessons/# of days in school
 - Do not include holidays or non-school days
 - Do include school days where you had parties, field trips, remedies, etc.
 - Name of test or checkouts given (one per row)
 - # of students passing/# of students in group
 - do not include absent students as passing

- Names of students absent
 - Go back and enter them as either passing or not passing when they return to school
- Names of students not passing

How do I leave notes on an LPC?

- At the bottom of your LPC, fill out:
- General Notes
 - Struggles (be specific) had by students or teacher that week
 - Questions, general comments
 - Types of items students missed
 - i.e. Amanda- counting coins, Johnny- subtraction
 - This info comes from your STS
 - Checkout scores if not passed
 - Recorded as time/errors
 - I.e. James 1:30/2
 - Movement notes
 - i.e. Sally joined this group on Tuesday from Mr. Anderson's group

How do I receive feedback?

- At the bottom of your LPC, you will see:
- Communication
 - This is where the DI coordinator will leave responses to your comments or questions.
 - The coordinator will e-mail you to let you know that they have left feedback on your LPC

How do I fill out an STS form?

- Fill in student names, separated by a row in between

- Record students first time scores on each part (only the first time score is recorded in Illuminate for students' grades)
- Add up the total score, and calculate the students' percentages
- Highlight in red any percentages under 90%*
 - * 85% for cumulative tests
- At the bottom, fill in the # passing each section/total # in group
 - Passing criteria is at the top of each column
 - Calculate the percentage passing for each section
 - Highlight in red any percentages less than 85%
 - For any sections that less than 85% of the group passed, the teacher needs to remedy (re-teach) those strands

How do I record retest scores on an STS form?

- If a student or group doesn't pass the first time:
 - Remedy the sections that the student or group did not pass
 - Have the students or group retake the sections of the test that they did not pass
 - Record retest scores in the row below the student's name
 - Calculate their percentage based on their scores from the parts they passed the first time and the parts they retested
 - Highlight their retest score in red if still under 90%

How do I record checkouts on an STS form?

- All programs except decoding are recorded as time/errors
 - i.e. 1:12/2
- Decoding is recorded as wpm/errors
 - i.e. 96/3
 - Highlight in red any scores that are over the criteria for time or errors
 - Criteria is listed at the top of the column on the STS

When do I record IW scores?

- Reading

- RMK and RM1: Every 5 lessons
- RM2 –RM5: every lesson
- Math
 - CMC K and CMC 1: Every 5 lessons
 - CMC 2- CMC F: every lesson
- Language
 - Every 5 lessons (lessons that end in 4 and 8)

How do I fill out an IW form?

- In the left column, enter the # correct/total # of questions
 - i.e. 34/37
- In the right column, enter the students' percentage (rounded)
 - i.e. 92%
- Highlight red all percentages less than 85%
- If a student is absent, mark both columns with the letter A (students do not have to make up daily work when absent)

Where do I find DI forms?

- All forms can be accessed on the Exalt website:

<https://sites.google.com/a/knovalearning.com/exalt-teacher-resource-page/>

- Download the forms that you need for the groups that you teach.
- Upload them to Google Drive and put them in your folders
- Keep a copy of filled out forms on your computer as a backup

Where do I submit DI forms?

- All forms will be submitted electronically to Google Drive
- As a group, let's create folders for ourselves
 - Your Name, School Year
 - DI Data
 - Current Week

- Math STS and IW
- Reading STS and IW
- Language STS and IW
- Previous LPCs

How do I submit data electronically?

- In your current week folder, include the following:
 - Current LPC
 - Labeled with your last name, LPC, date span of that week (i.e. Anderson LPC- 9/3-9/10)
 - Any applicable STS forms
 - Labeled with your last name, program/level, STS (i.e. Anderson RM4 STS)
 - IW forms for all subjects
 - Labeled with your last name, program/level, IW, date (i.e. Anderson RM4 IW 9/3-9/10)
 - When you are ready to submit, go to the left hand side of Google Drive, find your “current week” folder, and using the triangle to the right, select “e-mail collaborators”.
 - Select the name of your DI coordinator, and send them an e-mail letting them know your data is ready for review

Practice Scenarios

- Please fill in the reading line of an LPC based upon the following information:
 - Group name: Reading Rockets
 - Seven 4th graders, five 5th graders
 - Low performing group in RM4
 - Taught 5 lessons during a normal school week, starting with L.48
 - Gave MT 5 and checkout 5
 - Amanda didn’t pass MT (missed vocab items), and Johnny was absent for MT and checkout
 - Sarah didn’t pass checkout (1 min 12 seconds with 3 error

Section D

SBI Outline and Support Documents

SBI or Standards-Based Instruction allows teachers to focus specifically on Math common core standards in a whole group setting. These standards can also be integrated into the interdisciplinary blocks of Global Studies and Natural World. Students will have the opportunity to learn standards from teacher-created lesson plans. Teachers will use the Illuminate data and NWEA Maps data to shape their lessons.

Teachers will use the required SBI lesson plan template weekly to plan engaging lessons for students. These lessons will be taught during homeroom as well as integrated into the interdisciplinary blocks. The lesson plan template consists of the following components:

| CCSS or State Standards | Daily Objective (Standards Based Written in terms of what students will be able to do at end of lesson) | Assessment (This includes a daily exit ticket and an end of week assessment.) | Teacher Does (This includes the daily mini-lesson that should be taught.) | Student Does (This is what students should be actively learning, not just the pages in the workbook.) |

Teachers will also have Math Common Core Center Binders. These are full of center activities for teachers to implement and is organized by common core standard strands for ease of use.

Section E

Homeroom Outline and Support Documents

Homeroom is a time of day where one teacher in the classroom can give additional support to individual students or small groups of students in areas of direct instruction, while the other teacher is providing SBI type lessons, writer's workshop, etc. These students may need support on a particular section of a lesson or maybe they have been absent for a significant period of time.

Teachers will use the required homeroom template to outline engaging lessons for students. The lesson plan template consists of the following components:

Homeroom Lesson Plan Template

2. Solve word problems that call for addition of three whole numbers whose sum is less than or equal to 20, e.g., by using objects, drawings, and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.

Operations and Algebraic Thinking (1.OA)

Understand and apply properties of operations and the relationship between addition and subtraction.

3. Apply properties of operations as strategies to add and subtract. Examples: If $8 + 3 = 11$ is known, then $3 + 8 = 11$ is also known. (Commutative property of addition.) To add $2 + 6 + 4$, the second two numbers can be added to make a ten, so $2 + 6 + 4 = 2 + 10 = 12$. (Associative property of addition.)

Add and subtract within 20.

6. Add and subtract within 20, demonstrating fluency for addition and subtraction within 10. Use strategies such as counting on; making ten (e.g., $8 + 6 = 8 + 2 + 4 = 10 + 4 = 14$); decomposing a number leading to a ten (e.g., $13 - 4 = 13 - 3 - 1 = 10 - 1 = 9$); using the relationship between addition and subtraction (e.g., knowing that $8 + 4 = 12$, one knows $12 - 8 = 4$); and creating equivalent but easier or known sums (e.g., adding $6 + 7$ by creating the known equivalent $6 + 6 + 1 = 12 + 1 = 13$).

Number and Operations in Base Ten (1.NBT)

Understand place value.

- Understand that the two digits of a two-digit number represent amounts of tens and ones. Understand the following as special cases: a. 10 can be thought of as a bundle of ten ones — called a “ten.” b. The numbers from 11 to 19 are composed of a ten and one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, or nine ones. c. The numbers 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90 refer to one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, or nine tens (and 0 ones).

Number and Operations in Base Ten (1.NBT)

Understand place value.

3. Compare two two-digit numbers based on meanings of the tens and ones digits, recording the results of comparisons with the symbols $>$, $=$, and $<$.

This standard is addressed in the following activities of the Student Practice Software:

- Block 4: Activity 4
- Block 5: Activity 6

Number and Operations in Base Ten (1.NBT)

Use place value understanding and properties of operations to add and subtract.

4. Add within 100, including adding a two-digit number and a one-digit number, and adding a two-digit number and a multiple of 10, using concrete models or drawings and strategies based on place value, properties of operations, and/or the relationship between addition and subtraction; relate the strategy to a written method and explain the reasoning used. Understand that in adding two-digit numbers, one adds tens and tens, ones and ones; and sometimes it is necessary to compose a ten.

Number and Operations in Base Ten (1.NBT)

Use place value understanding and properties of operations to add and subtract.

6. Subtract multiples of 10 in the range 10–90 from multiples of 10 in the range 10–90 (positive or zero differences), using concrete models or drawings and strategies based on place value, properties of operations, and/or the relationship between addition and subtraction; relate the strategy to a written method and explain the reasoning used.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 54.

Measurement and Data (1.MD)

Measure lengths indirectly and by iterating length units.

1. Order three objects by length; compare the lengths of two objects indirectly by using a third object.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 93.

Measurement and Data (1.MD)

Measure lengths indirectly and by iterating length units.

2. Express the length of an object as a whole number of length units, by laying multiple copies of a shorter object (the length unit) end to end; understand that the length measurement of an object is the number of same-size length units that span it with no gaps or overlaps. Limit to contexts where the object being measured is spanned by a whole number of length units with no gaps or overlaps.

This standard is addressed in the following activities of the Student Practice Software:

- Block 3: Activity 6
- Block 6: Activity 5

Note: Measurement, Data and Geometry standards will need to be heavily covered within SBI due to the minimal coverage in the Connecting Math Concepts program.

Measurement and Data (1.MD)

Measure lengths indirectly and by iterating length units.

3. Tell and write time in hours and half-hours using analog and digital clocks.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 91.

Measurement and Data (1.MD)

Measure lengths indirectly and by iterating length units.

4. Organize, represent, and interpret data with up to three categories; ask and answer questions about the total number of data points, how many in each category, and how many more or less are in one category than in another.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 122.

Geometry (1.G)

Reason with shapes and their attributes.

1. Distinguish between defining attributes (e.g., triangles are closed and three-sided) versus non-defining attributes (e.g., color, orientation, overall size); build and draw shapes to possess defining attributes.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 61.

Geometry (1.G)

Reason with shapes and their attributes.

2. Compose two-dimensional shapes (rectangles, squares, trapezoids, triangles, half-circles, and quarter-circles) or three-dimensional shapes (cubes, right rectangular prisms, right circular cones, and right circular cylinders) to create a composite shape, and compose new shapes from the composite shape.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 69.

Geometry (1.G)

Reason with shapes and their attributes.

3. Partition circles and rectangles into two and four equal shares, describe the shares using the words halves, fourths, and quarters, and use the phrases half of, fourth of, and quarter of. Describe the whole as two of, or four of the shares. Understand for these examples that decomposing into more equal shares creates smaller shares.

This standard is first addressed in Lesson 117.

Standards below to be used during SBI/Advisory Math, Global Studies and Natural World (when applicable)

Month: September
1st Grade Mathematics

STANDARDS:

1.NBT.1 Count to 120, starting at any number less than 120.

1.OA.3 Apply properties of operations as strategies to add and subtract. Examples: If $8 + 3 = 11$ is known, then $3 + 8 = 11$ is also known. (Commutative property of addition.) To add $2 + 6 + 4$, the second two numbers can be added to make a ten, so $2 + 6 + 4 = 2 + 10 = 12$. (Associative property of addition.)

1.OA.6 Add and subtract within 20, using strategies such as counting on; making ten (e.g., $8 + 6 = 8 + 2 + 4 = 10 + 4 = 14$); decomposing a number leading to a ten (e.g., $13 - 4 = 13 - 3 - 1 = 10 - 1 = 9$); using the relationship between addition and subtraction (e.g., knowing that $8 + 4 = 12$, one knows $12 - 8 = 4$); and creating equivalent but easier or known sums (e.g., adding $6 + 7$ by creating the known equivalent $6 + 6 + 1 = 12 + 1 = 13$).

1.OA.7 Understand the meaning of the equal sign, and determine if equations involving addition and subtraction are true or false. For example, which of the following equations are true and which are false? $6 = 6$, $7 = 8 - 1$, $5 + 2 = 2 + 5$, $4 + 1 = 5 + 2$.

SUBSKILLS:

- 1:1 correspondence
- Recognize numbers on ten frames
- Counting by 10s

VOCABULARY: add, answer, count back, count on, equal (to), minus, number sentence (equation), plus, subtract,

Month: October – December
1st Grade Mathematics

STANDARDS:

1.OA.1 Use addition and subtraction within 20 to solve word problems involving situations of adding to, taking from, putting together, taking apart, and comparing, with unknowns in all positions, e.g., by using objects, drawings, and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.

1.OA.2 Solve word problems that call for addition of three whole numbers whose sum is less than or equal to 20, e.g., by using objects, drawings, and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.

1.OA.8 Determine the unknown whole number in an addition or subtraction equation relating to three whole numbers. For example, determine the unknown number that makes the equation true in each of the equations $8 + ? = 11$, $5 = \heartsuit - 3$, $6 + 6 = \heartsuit$

Use place value understanding and properties of operations to add and subtract.

7. Add and subtract within 1000, using concrete models or drawings and strategies based on place value, properties of operations, and/or the relationship between addition and subtraction; relate the strategy to a written method. Understand that in adding or subtracting three-digit numbers, one adds or subtracts hundreds and hundreds, tens and tens, ones and ones; and sometimes it is necessary to compose or decompose tens or hundreds.

Operations and Algebraic Thinking (3.OA)

Understand properties of multiplication and the relationship between multiplication and division.

5. Apply properties of operations as strategies to multiply and divide. Examples: If $6 \times 4 = 24$ is known, then $4 \times 6 = 24$ is also known. (Commutative property of multiplication.) $3 \times 5 \times 2$ can be found by $3 \times 5 = 15$, then $15 \times 2 = 30$, or by $5 \times 2 = 10$, then $3 \times 10 = 30$. (Associative property of multiplication.) Knowing that $8 \times 5 = 40$ and $8 \times 2 = 16$, one can find 8×7 as $8 \times (5 + 2) = (8 \times 5) + (8 \times 2) = 40 + 16 = 56$. (Distributive property.)

Develop understanding of fractions as numbers.

3. Explain equivalence of fractions in special cases, and compare fractions by reasoning about their size.
 - a. Understand two fractions as equivalent (equal) if they are the same size, or the same point on a number line.
 - b. Recognize and generate simple equivalent fractions, e.g., $\frac{1}{2} = \frac{2}{4}$, $\frac{4}{6} = \frac{2}{3}$. Explain why the fractions are equivalent, e.g., by using a visual fraction model.
 - c. Express whole numbers as fractions, and recognize fractions that are equivalent to whole numbers. Examples: Express 3 in the form $3 = \frac{3}{1}$; recognize that $\frac{6}{1} = 6$; locate $\frac{4}{4}$ and 1 at the same point of a number line diagram.
 - d. Compare two fractions with the same numerator or the same denominator by reasoning about their size. Recognize that comparisons are valid only when the two fractions refer to the same whole. Record the results of comparisons with the symbols $>$, $=$, or $<$, and justify the conclusions, e.g., by using a visual fraction model.

Measurement and Data (3.MD)

Geometric measurement: understand concepts of area and relate area to multiplication and to addition.

7. Relate area to the operations of multiplication and addition.
- Find the area of a rectangle with whole-number side lengths by tiling it, and show that the area is the same as would be found by multiplying the side lengths.
 - Multiply side lengths to find areas of rectangles with whole-number side lengths in the context of solving real-world and mathematical problems, and represent whole-number products as rectangular areas in mathematical reasoning.
 - Use tiling to show in a concrete case that the area of a rectangle with whole-number side lengths a and $b + c$ is the sum of $a \times b$ and $a \times c$. Use area models to represent the distributive property in mathematical reasoning.
 - Recognize area as additive. Find areas of rectilinear figures by decomposing them into non-overlapping rectangles and adding the areas of the non-overlapping parts, applying this technique to solve real world problems.

3rd Grade Mathematics

3.OA.5 Apply properties of operations as strategies to multiply and divide.² Examples: If $6 \times 4 = 24$ is known, then $4 \times 6 = 24$ is also known. (Commutative property of multiplication.) $3 \times 5 \times 2$ can be found by $3 \times 5 = 15$, then $15 \times 2 = 30$, or by $5 \times 2 = 10$, then $3 \times 10 = 30$. (Associative property of multiplication.) Knowing that $8 \times 5 = 40$ and $8 \times 2 = 16$, one can find 8×7 as $8 \times (5 + 2) = (8 \times 5) + (8 \times 2) = 40 + 16 = 56$. (Distributive property.)

1. Explain why a fraction a/b is equivalent to a fraction $(n \times a)/(n \times b)$ by using visual fraction models, with attention to how the number and size of the parts differ even though the two fractions themselves are the same size. Measurement and Data (4.MD)

Geometric measurement: understand concepts of angle and measure angles.

5. Recognize angles as geometric shapes that are formed wherever two rays share a common endpoint, and understand concepts of angle measurement:
- An angle is measured with reference to a circle with its center at the common endpoint of the rays, by considering the fraction of the circular arc between the points where the two rays intersect the circle. An angle that turns through $\frac{1}{360}$ of a circle is called a "one-degree angle," and can be used to measure angles.
 - An angle that turns through n one-degree angles is said to have an angle measure of n degrees.

4.NF.1 Explain why a fraction a/b is equivalent to a fraction $(n \times a)/(n \times b)$ by using visual fraction models, with attention to how the number and size of the parts differ even though the two fractions themselves are the same size. Use this principle to recognize and generate equivalent fractions.

4.NF.2 Compare two fractions with different numerators and different denominators, e.g., by creating common denominators or numerators, or by comparing to a benchmark fraction such as $1/2$. Recognize that comparisons are valid only when the two fractions refer to the same whole. Record the results of comparisons with symbols $>$, $=$, or $<$, and justify the conclusions, e.g., by using a visual fraction model.

4.NF.3 Understand a fraction a/b with $a > 1$ as a sum of fractions $1/b$.

- a. Understand addition and subtraction of fractions as joining and separating parts referring to the same whole.
- b. Decompose a fraction into a sum of fractions with the same denominator in more than one way, recording each decomposition by an equation. Justify decompositions, e.g., by using a visual fraction model. Examples: $3/8 = 1/8 + 1/8 + 1/8$; $3/8 = 1/8 + 2/8$; $2 1/8 = 1 + 1 + 1/8 = 8/8 + 8/8 + 1/8$.
- c. Add and subtract mixed numbers with like denominators, e.g., by replacing each mixed number with an equivalent fraction, and/or by using properties of operations and the relationship between addition and subtraction.
- d. Solve word problems involving addition and subtraction of fractions referring to the same whole and having like denominators, e.g., by using visual fraction models and equations to represent the problem.

4.NF.4 Apply and extend previous understandings of multiplication to multiply a fraction by a whole number.

- a. Understand a fraction a/b as a multiple of $1/b$. For example, use a visual fraction model to represent $5/4$ as the product $5 \times (1/4)$, recording the conclusion by the equation $5/4 = 5 \times (1/4)$.
- b. Understand a multiple of a/b as a multiple of $1/b$, and use this understanding to multiply a fraction by a whole number. For example, use a visual fraction model to express $3 \times (2/5)$ as $6 \times (1/5)$, recognizing this product as $6/5$. (In general, $n \times (a/b) = (n \times a)/b$.)
- c. Solve word problems involving multiplication of a fraction by a whole number, e.g., by using visual fraction models and equations to represent the problem. For example, if each person at a party will eat $3/8$ of a pound of roast beef, and there will be 5 people at the party, how many pounds of roast beef will be needed? Between what two whole numbers does your answer lie?

4.MD.4 Make a line plot to display a data set of measurements in fractions of a unit ($1/2$, $1/4$, $1/8$). Solve problems involving addition and subtraction of fractions by using information presented in line plots. For example, from a line plot find and interpret the difference in length between the longest and shortest specimens in an insect collection.

SUBSKILLS:

- Use models and knowledge of factors to identify and generate equivalent fractions
- Simplify fractions
- Compare & order fractions w/ unlike denominators, and justify the comparison with a model

4.NF.6 Use decimal notation for fractions with denominators 10 or 100. For example, rewrite 0.62 as $\frac{62}{100}$; describe a length as 0.62 meters; locate 0.62 on a number line diagram.

4.NF.7 Compare two decimals to hundredths by reasoning about their size. Recognize that comparisons are valid only when the two decimals refer to the same whole. Record the results of comparisons with the symbols $>$, $=$, or $<$, and justify the conclusions, e.g., by using a visual model.

Ms. Perry – In accordance with the procedures in Ark. Code Ann. sections 6-23-702 and 703, and the time frame set out in your November 14 letter announcing the approval of Quest Middle School’s charter application, LRSD requests that the State Board of Education review the final decision of the Department in this matter. Although Quest claimed in its application that it would enroll 78% free and reduced lunch students, then submitted an amended budget to the ADE at its approval hearing claiming at least 50% F/R students, neither number fits with the available evidence. Quest will likely be established as a predominately white, low poverty school which operates to the detriment of both LRSD and PCSSD. Quest will also draw students from the same area where LRSD has purchased land for the construction of a new middle school. It makes no sense as a matter of public policy to create two new middle schools in the same place at the same time.

Information available at the ADE Data Center supports LRSD’s concerns. At Baker, the elementary school closest to the proposed Quest site, less than 19% of the students received F/R lunch during the 2011-12 school year (the last year reported). At two other elementary schools in the area, Chenal and Roberts, there were 24% and 25% F/R students, respectively. To the extent Quest would draw from students from private or home schools rather than traditional public schools, the numbers would likely be even lower. Quest has budgeted $99,000 for transportation. This will not be nearly enough to affect the character of the school. An accurate calculation of the likely F/R enrollment at Quest would also have the effect of reducing Quest’s budgeted income. If the State is willing to create what will clearly be a low poverty, identifiably white school operated by a private entity which does not have the means to transport any significant numbers of poverty students to the school, the SBE (rather than ADE) should make that decision with a full record of the likely enrollment and not on the questionable representation that there will be some degree of economic balance.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. Please let me know if there is anything further I must do to have this request presented to the State Board. CH

RE: Notification of Charter Authorizing Panel Decision
Quest Middle School of West Little Rock

Dear Mr. Baumann:

On November 14, 2013, the Charter Authorizing Panel met and approved the application for the Quest Middle School of West Little Rock. Ark. Code Ann. § 6-23-702(b)(2)(A) allows charter applicants and affected school districts to request that the State Board of Education review a final decision of the Charter Authorizing Panel. A request must state the specific reasons that the board should review the decision.

Ark. Code Ann. § 6-23-703(a) requires the State Board of Education to consider requests for review of Charter Authorizing Panel decisions at its next meeting after the decisions are made. Therefore, a review request must be submitted, via email, no later than 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 20, 2013, in order for the request to be included on the State Board of Education agenda for the meeting on December 9, 2013. Email the request to ade.charterschools@arkansas.gov. Be advised that the decision of whether to review a Charter Authorizing Panel decision is discretionary. See Ark. Code Ann. § 6-23-702(b)(3).

Information on the School District in Which the Charter Would Be Located

Pulaski County Special School District
56.74% free and reduced-price lunch (2012-2013)
Needs Improvement District (ESEA 2012) - Mathematics

Issues that Remain Unresolved as Determined by the Charter Internal Review Committee

- The address of the proposed charter being in the Pulaski County Special School District when the application is predicated on the school being in the Little Rock School District
- Budgeting concerns
 - Lack of a revised budget for review as revenue was reduced and expenses increased in response to concerns identified by the Charter Internal Review Committee -
 - Statement that the budget will be revised to reflect expenses for English language learners
 - Statement that budget will be revised to remove federal revenue
 - Only a statement without official documentation to demonstrate a commitment by the sponsoring entity to provide Quest with up to $300,000.00 in 2014-2015 and up to $100,000.00 in 2015-2016 should Quest fail to receive this revenue from other sources
- Lack of details about the student transportation plan
- The ability to meet the needs of gifted and talented students
- The brief mention of using a “classical based education” in the geographic service area section of the application and brief response to ADE comment without discussion of the classical curriculum
- The statement that “a student must reside in Quest’s approved geographic region”

Requested Waivers

Note from legal staff:

The Charter Authorizing Panel should examine each waiver requested by the applicant. Particular attention should be paid to the following waiver requests which traditionally have either not been granted or have warranted additional discussion by the authorizer:

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-10-106 Uniform Dates for Beginning and End of School Year
 - The Applicant proposes to follow the calendar of the Little Rock School District. Therefore, this waiver is not necessary.
- Ark. Code Ann § 6-13-622 Budget Publication
 - Ark. Const. Art. 14 § 3 requires each district to make its budget public. The Panel can waive the requirement of Ark. Code Ann. § 6-13-622 to publish the budget in the newspaper, but the Applicant would still be required to make its budget public.
- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-902(a) Grading Scale
 - The past practice has been to grant this waiver only as to non-core (i.e. elective courses), when the request is made in a new charter school application. The waiver has been granted as to core courses only after a charter school has established itself and demonstrated a substantial need for the waiver. In addition, waiver may be granted only to the extent that the proposed grading scale is more rigorous than the scale provided by statute.
 - The Applicant indicated it will implement a more rigorous grading scale, but the grading scale was not provided.

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-16-102 School Day Hours
 - The Applicant has indicated its program may necessitate a “school day” shorter or longer than six hours. However, the proposed daily schedule (Application, Attachment 5) shows 410 minutes of instructional time each day. This waiver is not necessary for an instructional day longer than six hours.
- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-17-2802 Teacher Excellence and Support System
 - If this waiver is granted, a waiver of the ADE Rules Governing the Teacher Excellence and Support System is necessary.
- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-211 Mandatory Attendance for Students in Grades Nine through Twelve
 - The Applicant has indicated its program may necessitate a “school day” shorter or longer than six hours. However, the proposed daily schedule (Application, Attachment 5) shows 410 minutes of instructional time each day. This waiver is not necessary for an instructional day longer than six hours.
 - If this waiver is granted, a waiver of ADE Rules Governing Mandatory Attendance Requirements for Students in Grades Nine Through Twelve is also necessary.
- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-21-304 Purchases
 - A waiver of this section is typically not requested.
- Standards for Accreditation Section 9.0 Curriculum
 - A waiver of this entire section is typically not requested.
- Standards for Accreditation 9.03.4 38 Units of Credit
 - Traditionally, this waiver has only been granted as charters phase in grades (i.e., the charter will offer all 38 units by the time it has its first 12th grade class) or when the charter will still meet the content requirements of all 38 courses through embedded courses.
- Standards for Accreditation 14.03 Clock Hours for Unit of Credit
 - The Panel lacks the authority to grant a waiver of graduation requirements. However, in the past the authorizer has granted a waiver of the 120 clock hour requirement upon satisfaction that the charter will adhere to full curriculum alignment with Arkansas Frameworks.
- ADE Rules Governing Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, and Documents Posted to District Websites
 - Based on requested statutory waivers, it appears a waiver of these rules is also necessary.

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Explain how the following sentence relates to the geographical area to be served by the charter, "Quest's use of a classical based curriculum will ensure students a solid foundation of content learning."

Response: The referenced sentence does not relate directly to a description of the geographic area to be served by Quest so much as it describes one characteristic of Quest's overall education program.

- Discuss the classical based curriculum that will be used at Quest as this was not mentioned in the educational program.

Response: The reference to a "classical based curriculum" describes one characteristic of Quest's overall educational program. Quest's curriculum is "classical" in that it provides students with the tools of learning necessary to be well-rounded human beings who know who they are and understand the world around them. These tools help students acquire the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to live virtuous and happy lives. The classical nature of Quest's curriculum accomplishes this by teaching students at the points of their physiological strengths and by respecting a proper hierarchy of knowledge. It places its historical, literary, and artistic focus on what are referred to as "The Classics" and offers purposeful study of mathematics and the sciences.

Does Not Meet the Standard

Legal Questions:

Generally:

Ark. Code Ann. §6-23-302(c)(4) requires the application to list the specific provisions of Title VI and the specific rules and regulations promulgated by the state board from which the open-enrollment charter seeks to be exempted. Phrases such as "but not limited to," "all other provisions of the Education Code required to give effect to this waiver," "all rules required to give effect to this waiver," and "all standards required to give effect to this waiver" should not be included. Each statute, rule, and standard should be specifically listed. Brief, but specific rationale other than "to meet the goals of the school," for each waiver should be included.

Without specific and inclusive waivers requested and explained, a thorough analysis of the applicant's waivers cannot be completed. However, some issues to consider are addressed below.

Requested Waivers:

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-10-106 School Year Dates

This waiver is not necessary to accommodate the applicant's planned adherence to the Little Rock School District's schedule. The applicant should explain why this waiver is necessary.

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-902(a) Grading Scale

Based on the application, it is not apparent why this waiver is necessary. Please explain.

Typically, this waiver has only been granted as to non-core courses when the request is made in a new charter school application. The waiver has been granted as to core courses only after a charter school has established itself and demonstrated a substantial need for the waiver. In addition, the waiver may be granted only to the extent that the proposed grading scale is more rigorous than the scale provided by statute.

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-211 Mandatory Attendance for Students in Grades 9-12

Based on the application, it is not apparent why this waiver is necessary. Please explain.

- Standards for Accreditation 9.03.4 38 units

Please explain the need for this waiver. Typically, a waiver of this Standard has only been granted for charters as they phase in grades.

- Standards for Accreditation 10.02 Class Size and Teaching Load

Based on the application, it is not apparent why this waiver is necessary. Please explain.

Typically, this waiver has only been granted if the applicant proposes specific alternative maximum teacher-student ratios.

- Standards for Accreditation 14.03 Unit of Credit and Clock Hours Per Unit

Based on the application, it is not apparent why this waiver is necessary. Please explain.

Response: In response to the foregoing general guidance and specific concerns, Quest revises its request for waivers as follows:

B. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Provide the mission statement of the proposed school.

Applicant Response:

The mission of Quest is to provide hope for students through an innovative, encouraging, character-based, individualized learning environment, where they are academically successful and develop into lifelong learners.

Briefly describe the key programmatic features that the school will implement in order to accomplish the mission.

Applicant Response:

Quest is a distinct blend of effective teacher-directed instruction and emergent technology. The curricular scope and sequence follows standard content-based learning, the assessments and measurements are congruent with high expectation environments, yet the delivery of content is a blend that transitions adolescents from dependence to independent learning in a systemic and organized fashion. The methodology places the student in a contained classroom with focused monitoring by an educator while also providing opportunity for individualized instruction through aligned curriculum and technology. This blend initiates a process that can teach students to become more responsible and make learning opportunity more accessible. Quest understands the need for the middle-school learner to move from childhood to the teenage years. Therefore, the delivery system uses a dual approach, keeping the learner anchored within a classroom setting that provides stability while simultaneously transitioning the learner into a prescribed individualized offering of some subjects centered on self-determination and decision-making. This system blends the best that the teacher can offer with the best that technology can offer and places the student at the core of the entire process.

In addition, Quest provides curriculum designed to teach wisdom. Knowledge is crucial but wisdom is a vital part of a middle school student's growth and maturity. Character education is taught at all levels. Students are taught leadership skills through our "7 Habits of Effective Teens" environment. The campus is dedicated to the idea that education, home, and family are closely connected. Though the atmosphere feels like a private school, there is no tuition to attend Quest.

Please see Section C.5. for a detailed explanation of Quest's educational program.

C. NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED CHARTER SCHOOL

The applicant for the proposed charter school, if approved by the authorizer, agrees to operate the educational program described below in accordance with the provisions described within this document, Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-101 et seq., the State Board of Education Rules Governing Charter Schools, and the attached assurances.

Provide a narrative description of the various components of the proposed charter school by responding to the following prompts:

1. Describe the results of the public hearing, which was held for the purpose of assessing support for the establishment of this public charter school. Provide copies of supporting evidence.

Attach documentation to demonstrate that each of the following requirements of Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-302 was met:

ResponsiveEd Board

The ResponsiveEd Board will serve as the ultimate governing authority of Quest and shall, except as specifically described herein, retain final decision-making authority for Quest in all areas of operation, including, but not limited to: (1) finance and purchasing, and (2) hiring and termination of the Quest Superintendent. The ResponsiveEd Board shall be composed of not less than five (5) members selected by the majority vote of the existing members of the ResponsiveEd Board. Each member shall hold office for a term of three (3) years unless he/she resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated, or is removed by the ResponsiveEd Board. Each member may be reelected an unlimited number of times. Please see "Attachment 1: Board Documentation" for documentation of the proper legal structure of the governing board and sponsoring entity.

Quest Board

The Quest Board shall have final decision-making authority for Quest in the areas of: (1) student discipline, (2) employee grievances, (3) parent grievances, and (4) community complaints/concerns. The Quest Board shall be composed of not less than three (3) members selected by the majority vote of the members of the ResponsiveEd Board. Each member shall hold office for a term of three (3) years unless he/she resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated, or is removed by the ResponsiveEd Board. Each member may be reelected an unlimited number of times.

Superintendent

The Superintendent shall have final decision-making authority for Quest in the area of hiring and termination of the Regional Director and Campus Director and will oversee the primary financial and administrative management responsibility for Quest, including, but not limited to: (1) personnel and payroll administration; (2) professional development/training; (3) curriculum and testing; (4) contract administration; (5) accounting, budgeting, cash management, and financial reporting; (6) information management systems; (7) insurance; (8) child nutrition services; (9) marketing and recruitment; and (10) public relations activities.

Regional Director

The Regional Director will have primary responsibility for the implementation of Quest's academic programs and systems, will oversee all professional development activities, will be responsible for the educational welfare of the students, and will lead in the development of the educational goals of the community. The Regional Director will promote a shared vision of what the school should be to all stakeholders. In addition, the Regional Director will oversee the development of the culture of the school and will ensure an appropriate balance of time and energy is devoted to goals in the areas of intellectual, physical, social, vocational, emotional, ethical, and developmental needs. The Regional Director will regularly monitor implementation of the academic programs and systems with frequent on-site visits and on-site meetings with staff.

Campus Director

The Campus Director will have primary responsibility for all aspects of the school's daily operations and programs, including the day-to-day management of staff and students. The teachers and staff of Quest will report to the Campus Director. Similarly, the Campus Director will have the responsibility of hiring and termination campus staff, including teachers, campus secretary, and instructional aides.

Teachers/Paraprofessionals

Teachers/Paraprofessionals are the learning facilitators in the school who maintain direct contact with each student under their care on a day-by-day, moment-by-moment, basis. The Teachers/Paraprofessionals monitor progress, assist students in overcoming learning difficulties, provide motivation, and, in general, create an environment of loving care.

SCHOOL DECISION-MAKING

Quest believes that parents, staff, students, and community will be an integral part of the school governance. The Superintendent, Regional Director, and Campus Director, with support from the Quest Board, will develop a Community Advisory Council ("CAC") to provide input to the Campus Director regarding the following issues: (1) general operation, (2) policy review, (3) long-range strategic plans, and (4) performance standards.

While the CAC will have no official authority in the operation or administration of Quest, it will serve as invaluable problem-solving body, assisting the Campus Director in maintaining a high-quality and appropriate learning program for the children. The CAC will seek to have two student volunteers, two volunteer parents/guardians of Quest students, two staff members, and two community leaders. The CAC will meet monthly and will provide input to the Campus Director.

In addition to the CAC, every effort will be made to make parents/guardians partners in their children's education. Such efforts will include: (1) encouraging parents/guardians to serve as school volunteers; (2) promoting and strengthening parental responsibility and involvement; (3) encouraging parents/guardians to serve on school-based committees such as the CAC; and (4) recognizing the importance of the community's historic, ethnic, linguistic, and/or cultural resources in generating interest in family involvement.

3. Give the mission statement for the proposed charter school.

Applicant Response:

The mission of Quest is to provide hope for students through an innovative, encouraging, character-based, individualized learning environment, where they are academically successful and develop into lifelong learners.

4. Describe the educational need for the school. Include the innovations that will distinguish the charter from other schools.

Applicant Response:

All students deserve a quality learning environment that allows them to engage in authentic learning tasks, beyond simply going through the act of attending school, taking notes, and taking tests. Studies have shown that this is especially true with young adolescents. Student motivation to learn is the prime factor that often determines success and progress. Regardless of a student's strengths or weaknesses, the need for an environment that creates authentic learning experiences is great. Students who enroll in Quest will have the opportunity to thrive in an educational environment designed to address their individual educational needs.

NEED

There is a profound lack of quality middle school options in the Little Rock School District ("LRSD"), especially for students in West Little Rock, based upon assessment scores focusing on percentage of students at each of the middle schools who scored proficient or advanced on the benchmark exams in Literacy and Mathematics. Please see Table 1 on "Attachment 9: Need."

There is a significant trend in the reduction of students scoring advanced/proficient in literacy which decreased at five of the middle schools last year. The decrease ranged from a reduction of 2% to 9% over one year's time. In Mathematics, the outcomes are even more dramatic with a significant decrease in students scoring advanced/proficient at EVERY middle school in a range from a low of 2% decrease to a high of 8% decrease.

These decreasing academic achievement outcomes along with other factors are evidence of the need for a quality middle school option for students in West Little Rock. Some of the other factors include: (1) There is no middle school located in West Little Rock, which imposes travel requirements upon the students of the area who are to be served; (2) During the 2011-12 school year, LRSD was classified by the Arkansas Department of Education as a "Needs Improvement" district and is also classified as "Needs Improvement" in Math (The 2012-13 school year school improvement reports were not available for inclusion at this time); (3) There are significant areas of need identified in the Benchmark data and the comparisons of the data for the state and surrounding districts which is addressed under the Academic Achievement section below; (4) Even within LRSD where the students are assigned, there are no other options. Nearby, relatively higher-performing middle schools, such as Joe T. Robinson Middle School in the Pulaski County Special School District, are not an option for many students residing in West Little Rock due to the exemption restrictions of the Majority-to-Minority inter district transfer program between the Little Rock School District and the Pulaski County Special School District; and (5) The State Board of Education (SBE) has recognized the crucial need that students in LRSD's middle schools have an option (See SBE Minutes, April 9, 2012).

Quest will provide high quality educational opportunities to middle school students in school districts including Little Rock, Pulaski County, and North Little Rock.

MIDDLE SCHOOLS

Four public middle schools serve students in the West Little Rock geographic area: Forest Heights Middle School (Little Rock School District), Henderson Middle School (Little Rock School District), Joe T. Robinson Middle School (Pulaski County Special School District), and LISA Academy-West Public Charter School. While Forest Heights Middle School is not located in West Little Rock, students in West Little Rock are zoned to attend Forest Heights Middle School. The four other middle schools in the Little Rock School District (Cloverdale Middle School, Dunbar Magnet Middle School, Mabelvale Middle School, Mann Arts and Science Magnet Middle School, and Pulaski Heights Middle School) are also included in this report. As Dunbar Magnet Middle School is a magnet that pulls in students from across the district, Dunbar Magnet Middle School is also an option for West Little Rock students.

In examining the options for enrollment by students in the West Little Rock area, here is the information about the process which details why each school is not a viable option for many families: (1) Joe T. Robinson Middle School is not an option for Non-Black students who reside in the Little Rock School District due to the restrictions of the Majority-to-Majority inter district transfer program between the Little Rock School District and the Pulaski County Special School District; (2) LISA Academy-West Charter School is not an option for students who reside in the Little Rock School District due to reaching its enrollment cap resulting in its inability to accept any other students; (3) Dunbar Magnet Middle School's attendance zone does not include the western portion of Little Rock. Students from the western portion of Little Rock may apply to the Little Rock School District to attend Dunbar through an open enrollment registration process as out of zone students; and (4) Mann Arts and Science Magnet Middle School is a "Stipulation Magnet" school. The Magnet Stipulation requires that stipulation magnet schools have a student population which is fifty percent (50%) Black and fifty percent (50%) Non-Black.

DEMOGRAPHICS

Table 2 on "Attachment 9: Need" highlights the demographics of the middle schools, districts, and the state. Despite the proximity of the schools, the student bodies of the four main schools that serve West Little Rock are dissimilar. Henderson Middle School (LRSD) and Forest Heights Middle School (LRSD) serve higher percentages of free-and-reduced lunch students and minority students (above district and state averages). Joe T. Robinson Middle School (PCSSD) serves a slightly fewer percentage of FRL students and minority students than the PCSSD average.

Table 3 below highlights the demographics of Little Rock, Pulaski County, and the state. The three districts in Pulaski County serve a higher percentage of minority students than the minority percentage of the county's population. Specific data for West Little Rock is not accessible, as this area is incorporated in the Little Rock city limits and the Pulaski County limits.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Tables 4 and 5 on "Attachment 9: Need" highlight the achievement over time of the middle schools, the districts, and the state. Henderson Middle School (LRSD) and Forest Heights Middle School (LRSD) are two of the lower performing middle schools in the Little Rock School District, as both schools performed less well in math and literacy over time than the surrounding West Little Rock schools, districts, and state. Joe T. Robinson

Middle School (PCSSD) performed slightly above district average for middle schools in PCSSD and slightly below the state average.

SIMILAR SCHOOLS

Tables 6-9 on "Attachment 9: Need" compare the three main West Little Rock schools (Forest Heights Middle School, Henderson Middle School, and Pulaski County's Joe T. Robinson Middle School) to similar schools. Similar schools were chosen based on the percentage of free-and-reduced lunch students (FRL) and percentage of minority students.

Tables 6 and 7 on "Attachment 9: Need" show Forest Heights Middle School and Henderson Middle School performance compared to similar schools. In math, both schools performed less well than similar schools over time. In literacy, Forest Heights Middle School performance grew at a similar pace to other similar schools, while Henderson Middle School performed less well and grew slower than similar schools.

Tables 8 and 9 on "Attachment 9: Need" show Joe T. Robinson Middle School performance compared to similar schools. In math, Robinson Middle School performed slightly higher than other Pulaski County middle schools, but performed less well in math than similar schools in other districts. In literacy, Joe T. Robinson Middle School performed less well than similar schools.

INNOVATIONS

Quest is being designed around a highly successful educational model and will provide an individualized approach to learning for its students. This approach will assist in quickly addressing any academic deficits that students enrolling might have. The individualization also allows students who are academically successful, to have their educational needs addressed through the Quest "3D Learning System" which includes: (1) Diagnostics utilized to identify accurately, the placement and plan for each student's learning path; (2) Delivery of learning, and (3) Data which tracks progress on each student's educational journey. Past and present success proves that the ResponsiveEd models are effective for all students, regardless of nationality or socioeconomic status.

All learning at Quest will be student-centric, focused primarily on the need of each particular student. The role of the school is to increase capacity based on a focus on the student's unique learning style. Learners aware of their strengths know how to plan their learning in order to increase their potential. This capacity for learning provides a foundation for lifelong success. This innovative, individualized approach is currently one of the basic requirements for the U. S. Department of Education's District Race to the Top competition. Quest schools have a successful approach that results in a learning environment where students find hope and success.

5. Describe the educational program to be offered by the charter school.

Applicant Response:

OVERVIEW

The Quest educational model is directly aligned to the school's mission to provide hope for students through an innovative, encouraging, character-based, individualized learning environment, where they are academically successful and develop into lifelong learners.

Quest is a distinct blend of effective teacher-directed instruction and emergent technology. The curricular scope and sequence follows standard content-based learning, the assessments and measurements are congruent with high expectation environments, yet the delivery of content is a blend that transitions adolescents from dependence to independent learning in a systemic and organized fashion. The methodology places the student in a contained classroom with focused monitoring by an educator while also providing opportunity for individualized instruction through aligned curriculum and technology. This blend initiates a process that can teach students to become more responsible and make learning opportunity more accessible. Quest understands the need for the middle-school learner to move from childhood to the teenage years. Therefore, the delivery system uses a dual approach, keeping the learner anchored within a classroom setting that provides stability while simultaneously transitioning the learner into a prescribed individualized offering of some subjects centered on self-determination and decision-making. This system blends the best that the teacher can offer with the best that technology can offer and places the student at the core of the entire process.

INNOVATIVE AND INDIVIDUALIZED

Quest will be “student-centric,” making the learning process of the student the primary centerpiece of the system. The focus of Quest, from the first day students walk through the door, is differentiation (i.e., individualization). Each student comes to Quest unique. Learning styles, strengths and weaknesses, and personal skill sets are all part of each student. Recognizing these differences, and creating differentiated approaches for each, is the heart of the Quest learning system.

The unique quality of Quest is its distinct focus on the learning process rather than the teaching process. Quest accomplishes this through the Quest “3D Learning System”: (1) Diagnostics (i.e., an effective battery of tests utilized to accurately place and plan a student's academic journey); (2) Delivery (i.e., the process of transferring or replicating information); and (3) Data (i.e., the process of gathering, assessing and charting the journey according to results).

Diagnostics

If education focuses on the “teaching” process, there is no need to measure or evaluate learning. In order to provide effective academic progress, educators must focus on the “learning” process. Many educators ask themselves at the end of the day, “Did I teach everything I should have taught?” This is the wrong question. The appropriate question is, “Did my students learn everything they should have learned?” The first step in a system designed on the learning experience is diagnostics. No student should enter a potential learning environment without a research-based diagnostic process. Without this process, two crucial elements of an effective experience are lost: (1) proper placement of the student in the environment, and (2) a learning plan based on the student's specific needs, strengths, and learning styles.

In most situations, diagnostics only appear in the form of reviewing a student's records (e.g. report cards, transcripts, etc.). While showing evidence of the academic “location” (e.g., tenth grade, number of credits, etc.), a cursory review of records is not an effective diagnostic. Students are placed without assessing true content knowledge. Learning styles, academic needs, and cognitive strengths are never measured. This lack of attention to the individual child can be indicative of a standardized system of education that ignores differentiation. An effective battery of diagnostic tests must be utilized before the student's placement and plan are determined. Consequently, Quest addresses the following diagnostic testing concerns through the use of an effective battery of diagnostic tests: (1) Grade Equivalency, (2) Credit or Grade Achievement, (3) Literacy Usage and Content, (4) Math Competency, and (5) Learning Style Inventories.

In so doing, the Quest diagnostics process takes a student from enrollment through the implementation of a successful learning plan.

Delivery

The process of transferring or replicating information is known as “delivery.” There are many means by which a student may receive information. Many times, educators depend on one style of delivery. This practice can seriously hinder the learning process because of the diverse differentiated learning styles of the students in a classroom. Therefore, it is important to have a blend of delivery choices when addressing the individual learning for each student.

Just as there are styles of learning, there are also styles (types) of instructing or teaching students. Quest teachers will be trained to be aware of the following differentiated styles of instruction, know how to use each one, and use each of the types when developing a student's learning plan, teaching a classroom of students, or supervising the learning process: (1) Direct Instruction: a style of instruction that relies primarily on the ability of the educator to verbalize content and transfer information; (2) Independent Instruction: a style of instruction allowing students to learn content independently, with assistance provided by the educator when necessary; and (3) Connected Instruction: a style of instruction centered on a project-based environment.

While the distribution will vary slightly according to the needs of the individual student, Quest will implement the following differentiated styles of instruction: (1) Direct Instruction: 50%, (2) Independent: 25%, and (3) Connected Instruction: 25%.

Based on this delivery method, the student's work environment will demonstrate the following characteristics: (1) students will be exposed to direct instruction for reading and mathematics; (2) learning labs will be utilized for independent instruction in social studies and science; (3) students will be involved in state testing preparation; (4) student will be involved in project-based “learning-style specific” learning experiences in social studies and science based on the content covered in the learning lab; and (5) students' learning styles are diagnosed and integrated by educators.

Data

Quest will implement data-driven decision making, three primary features of which are: (1) data will always focus on results rather than intentions; (2) data will always focus on relevance of information, and (3) data will always focus on redirection as necessary.

The heart of effective instruction is the monitoring of instruction. If success is to be a systemic foundation for an educational institution, the process of gathering and using data must be a required component of the school. Data that drives decisions has some distinctive characteristics that set it apart from diagnostics.

Gathering Data

The process of gathering data is a purposeful and intentional system of bringing together results for review. This is done for individual students as well as school.

Benchmarks, based on learned and projected content, will be used to mark student's current knowledge and set goals for learning achievement. Interim assessments, sometimes given before content is delivered, will set a baseline of knowledge that students already possess and inform educators of content needs that students have in subjects and disciplines. Knowing what should be taught and learned is important. Summative assessments give a summary profile of learned content. If students have not learned what they should have learned, it is vital that educator know this. The focus of a learning organization is learning. Interim and summative assessments provide an intentional purpose for data.

Gathered data that drives decisions must be relevant. In order to focus on learning, educators must know the body of content necessary for success. State-mandated testing is a reality. When gathering data for academic decisions, students should be assessed on content that is relative to the requirements of testing realities.

Benchmarking, as well as any assessments, will be timely and planned. Many times, caught up in the consistent demands of working with children, educators delay benchmarking until it becomes urgent and counterproductive. Gathering data will be a system that is built into the school calendar.

Assessment of Data

Gathering data is only the first step in decision making. Once the data has been gathered, Quest will use the data to formulate learning plans and school activities. A careful review (assessment) of a student's performance can inform educators as to the steps needed for improvement and success.

Often data is nothing more than an assessment of learning. This slicing of data is similar to a medical autopsy to make determinations as to what happened. This type of assessment is a picture that is taken after it's too late to do something to prevent or affect outcomes.

The most effective assessment is used to make decisions for learning. This slicing of data is similar to a biopsy. The data is reviewed in order to see if there are problems and make decisions that can address those problems. The process of data gathering and assessment should always be done to affect learning.

Creating Change

All data should create change. If educators seriously focus on improvement and success, data must be gathered, used, and valued. School decisions will always be directly linked back to data and plans should always be aligned for improvement. It is true that data can be manipulated and modified to support structures already in place. Measuring irrelevant components, slicing the data in methods that give insignificant results, and articulating skewed data can lead to false and misleading information. True assessment of data that measures current realities provides honest and clear information that creates change that leads to improvement. The single most important characteristic of learning is improvement. Education demands improvement.

Interventions

If we are truly involved with individual progress, monitoring, and success, there must be interventions embedded in the daily life of the school. School academic operations will include a set strategy of increasingly intensive steps to take when a student is not learning or progressing at an effective pace. This involves scheduled team meetings, assessments, and strategies.

ENCOURAGING

Many students have experienced cognitive segregation, which becomes the leading factor in students who develop learned helplessness. This damaging perception of life is a process that systemically teaches people to see themselves as helpless to improve their condition. Systems focusing on teaching create cognitive segregation. Students who have been disenfranchised by this segregation find themselves outside of the access reserved for those students who "get it." For that reason, Quest provides students with an encouraging learning environment. This environment is created by teachers who are learners who create a climate for effective instruction.

Learners

At Quest, teaching is brought up to a new level. Rather than conform to a minimum conventional standard of merely transferring content knowledge, Quest teachers are continually learning. Quest utilizes the dimensions of "Professional Learning Communities" to develop the whole-school concept of school culture. These Professional Learning Community dimensions include: (1) supportive and shared leadership, (2) shared values and vision, (3) collective learning and application of learning, (4) supportive conditions, and (5) shared personal practice.

Teachers collaborate consistently to share ideas, monitor each student, and create strategies designed to ensure students learn. Using these dimensions, Quest is focused on the learning process rather than the teaching process.

Climate

At Quest, the foundation of character development is more than an isolated curricular subject. Quest utilizes the “Quality Attention Models” to manage student interactions and bring students to a higher level of behavior. These essential skills for educators include: (1) practicing quality choices; (2) knowing each student; (3) shepherding students; (4) blending professional and personal interactions; (5) providing honest, valuable, and significant feedback; (6) practicing the art of praising students; (7) training and teaching positive habits and characteristics; and (8) doing the “extra” to encourage students.

VIABILITY

Since its inception, the Quest model has been consistently rated “Exemplary” by the Texas Education Agency, the highest rating possible under the Texas accountability system. This proven track record of superior academic excellence is a strong indicator of future viability in West Little Rock.

SCHOOL DAY AND YEAR

In an effort to be responsive to the community and sensitive to the needs of our parents, Quest will follow the school calendar of the Little Rock School District. Parents often have other school age children attending other schools; however, parents will support a school calendar that considers all of their children concerning beginning and ending of school days, reporting periods, and vacation days. Therefore, the school honors the open-enrollment policy and will follow district calendars, as well as the state requirement of a minimum of 178 student-teacher interactional days. Reporting periods are defined with beginning and ending dates and recognize traditional holidays such as Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring Break, and Memorial Day. Schools days customarily begin at 7:45 am to 4:30 pm for staff members with a duty free lunch period of 30 minutes. Student schedules for the day will include, at a minimum, the required six hours of instructional time. Please see “Attachment 5: 2014-2015 Calendar and Daily Schedule” for a description of the length of the Quest school day and school year.

6. List the specific measurable goals in reading, reading comprehension, mathematics, and mathematic reasoning based on the state mandated assessments, and any other assessment tools if used, for improving student academic achievement for each year of the public charter school's initial five-year period. For each goal, include the following:
- The tool to be used to measure the academic performance;
 - The level of performance that will demonstrate success; and
 - The timeframe for the achievement of the goal.

Applicant Response:

READING AND READING COMPREHENSION

Quest will achieve measurable growth for students in reading and reading comprehension as demonstrated by student performance on benchmarks, end-of-course exams, and mandated state assessments. In Reading, specific subpopulation performance will be analyzed documenting a narrowing of the performance gaps across 80% of state assessments over a three year time period.

MATHEMATICS AND MATHEMATIC REASONING

Quest will achieve measurable growth for students in Mathematics and mathematic reasoning as demonstrated by student performance on benchmarks, end-of-course exams, and mandated state assessments. In Mathematics, specific subpopulation performance will be analyzed documenting a narrowing of the performance gaps across 80% of state assessments over a three year time period.

7. Describe the process that will be used to develop and align the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education.

Applicant Response:

Having already been approved by the Arkansas State Board of Education to operate three open-enrollment charter schools--including Quest Middle School of Pine Bluff--ResponsiveEd's team of 30+ writers, editors, proofreaders, and graphic artists have already aligned the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks in content areas excluding English Language Arts and Mathematics and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts and Mathematics as adopted by the State Board of Education.

8. Describe the manner in which the school will make provisions for the following student services, even in those areas for which a waiver is requested:

A) Guidance program;

Applicant Response:

Quest will seek a waiver for the requirement of a guidance program and on-campus certified counselor. The Campus Director and teachers will be equipped to give students advice regarding higher education options, life after high school, etc. Similarly, Quest staff will be informed that they will be responsible to handle issues generally given to a campus counselor. Should the need for a campus counselor be deemed necessary, Quest will seek an outside consultant on a contractual basis to handle counseling duties.

B) Health services;

Applicant Response:

Quest will offer a health services program that will serve all students and provide immediate attention involving minor sicknesses or injuries, and aid in creation of campus health and safety regulations.

C) Media center;

Applicant Response:

Quest will seek a waiver for the requirement of a media center. Quest will provide on-site and online media to support and enhance its educational program.

D) Special education;

Applicant Response:

IDENTIFICATION OF STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL EDUCATION NEEDS

In accordance with 34 CFR 300.301-300.311, the referral of students for a full and individual initial evaluation for possible special education services is a component of the Quest overall general education Response to Intervention system. Prior to referral, students experiencing difficulty in the general classroom are considered for all support services available to all students, such as tutorial, remedial, compensatory, and other services. If the student continues to experience difficulty in the general classroom after the provision of interventions, school personnel documents the provision of interventions and refer the student for a full and individual initial evaluation.

Quest will ensure that a full and individual evaluation is conducted for each student being considered for special education and related services. The evaluation is completed before the initial provision of special education and related services and addresses if the student is a "student with a disability" in accordance with federal and state requirements and the educational needs of the student.

Based on the requirements of 34 CFR 300.323, Quest shall have an IEP in effect for each identified student with a disability. Quest will ensure that the IEP is in effect before special education and related services are provided to an eligible child and that the IEP is implemented as soon as possible following the IEP committee meeting.

For a student who is new to Quest, a Transfer IEP committee will meet prior to or upon the student's enrollment. In this case, the parents must verify that the student was receiving special education services in the previous school district or the previous school district must verify in writing or by telephone that the student was receiving special education services. A second IEP committee meeting must be held within 30 school days from the date of the first IEP committee meeting to finalize or develop an IEP based on current information.

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAMS, PRACTICES, AND STRATEGIES

Inclusion, differentiated instruction and interactive technology strategies will be implemented for students identified with disabilities. Differentiated instruction applies an approach to teaching and learning that gives students multiple options for taking in information and making sense of ideas. It is a teaching theory based on the premise that instructional approaches should vary and be adapted in relation to individual and diverse students in classrooms (Tomlinson, 2001). The model of differentiated instruction requires teachers to be flexible in their approach to teaching and adjust the curriculum and presentation of information to learners rather than expecting students to modify themselves for the curriculum. This can be done for the special needs learner with and without technology. Differentiated instruction lends itself to the inclusion of all students into the general education classroom, allowing teachers to meet students where they are in terms of academia. Technology is also important as it allows us to engage in real-life learning opportunities and offers the opportunity to teach in multiple learning modalities.

Quest will assure that students with disabilities are educated with non-disabled students to the maximum extent appropriate to meet the student's individual education program and overall educational needs (34CFR §300.114 - 300.116). In providing programs, services, and activities for students with disabilities, Quest shall first consider the least restrictive environment of the general education program. Special classes, separate schooling, or other removal of students with disabilities from the general education environment, occurs only when the nature and severity of the disability is such that education in general classes, with the use of supplementary aids and services, cannot be achieved satisfactorily.

Quest will provide a FAPE for students with disabilities in order to meet the need for special education and related services (34 CFR 300.115). This includes a variety of placements and makes provision for supplementary services to be provided in conjunction with general education classroom placement.

Students with disabilities will have available to them the variety of educational programs and services available to students without disabilities, accessible facilities, and the same instructional regular school day as is provided all other students. In addition, Quest will ensure that each child with a disability participates with non-disabled students in non-academic and extra-curricular services and activities, including meals, recess periods, and the services and activities set forth in 34 CFR 300.320.

E) Transportation;

Applicant Response:

Quest has budgeted a significant amount of funds each year to implement a transportation program designed to ensure that all eligible central Little Rock students who wish to attend Quest may do so.

F) Alternative education, including Alternative Learning Environments;

Applicant Response:

While Quest will seek a waiver for Alternative Learning Environments, Quest will have high expectations for behavior and academics. Quest embodies key practices described in the Exemplary Practices in Alternative Education: Indicators of Quality Programming. A couple of areas stand out as promoting success in serving all students. These areas are Program Evaluation (see Standard 7) and Professional Development to improve teaching and learning at an atypical school. Quest offers innovative, non-typical, approaches to the instruction, leading students to become lifetime learners.

G) English Language Learner (ELL) instruction

Applicant Response:

ELL STUDENT IDENTIFICATION PROCESS

Quest will utilize the following process to identify ELL students: (1) All students enrolling in Quest must submit a Home Language Survey as part of the registration packet; (2) If a student declares a language other than English on the survey, they become known as OTE (other than English) or potential ELL students; (3) The identification process includes an oral proficiency assessment (our district selects the Idea Proficiency Test) and a written proficiency assessment (our district selects the norm-referenced Stanford 10 to assess Total Reading and Total Language); (4) The students must master all three of these assessments to be classified as Non LEP;

(5) If, however, the students score anything below F (fluent) such as an A, B, C, D, E on the IPT, the students will automatically be classified as ELL or LEP; (6) The identification is not complete, however, until the Stanford 10 has been administered and the scores for Total Reading and Total Language are available; (7) Once the oral and written assessments are complete, the Language Proficiency Assessment Committee (LPAC) convenes to officially classify all of the students who have been assessed; (8) The district database template entitled "LEP Roster Report" is used to document all ELL activity beginning with enrollment date, assessment date, assessment score(s), parent notification date, LPAC date, and final classification; and (9) The LEP Roster Report is maintained on each PHS campus throughout the school year and is submitted to the District ESL Coordinator on a monthly-basis.

Following the identification process, the campus ESL teacher is responsible for providing ESL program services to all ELL/LEP-identified students using individualized ESL learning strategies on a regular basis.

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAMS, PRACTICES, AND STRATEGIES

Quest will utilize the following strategies to deliver effective ELL services: (1) Quest student computers will be imaged with English Discoveries (an ESL computerized program for ELL students); and (2) Cognitive Academic Language Learning Approach (CALLA) Learning Strategies are employed by Lead Teachers as an approach to teaching the cognitive academic language to our ELL students.

These programs/strategies are intended to be enhancements/enrichments for our ELL students to the core academic state requirements which are provided on a daily basis by our ESL-certified staff.

PROGRESS MONITORING

All tracking of currently enrolled ELL students is done via the LPAC, a group comprised of, at minimum, a parent of an ELL student at the campus and an ESL staff member. In addition, the committee may include campus administration. The committee does an End of Year Annual Review to determine whether or not the ELL students will be exited from or continue in the ESL program. The exit criteria is determined by state requirements and include, but are not limited to, the students' mastery of state required assessments and a subjective evaluation by the Lead Teacher certifying that the ELL student will be successful in an all English curriculum.

QUALIFIED ELL STAFFING

In addition to the HQ NCLB requirements, all campus ESL teachers are required to be ESL-certified. In addition, ESL teachers are required to complete the Sheltered Instruction model training via SIOP to be eligible to work with our ELL students.

H) Gifted and Talented Program.

Applicant Response:

A waiver will be sought for the inclusion of a gifted and talented program at Quest. Upon program assessment, if the need for such a program is determined, then Quest will attempt to align with a local distinguished college or university in order to offer students the opportunity to take dual-enrollment classes. Students will have an opportunity for dual credit enrollment in their senior year. Quest will offer pre-advanced placement and eventually advanced placement classes in subsequent years.

9. Describe the geographical area to be served by the charter. List all school districts within the geographical area likely to be affected by the open-enrollment public charter school.

Applicant Response:

Quest will be located within the city limits of Little Rock, Arkansas, in Pulaski County, and will be located within the boundaries of the Little Rock School District. Quest's use of a classical based curriculum will ensure students a solid foundation of content learning. It is expected that up to 220 students in grades six through eight in year one and up to 460 students in grades six through twelve within five (5) years, will come from Little Rock School District, North Little Rock School District, Pulaski County Special School District, Benton School District, Bryant School District, England School District, and Lonoke School District. According to the 2012-2013 enrollment information housed on the Department of Education Data Center's website, the Little Rock School District contained 23,594 students; the North Little Rock School District contained 8,610 students; and the Pulaski County Special School District contained 17,245 students. According to the 2012-2013 enrollment information housed on the Department of Education Data Center's website, the Benton School District contained 4,768 students; the Bryant School District contained 8,620 students; the England School District contained 721 students; and the Lonoke School District contained 1,838 students. In year one, approximately 140 students are anticipated to come from the Little Rock School District, approximately 50 from the North Little Rock School District, approximately 20 from the Pulaski County Special School District, and approximately 10 students from the other listed school districts combined.

10. Describe the plan for the school officials to provide an annual report to parents, the community, and the authorizer that demonstrates the progress made by the charter school during any previous academic year in meeting its academic performance objectives. (See ADE Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts.)

Applicant Response:

Quest will draft and disseminate an Annual Progress Report in compliance with Rule 7.02 of the Arkansas Department of Education Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts.

With feedback received by parents and the community, Quest will annually develop a comprehensive progress report which includes updated data regarding student performance, program objectives, and accreditation standards. A School Improvement Plan will also be created annually in order to project further campus needs, as well as a clear plan to correct any known program deficiencies. All reports will be written based on ADE regulations and guidelines. Further, a yearly curriculum review will occur in order to determine its continued alignment with state standards.

Annual reports will be submitted for review to the ADE, as well as posted in the Arkansas Democrat Gazette (or any other newspaper with general circulation in the district) before November 15th. Data will also be made readily available to the general community via the Quest campus website. Printed copies of the reports will be available for review at Quest.

Quest will host an annual public gathering in order to provide further information regarding the academic program, as well as campus policies and goals, for parents, students, and any further stakeholders. This meeting will also serve as a way for interested parties, to share with the staff of Quest, their questions and suggestions regarding the program, campus, and annual report data. Such a meeting will be held in compliance with any and all ADE regulations for disseminating annual report information.

11. Describe the enrollment criteria and student admission, recruitment and selection processes for the proposed public charter school.

Applicant Response:

STUDENT RECRUITMENT PLANS

When Quest is introduced into a new community, ResponsiveEd launches a professional, systematic, research-based, and dynamic public awareness campaign to provide equal opportunity for all parents and students to learn about and apply to the school. The campaign utilizes a blend of marketing, advertising, public relations, and community engagement to generate awareness of, and interest in, the school. The responsibilities for this process are split between ResponsiveEd's central administrative marketing staff and regional and campus leadership on the ground in the community.

The public awareness campaign involves the use of a variety of high quality, well-designed, publicity materials. These resources include, but are not limited to: brochures, website, newspaper advertisements, press releases, radio advertisements, flyers, postcards, and direct mail.

In the months leading up to the first year of operation, ResponsiveEd conducts the public awareness campaign, garnering public interest and support of the school utilizing: (1) a combination of the aforementioned publicity materials, and (2) hosting multiple public "Open House" meetings.

The intended and historically realized goals of such campaigns have been two-fold: (1) support for the school by community leaders, and (2) student enrollment.

ADMISSIONS AND ENROLLMENT PROCESS

Overview: Admission and enrollment of students shall be open to any person who is eligible for admission based on lawful criteria identified in the school's charter; e.g., qualifying residency and disciplinary history. The total number of students enrolled in the school shall not exceed the number of students approved in the school's charter or subsequent amendments. Applications for admission shall be due by a reasonable deadline to be set each year by the school --i.e., the close of the "open-enrollment period."

Lottery: If the number of eligible applicants does not exceed the number of vacancies, then all eligible applicants who have timely applied during the open-enrollment period will be offered admission. If there are more eligible applicants than available spaces in a class/grade/school, then a lottery will be conducted at a time set by the school each year. A name (or number assigned to a name) will be drawn for each vacancy that exists, and each applicant whose name (or number) is drawn will be offered admission. The remaining names will then be drawn and placed on a waiting list in the order in which they were drawn.

If a vacancy arises, the individual on the waiting list with the lowest number assignment will be offered admission and then removed from the waiting list. If an application is received after the open-enrollment period has passed, the applicant's name will be added to the waiting list behind the names of the eligible applicants who timely applied.

Exceptions: Federal guidelines permit the school to exempt from the lottery process students who are already admitted under the charter, siblings of students already admitted under the charter, and children of the charter's founders, teachers, and staff.

Disciplinary History: The school shall exclude a student from admission who has been expelled from another public school district in accordance with Title 6 of the Arkansas Education Code.

Non-Discrimination: It is the policy of the school to prohibit discrimination in student admission on the basis of gender, national origin, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or athletic eligibility.

Instead, the ResponsiveEd Board will adopt personnel policies, including, but are not limited to, the following terms and conditions of employment: salary schedule, fringe benefits, and other compensation issues; annual school calendar, including work days and holidays; evaluation procedures; leave; grievance procedures; termination or suspension; reduction in force; and assignments.

Chapter 19 (Transportation): Quest seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it conflicts with the transportation services described herein.

6-21-117 (Leased Academic Facilities): Quest seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires that facilities leased by Quest to conform to the school facility standards defined in the Arkansas School Facility Manual. Considering initial enrollment size, it will be difficult to financially follow through with this requirement. The applicant ensures that any and all facilities that it leases for academic purposes shall meet the requirements of all state and local health and safety codes, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

6-21-304 (Manner of Making Purchases): Quest seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires bidding in each instance in which the estimated purchase price shall equal or exceed $10,000. For purchases between $1,000 and $50,000, Quest will use either a state approved vendor or obtain a minimum of three quotes. Quest will obtain bids in each instance in which the estimated purchase price shall equal or exceed $50,000.

21. Describe the potential impact of the proposed public charter school on the efforts of affected public school district(s) to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.

Applicant Response:

Quest proposes to locate its open-enrollment public charter school within the boundaries of the Little Rock School District, and as an open-enrollment public charter school unconfined by district boundaries, expects to obtain the majority of its students from within the boundaries of the Little Rock, North Little Rock, and Pulaski County Special School Districts. Quest may also receive some students from the neighboring Benton, Bryant, England, and Lonoke School Districts.

In carefully reviewing the potential impact that Quest would have upon the efforts of the Pulaski County school districts to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools, the applicant finds that two of the three Pulaski County school districts--the Little Rock School District ("LRSD") and the North Little Rock School District ("NLRSD")--have both been found by the federal District Court to be unitary in all respects of their school operations. The Pulaski County Special School District ("PCSSD") has been determined by the federal District Court to be unitary in all respects concerning interdistrict student assignment. In view of the unitary status of LRSD and NLRSD and the status of PCSSD as unitary in the areas of interdistrict student assignment, those school districts have no further obligations to comply with court orders in these areas. Therefore, the granting of an open-enrollment public school charter for Quest cannot be said to have a negative impact on the three (3) Pulaski County school districts' ability to comply with court orders or statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.

The Benton, Bryant, and Lonoke School Districts are not currently, nor have they ever been, under a federal District Court desegregation order. The England School District is currently under a federal District Court desegregation order, but after carefully examining the effect of the opening of Quest in Little Rock, the applicant is convinced that such action shall not hinder the district in meeting its court-ordered desegregation obligations. As an open-enrollment public charter school, Quest must be race-neutral and non-discriminatory in its student selection and admission processes, and its operation will not serve to hamper, delay, or in any manner negatively affect the desegregation efforts of any public school district or districts within the state.

In 2010, LRSD filed a motion to enforce the 1989 Settlement Agreement in the Pulaski County School Desegregation case. That motion contends that the operation of open-enrollment public charter schools within Pulaski County interferes with the "M-M Stipulation" and the "Magnet Stipulation." On January 17, 2013, United States District Judge D.P. Marshall, Jr. denied LRSD's motion in these words: "The cumulative effect of open-enrollment charter schools in Pulaski County on the stipulation magnet schools and M-to-M transfers has not, as a matter of law, substantially defeated the relevant purposes of the 1989 Settlement Agreement, the magnet stipulation, or the M-to-M stipulation." Little Rock School District, et al. v. North Little Rock School District et al., Lorene Joshua et al., Arkansas Virtual Academy, et al., Case No. 4:82-CV-866-DPM, U.S. District Court-Eastern Division of Arkansas Western Division, Document 4809, at pages 29-30.

There are no current interdistrict effects of the past desegregation found in 1985 in the Pulaski County School Desegregation case. The interdistrict remedies were set in 1985 by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, which reversed county-wide consolidation, 778 F.2d 404 (8th Cir. 1985) (en banc), and required a judicial remedy that included adjustment of the boundaries between PCSSD and LRSD under which all land within the then-city-limits of Little Rock was assigned to LRSD and the land in the Granite Mountain area was assigned to PCSSD. This was a direct remedy for the interdistrict effects affirmed by the Eighth Circuit, and this interdistrict remedy was promptly carried out before the parties' settlement agreement in 1989. The Eighth Circuit made this clear in subsequent opinions. See 805 F.2d 815 (8th Cir. 1986); 921 F.2d 1371 (8th Cir. 1990).

In conclusion, Quest would show that neither any existing federal District Court desegregation order affecting the Pulaski County school districts, nor the 1989 Settlement Agreement, contain any proscriptions or restrictions concerning the granting of a new charter for an open-enrollment public charter school in Pulaski County.

22. Identify the two or three key individuals responsible for this application. Discuss the experience and qualifications of each. Explain what the founders are doing or will do to ensure the success of the charter school when others are in leadership roles.

Applicant Response:

Charles Cook and Chris Baumann are two key individuals responsible for this application.

Charles Cook brings over 15 years of experience in private and public education. His experience includes educational leadership, management, finance, and marketing. He developed the nation's largest privately funded adult educational program in Los Angeles, California. This experience has served him well as he has been instrumental in crafting one of the largest and most respected charter school districts in Texas. As the Chief Executive Officer of ResponsiveEd, Charles gives oversight to over 60 charter schools throughout Texas and Arkansas. Charles has made it his goal to bring quality education to students from various sides of the socio-economic spectrum. ResponsiveEd campuses are diverse in nature, aiding students who are at-risk of dropping out of school to students who are looking for a greater challenge before beginning their college careers. Each school focuses on a personalized approach which fosters the students to become life-long learners. He gives leadership and vision to his staff of 1,200+ employees and serves with them in the day-to-day operation of ResponsiveEd. One of Charles' greatest strengths is the ability to bring leaders together for a common goal. He is using these strengths today to bring awareness that the charter school movement is a growing force in education in the United States. Among his many accomplishments, Charles spearheaded the monumental opening of The Foundation School for Autism in San Antonio, the first tuition-free charter school for students with autism in the state of Texas. Charles also serves as the Treasurer of the Board for the Texas Charter School Association (TCSA), the leading charter school advocacy organization in Texas. He earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Religion from Luther Rice University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Chris Baumann serves as General Counsel for ResponsiveEd. In his role as General Counsel, Chris is responsible for managing legal services for ResponsiveEd, providing legal representation in matters involving the corporation, and spearheading ResponsiveEd's national expansion efforts. Chris is a member of the National School Boards Association Council of School Attorneys. An experienced presenter, Chris has delivered over 200 workshops and keynote speeches to educators and students in 32 states throughout the U.S. as well as cities throughout Mexico, England, and South Africa. In addition, he has over 20 years of experience in public and private education, over 10 years of which have been spent working with charter schools.

The founders will work to ensure a seamless transition when it comes time to turn the reigns of leadership over to their successors.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, if you are involved in an excess benefit transaction, that transaction might be subject to the excise taxes of section 4958. Additionally, you are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other federal taxes, please contact your key district office.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(1) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the part of the organization that resulted in your loss of such status, or if he or she acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would no longer be classified as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

EAGLE EDUCATIONAL REFORM LEARNING

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of Code sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

Contribution deductions are allowable to donors only to the extent that their contributions are gifts, with no consideration received. Ticket purchases and similar payments in conjunction with fundraising events may not necessarily qualify as deductible contributions, depending on the circumstances. See Revenue Ruling 67-246, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1967-2, on page 104, which sets forth guidelines regarding the deductibility, as charitable contributions, of payments made by taxpayers for admission to or other participation in fundraising activities for charity.

In the heading of this letter we have indicated whether you must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax. If Yes is indicated, you are required to file Form 990 only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. However, if you receive a Form 990 package in the mail, please file the return even if you do not exceed the gross receipts test. If you are not required to file, simply attach the label provided, check the box in the heading to indicate that your annual gross receipts are normally $25,000 or less, and sign the return.

If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. A penalty of $20 a day is charged when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. However, the maximum penalty charged cannot exceed $10,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less. For organizations with gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000 in any year, the penalty is $100 per day per return, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. The maximum penalty for an organization with gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000 shall not exceed $50,000. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete, so be sure your return is complete before you file it.

You are required to make your annual return available for public inspection for three years after the return is due. You are also required to make available a copy of your exemption application, any supporting documents, and this exemption letter. Failure to make these documents available for public inspection may subject you to a penalty of $20 per day for each day there is a failure to comply (up to a maximum of $10,000 in the case of an annual return).

You are not required to file federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

EAGLE EDUCATIONAL REFORM LEARNING

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

This determination is based on evidence that your funds are dedicated to the purposes listed in section 501(c)(3) of the Code. To assure your continued exemption, you should keep records to show that funds are expended only for those purposes. If you distribute funds to other organizations, your records should show whether they are exempt under section 501(c)(3). In cases where the recipient organization is not exempt under section 501(c)(3), there should be evidence that the funds will remain dedicated to the required purposes and that they will be used for those purposes by the recipient.

If distributions are made to individuals, case histories regarding the recipients should be kept showing names, addresses, purposes of awards, manner of selection, relationship (if any) to members, officers, trustees or donors of funds to you, so that any and all distributions made to individuals can be substantiated upon request by the Internal Revenue Service. (Revenue Ruling 56-304, C.B. 1956-2, page 306.)

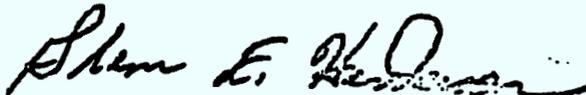

If we have indicated in the heading of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

District Director

Dr. Tom Kimbrell
Commissioner of Education
Arkansas Department of Education
4 Capitol Mall
Little Rock, AR 72201-1013

Dear Dr. Kimbrell:

I write today to express my support for Responsive Education Solutions' (ResponsiveEd) application to establish an open-enrollment public charter school in West Little Rock, referred to Quest Middle School of West Little Rock. ResponsiveEd currently operates over 60 charter schools in Texas and Arkansas and has a proven track record of providing highly-qualified teachers to enable their students to successfully pursue their academic studies.

I am committed to a strong educational system that prepares our children for success. Education is one of the keys to our nation's success, and each student deserves a rich, challenging curriculum to prepare them for a successful future. ResponsiveEd's Quest Middle School anticipates serving grades 6 – 8 with approximately 220 students in its first year of operation, and then intends to expand by adding one or more grades per year for enrollment in grades 6 – 12 of approximately 460 students. I believe the establishment of a new charter middle/high school in West Little Rock would provide parents with an additional option to provide the best possible education for their children and ensure a quality education for Arkansas's students.

Again, I urge you to support ResponsiveEd's application for Quest Middle School of West Little Rock to further improve on education in Arkansas. I thank you for your consideration of my request and my office contact for this issue is Peter Comstock at Peter.Comstock@mail.house.gov or (202) 226-8497.

Sincerely,

Tim Griffin
Member of Congress

Re: Support for Application of Quest Middle School of West Little Rock, an Open-Enrollment Public Charter School

To Whom It May Concern:

As a 1971 graduate of Parkview High School and a former teacher in Little Rock School District, I fully support Responsive Education Solutions' ("ResponsiveEd") application for a parent-initiated, open-enrollment public charter school in West Little Rock. The school is to be located within the boundaries of either the Little Rock or Pulaski County Special School Districts, and is to be referred to as Quest Middle School of West Little Rock.

I am impressed with ResponsiveEd as it operates over 60 open-enrollment public charter schools in Arkansas and Texas, with an enrollment of over 14,000 students in 2012-13. The mission of ResponsiveEd is to provide hope for students through an innovative, encouraging, character-based, individualized learning environment where they are academically successful and develop into lifelong learners.

Similar to the introduction of Parkview High School to the school system in the early 1970's, the proposed campus anticipates serving grades 6 – 8 with approximately 220 students in its first year of operation. Quest Middle School of West Little Rock intends to add one or more grades a year for approximate enrollment in grades 6 – 12 of 460 students.

Quest Middle Schools are designed to produce highly motivated and capable learners who intend to excel in high school and college. Its administrators and teachers care about students and have a passion to see them reach their full potential. To realize this, they combine modern educational technologies and advanced learning methods with a high level of personal attention and individual instruction. Quest has created an environment of learning that stimulates intellectual curiosity and rewards achievement.

This school appears to be in line with Dr. Suggs guiding principles for the Little Rock School District. Excellent education is the key to individual, family, regional and state economic development. Because every student, no matter his/her Zip Code, deserves excellent, accessible public education, I strongly encourage you to approve the application for Quest Middle School of West Little Rock.

Sincerely,

2014-2015 Calendar

In an effort to be responsive to the community and sensitive to the needs of our parents, Quest will follow the school calendar of the Little Rock School District. Parents often have other school age children attending other schools; however, parents will support a school calendar that considers all of their children concerning beginning and ending of school days, reporting periods, and vacation days. Therefore, the school honors the open-enrollment policy and will follow district calendars, as well as the state requirement of a minimum of 178 student-teacher interactional days. Reporting periods are defined with beginning and ending dates and recognize traditional holidays such as Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring Break, and Memorial Day.

2013 APPLICATION
OPEN-ENROLLMENT PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOL
STATEMENT OF ASSURANCES

The signature of the president of the board of directors of the proposed public charter school's sponsoring entity certifies that the following statements are and will be addressed through policies adopted by the sponsoring entity and policies to be adopted by the public charter school; and, if the application is approved, that the sponsoring entity, governing body, administration, and staff of the open-enrollment charter shall abide by them:

1. The information submitted in this application is true to the best of my knowledge and belief, and this application has been sent to the superintendent of all the districts from which we intend to draw students.
2. The open-enrollment public charter school shall be open to all students, on a space-available basis, and shall not discriminate in its admission policy on the basis of gender, national origin, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or academic or athletic eligibility, except as follows: the open-enrollment public charter school may adopt admissions policies that are consistent with federal law, regulations, or guidelines applicable to charter schools. The charter may provide for the exclusion of a student who has been expelled from another public school district.
3. In accordance with federal and state laws, the open-enrollment public charter school hiring and retention policies of administrators, teachers, and other employees shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, creed, sex, ethnicity, sexual orientation, mental or physical disability, age, ancestry, or special need.
4. The open-enrollment public charter school shall operate in accordance with federal laws and rules governing public schools; applicable provisions of the Arkansas Constitution; and state statutes or regulations governing public schools not waived by the approved charter.
5. The open-enrollment public charter school shall not use the moneys that it receives from the state for any sectarian program or activity, or as collateral for debt.

However, open-enrollment public charter schools may enter into lease-purchase agreements for school buildings built by private entities with facilities bonds exempt from federal taxes under 26 USCS 142(a) as allowed by Arkansas Code Annotated § 6-20-402. No indebtedness of an open-enrollment public charter school shall ever become a debt of the state of Arkansas.

6. The open-enrollment public charter school shall not impose taxes or charge students tuition or fees that would not be allowable charges in the public school districts.
7. The open-enrollment public charter school shall not be religious in its operations or programmatic offerings.

8. The open-enrollment public charter school shall ensure that any of its employees who qualify for membership in the Arkansas Teacher Retirement System or the State and Public School Employee Insurance Program shall be covered under those systems to the same extent a qualified employee of a traditional school district is covered.
9. The employees and volunteers of the open-enrollment public charter school are held immune from liability to the same extent as other public school district employees and volunteers under applicable state laws.
10. The open-enrollment public charter school shall be reviewed for its potential impact on the efforts of a public school district or public school districts to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.
11. The open-enrollment public charter school shall comply with all health and safety laws, rules and regulations of the federal, state, county, region, or community that may apply to the facilities and school property.
12. The applicant confirms the understanding that certain provisions of state law shall not be waived. The open-enrollment public charter school is subject to any prohibition, restriction, or requirement imposed by Title 6 of the Arkansas Code Annotated and any rule and regulation approved by the State Board of Education under this title relating to:
 - (a) Monitoring compliance with Arkansas Code Annotated § 6-23-101 et seq. as determined by the Commissioner of the Department of Education;

13. The facilities of the public charter school shall comply with all requirements for accessibility for individuals with disabilities in accordance with the ADA and IDEA and all other state and federal laws.

No indebtedness of any kind incurred or created by the open-enrollment public charter school shall constitute an indebtedness of the state or its political subdivisions, and no indebtedness of the open-enrollment public charter school shall involve or be secured by the faith, credit, or taxing power of the state or its political subdivisions. Upon dissolution of the open-enrollment public charter school or upon nonrenewal or revocation of the charter, all net assets of the open-enrollment public charter school, including any interest in real property, purchased with public funds shall be deemed the property of the state, unless otherwise specified in the charter of the open-enrollment public charter school. Request for the State Board of Education
to Review the Decision Made by the Charter Authorizing Panel

Ozark College & Career Academy
Springdale, Arkansas

November 20, 2013

Dear State Board of Education Members,

Please consider this request to appeal the decision of the ADE Charter Authorizing Panel to deny the Ozark College & Career Academy application on November 13, 2013. One panelist voted in favor of authorizing, four voted to deny.

We offer the following responses to the panelists specific reasons for denial:

1. Two panelists expressed concern about the financial stability of our program in the event of low enrollment or other contingencies. Our response:
 - The state rules do not require a certain amount or percentage for contingency purposes or a “backup plan” as the panel asked about. Had there been any such rules or regulations, we would have complied in our budget design.
 - We feel that the panel’s ruling on this point puts us in the difficult position of choosing between starting with a larger enrollment number in a future application year in order to pad our numbers, sacrificing our 21st century digital learning model to keep low enrollment, or joining forces with a CMO and giving up our innovative model to offer our community a choice. Our response:
 - a. The benefits of a small school environment, which the panel responded favorably to with the denying panelists as a group encouraging us to come back again, will be sacrificed if we increase our classroom ratios or number of classes per grade level.
 - b. Our K-12 model will be untenable if we start with more grades and do not gradually add grade levels over a period of years. If we open all grade levels at one time to ensure larger first year revenues, our ability to implement quality programming in every age group at once is questionable. As it stands, we have already begun preparing for our K-2 and 6-8 programs through project-based after school classes and our Montessori preschool to ensure a smooth opening for those specialized sub-models.
 - c. If we stay true to our small school, K-12 vision, but sacrifice our 1:1 technology to strengthen our contingency fund, our students will not have the benefits of a 21st Century school, a critical component of college and career readiness for the high TAGG population we seek to serve.
 - d. As we stated in answer to the low enrollment question before the panel, we can still offer our exact primary program with less staff (we would not hire our last staff members until after we see our July 1 enrollment) as Montessori methodology requires mixed grade classes. In addition, our middle school program, if under-enrolled, can also operate as described in our application with one less teacher by hiring two or more of our core teachers at half time. Keep in mind, with the demand for school choice very high in Northwest Arkansas, based on waiting lists in the hundreds, the actuality of low enrollment is not likely.

In short, the integrity of the OCCA vision, which the panel responded so favorably to, would be violated by starting with a larger enrollment or less technology in the first year to increase our contingency funding. With all due respect to the authorizing panel, we request that the board reconsider the panel's decision on this point and honor our promise to use conservation of spending, to continually seek grants and fund-raise to build our savings, and to practice stringent accountability controls to ensure our financial health in those vulnerable first years of operation.

2. One panelist expressed concern that our high school program, set to open the second year of operation in 2015/16, may not have enough courses in place to offer the required 38 courses required by state rules. The concern was based on the fact that we had mentioned two possible digital curriculum companies that modeled the quality of interactivity and price range we were looking for. These curriculums have not been adopted by the ADE. Our response:

- In our application amendment submitted in response to internal review comments from the ADE Charter office in advance of the required deadline for such amendments, we clearly stated that we would adopt only curriculum that will "meet or exceed curriculum standards and requirements established by the Arkansas State Board of Education in accordance with all laws, rules, and procedures promulgated to ensure access to quality digital learning content and online blended learning." The only digital curriculum currently adopted by the state (new materials are being considered for adoption in 2014), is K12.com, currently offered by Arkansas Virtual High School. This curriculum does offer the requisite 38 courses for a full high school course menu. Under the supervision of the Highly Qualified Teachers we will have on staff to implement our blended and flipped instructional models, we will provide the K12.com offerings if other materials of our choosing have not yet been adopted. This would have been explained to the authorizing panel if the opportunity had been given.

3. The last panelist expressed concern over student transitions from the Montessori-based curriculum we are offering to our K-4 students, into the Project-based Learning model we are offering to our 5-8 students. Our response:

- This panelist did not mention or ask us about possible conflicts between the two instructional models during the interview, but stated that this was her primary reason for denial. Had we had the opportunity to address this question, it would have been easily addressed.
- Montessori and Project-based Learning are in fact easily integrated instructional methods. The following quote from a 2012 article posted on the PBL.org website in fact references Montessori as influential in the development of PBL as it is currently practiced: "Early foundational theories of PBL date back nearly a century ago. Philosopher and educational reformer John Dewey proposed the learning-by-doing method. The 20th century Italian educator and physician Maria Montessori suggested that in a well-fostered and prepared environment, children are able to teach themselves, and self-direct their learning.”

4. Our final, and perhaps most urgent reason for appealing the panel decision, is that we stand to lose our facility lease if forced to wait another year for approval. We have an agreement with our local community center, The Jones Center for Families in Springdale, to open in August of 2014. We will never again find a more excellent location for our school here in Springdale. The Jones Center is in the heart of Springdale, in immediate proximity to the minority and low-income families we most hope to serve. With 220,000 square feet of modern and well-maintained recreational space including indoor swimming pools, ice skating rink, gymnasium, auditorium, and full-time police security staff, no startup charter school could hope to find a better facility. The Jones Trust organization is actively seeking tenants that will fit well with their mission to serve our diverse community with a variety of educational and recreational offerings, and have opened their arms to our program.

In light of the urgency of this appeal, we sincerely ask that the board will consider reviewing our application for approval to open in the 2014/2015 school year.

Sincerely,

Common Core Standards and Montessori Curriculum Correlation
Spring 2012
By Stacey Edwards

Common Core Standards Mission Statement

The Common Core Standards provide a consistent, clear understanding of what students are expected to learn, so teachers and parents know what they need to do to help them. The standards are designed to be robust and relevant to the real world, reflecting the knowledge and skills that young people need for success in college and careers.

Introduction to the Common Core Standards

The Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts & Literacy and Mathematics are based on the current College and Career Readiness Standards. Finally released in 2010, the current work was led by the Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO) and the National Governors Association (NGA). Drawing from national and international educational research and standards models, the NGA states that the Common Core State Standards represent a synthesis of the best elements of standards-based work that builds upon the strengths of current State Standards.

The standards cover grades Kindergarten through 12. Each has been deemed "developmentally appropriate" (although some might argue this point) and they collectively work as a cumulative progression of skills and understandings; a "staircase" of growing complexity across grade levels, hence preparing each child for the workforce and/or college. These standards are intended to recognize common goals and expectations for children participating in schools in America.

As specified by the CCSSO and NGA, the Standards are (1) research and evidence based, (2) aligned with college and work expectations, (3) rigorous, and (4) internationally benchmarked. The creators of the Common Core State Standards assert that each particular standard was included in the document only when the best available evidence indicated that "its mastery was essential for college and career readiness in a twenty-first-century, globally competitive society." The Standards are intended to be a living work: as new and better evidence emerges, the Standards will be revised accordingly.

Montessori-Common Core Correlation 2012

The Common Core Standards have some clear design limitations, however, that should be considered upon implementation. They clearly do not encompass all that should or can be taught, the interventions possibly needed for some students with special needs or everything one would need to be truly college and career ready. Another critique of the Common Core Standards is that they do not “train” teachers or determine approved curricular models. This limitation works to the advantage of alternative educational approaches, such as Montessori.

Common Core Implementation and Assessment

The major work of implementation takes place after the standards have been adopted, as states individually tackle complementary changes in curriculum, assessment, professional development, and other related areas. States that adopt the standards must adopt all of the standards in English, language arts, and math. They have the option, however, of adding up to 15% of their own state-determined content standards on top of the core in either subject.

To be effective, the Standards need to be accompanied by robust assessments and partnered with content-rich curriculum. Like the adoption of the standards themselves, it will be up to the states to create tools of assessment: some states plan to come together voluntarily to develop a common assessment system, based on the common core state standards (see PARCC below). A state-led consortium on assessment would be grounded in the following principles: allow for comparison across students, schools, districts, states and nations; create economies of scale; provide information and support more effective teaching and learning; and prepare students for college and careers. At this time, each State that has already adopted the Standards has published their own timelines as to when assessment tools will be released.

Currently, twenty-five states have joined together to create the Partnership for the Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC). The goal of this group is to create an assessment system and supporting tools that will help states dramatically increase the number of students who graduate high school ready for college and careers and provide students, parents, teachers and policymakers with the tools they need to help students - from kindergarten through high school - stay on track to graduate prepared.

For more thorough and specific information on the Standards, please visit www.corestandards.org and www.achieve.org.

Introduction to the Montessori Approach

The Montessori Approach (pronounced MON-tuh-SORE-ee) of education, was developed by Dr. Maria Montessori, one of the first women to become a medical doctor in Italy. The approach dates back to 1907, when Dr. Montessori opened the Casa dei Bambini, or Children’s House, in a low-income district of Rome. Her unique philosophy sparked the interest of educators worldwide. In the following decades, Montessori schools have opened throughout Europe, in North and South America, and finally on Africa, Australia and Asia, spanning the ages of birth through adolescence. Now, nearly a century later, there are more than 5,000 private, public and charter Montessori schools in the United States, and over 22,000 worldwide.

Maria Montessori based her educational methods on scientific observation of children’s learning processes, from birth through adulthood. Guided by her discovery that children teach themselves, Dr. Montessori designed a “prepared environment” (classroom) in which children could freely choose from a number of developmentally appropriate activities.

Montessori-Common Core Correlation 2012

It is an approach that values the human spirit and the development of the whole child—physical, social, emotional, cognitive through concrete experiences.

The teacher, child, and environment (classroom) create a learning triangle. The classroom is prepared by the teacher to encourage independence, freedom within limits, a sense of order and appreciation for our cosmic universe and cultural diversity. The child, through individual choice, makes use of what the environment offers to develop himself, interacting with the teacher when support and/or guidance is needed.

Multage groupings are a hallmark of the Montessori Approach: younger children learn from older children; older children reinforce their learning by teaching concepts they have already mastered. This arrangement also mirrors the real world, where individuals work and socialize with people of all ages and dispositions.

Dr. Montessori observed that children experience sensitive periods, or developmental windows of opportunity, as they grow. As their students develop, Montessori teachers match appropriate lessons and materials to these sensitive periods when learning is most naturally absorbed and internalized. In early childhood, Montessori students learn through sensory-motor activities, working with materials that develop their cognitive powers through direct experience: seeing, hearing, tasting, smelling, touching, and movement.

In the elementary years, the child continues to organize his thinking through work with the Montessori learning materials and an interdisciplinary curriculum as he passes from the concrete to the abstract. He begins the application of his knowledge to real-world experiences.

This organization of information—facts and figures—prepares the child for the world of adolescence, when thought and emotion evolve into understanding more abstract, universal concepts such as equity, freedom, and justice.

Montessori: Supporting Child Development & Academic Confidence

Components necessary for a program to be considered authentically Montessori include multage groupings that foster peer learning, uninterrupted blocks of work time, and guided choice of work activity. In addition, a full compliment of specially designed Montessori learning materials are meticulously arranged and available for use in an aesthetically pleasing environment. This educational approach also considers the following concepts:

- Each child is valued as a unique individual. Montessori education recognizes that children learn in different ways, and accommodates all learning styles. Students are also free to learn at their own pace, each advancing through the curriculum as he is ready, guided by the teacher and an individualized learning plan.
- Beginning at an early age, Montessori students develop order, coordination, concentration, and independence. Classroom design, materials, and daily routines support the individual's emerging "self-regulation" (ability to educate one's self, and to think about what one is learning), toddlers through adolescents.
- Students are part of a close, caring community. The multi-age classroom—typically spanning 3 years—creates a family structure. Older students enjoy stature as mentors and role models; younger children feel supported and gain confidence about the challenges ahead. Teachers model respect, loving kindness, and a belief in peaceful conflict resolution.

Montessori-Common Core Correlation 2012

- Montessori students enjoy freedom within limits.
Working within parameters set by their teachers, students are active participants in deciding what their focus of learning will be. Montessori teachers understand that internal satisfaction drives the child's curiosity and interest and results in joyous learning that is sustainable over a lifetime.
- Students are supported in becoming active seekers of knowledge. Teachers provide environments where students have the freedom and the tools to pursue answers to their own questions while continually building their knowledge base in a variety of subject areas. Early access and instruction in the use of research tools broaden the possibilities for self-learning.
- Self-correction and self-assessment are an integral part of the Montessori classroom approach. As they mature, students learn to look critically at their work, and become adept at recognizing, correcting, and learning from their errors. Additionally, children become comfortable in providing constructive feedback to their peers in effort to work out social and academic problems.
- Respond to varying demands of audience, task, purpose, and discipline through adaptive communication skills; demonstrated in Montessori's classroom structure through multi-age groupings, conflict resolution, peer mediation, cultural awareness and sensitivity, and early research.
- Ability to comprehend as well as critique
- Value evidence; demonstrated through the support of each child's sensitive periods and innate curiosity of the world,
- Use technology and digital media strategically and capably; as demonstrated through early access to research tools and encouraged problem-solving strategies
- Come to understand other perspectives and cultures; as demonstrated through early conflict resolution, cultural identification and experiences as well as access to wide range of cultural materials and books.

These concepts are the cornerstone of the Montessori Approach and align with the proposed Common Core Standards outcomes for college and career ready children:

- Demonstrate Independence; demonstrated through Montessori's activities in self-choice, open exploration and self-correcting concrete materials.
- Build strong content knowledge across a wide range of subject matter; demonstrated through the daily choice of activities in practical life, sensori-motor, mathematics, language, science, culture, art, and music as well as through social interactions in a multi-age group setting.

- Use knowledge of increasingly sophisticated word relationships, including analogies (e.g., descriptive quality/comprehend text)
- Recognize what items or ideas are being compared in analogies found in grade-appropriate text
- Analyze the meanings of idioms (e.g., lose a train of thought) in grade-appropriate prose and poetry
- Use a wide array of contextual clues, including understanding increasingly subtle examples, to determine or clarify the precise meanings of unfamiliar words in grade-appropriate text

Jasmine's Current Performance

Skills to Learn

Skills listed below are suggested skills Jasmine should work on based on her last STAR Math Enterprise Test. These skills should be challenging, but not too difficult for Jasmine. Combine this information with your own knowledge of the student and use your professional judgment when designing an instructional program. Use Core Progress™ learning progression for math to find additional information for each skill, worked examples, and example problems.

Numbers and Operations

This score suggests Jasmine has an understanding of how to divide with decimals; convert between decimals, fractions, and percents; and solve problems involving percents and ratios. Based on this score, Jasmine should practice operations with integers and solving problems involving percents, ratios, and proportions.

Skills to Learn

1. Determine a percent of a whole number using less than 100%
2. Determine a percent of a whole number using more than 100%
3. Determine the percent of a whole number is of another whole number, with a result
4. Determine a whole number given a part and a percentage less than 100%
5. WP: Determine a percent of a whole number using less than 100%

Algebra

This score suggests Jasmine has an understanding of how to relate tables of paired numbers to variable expressions and graphs. Based on this score, Jasmine should practice relating verbal expressions and situations to variable expressions and equations.

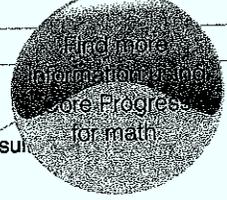

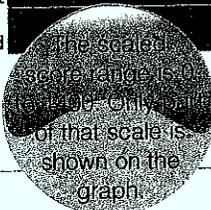

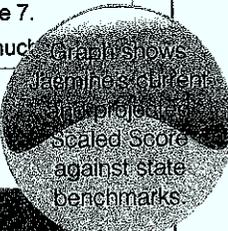

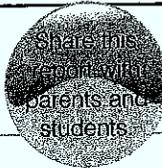

Skills to Learn

1. Use a variable expression with two operations to represent a verbal expression
2. Use a verbal expression to represent a variable expression with two operations
3. WP: Use a variable expression with two operations to represent a situation
4. WP: use a 2-variable equation to represent a situation involving a direct proportion
5. WP: Use a 2-variable linear equation to represent a situation

Geometry and Measurement

This score suggests Jasmine has an understanding of how to solve problems involving area, volume, and surface area of shapes. Based on this score, Jasmine should practice relating solid shapes to nets, identifying properties of solid shapes, and working with transformations on a grid.

What is the Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool?

Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool is a flexible and media-rich new set of content-based assessment tools and instructional materials designed specifically to support the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). It is directly aligned to the Common Core State Standards and was designed specifically to help you collect data and provide targeted remediation and teaching for skills and concepts identified as Common Core State Standards. Even if your state has not adopted these standards, it can be used as a valuable diagnostic and remediation tool for the skills required to succeed in any educational setting.

There are two global sets of standards presently addressed in the Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool:

1. ELA (English Language Arts)
2. Mathematics

Grades K-5 also incorporates ELA reading foundation standards, including phonemic awareness.

This tool can be used to help you pinpoint and address areas where students are struggling. It helps you accurately identify student competency in the Common Core State Standard skill sets identified for grades K-8 and provides the supplemental materials for remediation and practice to help students achieve mastery of those standards.

While the instructional material targets the standards of grades K-8, this is because those are the grades where skill-building is most prevalent and often where the gaps are most likely to occur. Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool materials can still be effectively used in a high school setting to address and teach skills not mastered previously.

How is the Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool Structured?

The structure of a course is usually between 17 and 25 units. Each unit has a pre-test, a mini-lesson, and a post-test. There is also a second mini-lesson following the post-test. This second mini-lesson is skipped by default, but can be manually assigned by you, as the teacher, if you feel the student needs some additional practice with the skill. We'll talk a bit more about that later in this guide. The pre-test and post-test are the same providing you a good academic comparison of student performance.

Each unit in a Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool course targets a single common core state standard. The specific standard is identified by the Common Core identifier as part of the unit and assignment title. For example, in Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool English Language Arts Grade 7, unit 1 is "Finding and Using Evidence (RL.7.1)" The Pre-Test title is "Pre-Test: Finding and Using Evidence (RL.7.1), The Lesson title is "Finding and Using Explicit Textual Evidence (RL.7.1)". Each title appears exactly like this in reports, making tracking these standards easy for you.

The lesson structure is similar to lessons in other ODYSSEYWARE courses with a few minor differences. Most lessons have four sections, a few may have more. If there are more than four sections, the additional sections are structured like section 4, Show What You Know.

Section 1: Anticipatory Set, Objective, and Vocabulary

Introduces the concept, lists lesson objectives and associated vocabulary words. This section also includes a 'Teacher Only' description of the Common Core Standard addressed in the lesson. It also alerts you to any pre-requisites for the lesson.

This section focuses on thoroughly covering the vocabulary associated with this standard. Not understanding the vocabulary is the primary reason most students fail a standardized test. Section 1 of each lesson provides teaching and practice opportunities for students to become knowledgeable about the necessary vocabulary.

There are NO problems associated to this section.

Section 2: Direct Instruction (Occasionally this is in Section 3)

Section 2 takes the learned vocabulary and puts it into action based on the standard. This section uses extensive audio and media, especially at the lower grades providing ample opportunity for students to hear and see the standard in action.

Again, there are NO problems associated to this section.

Section 3: It's Your Turn! This is the section where the student works through learning activities, does some guided practice and may go through a synopsis or review.

Section 3 also includes significant media and dynamic learning activities giving students time to practice what they have learned.

Again, there are NO problems associated to this section.

Section 4: Show What You Know – Now it's time for students to demonstrate what they have learned and be assessed using the problem set associated with this lesson.

If there are multiple passages associated to the problem set, students tackle only one passage per section; therefore if there is more than one passage for the lesson, there will be more than four sections, with each section addressing only one passage.

In an ELA problem set, the student may be required to read a passage and identify details from the text.

In a Math problem set the student may have a series of problems demonstrating they understand the specific concept covered in sections 1-3.

How Can I Use the Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool?

Since each unit focuses on one skill, it can be used strictly as a skills assessment tool, as a remediation tool, as a skills review tool. It can also be an additional resource when building a custom course. Use it to collect data about student's mastery of skills and as supplemental material to help build student skill sets.

Since the CCSS require students to do more, earlier in their schooling, the Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool is a way to help you address the gaps that arise as a result of this jump in expectations. It is a bridge to help transition your students from one set of standards to another.

| Grade Levels: | K-12 |
| Student Enrollment Cap: | 250 |
| Address of Proposed Charter: | 922 E. Emma Ave., Springdale, AR 72764 |

PRE-APPLICATION MATERIALS

The Arkansas Department of Education requires that all applicants submit a Letter of Intent, outlining a general description of the proposed charter school.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will guarantee that:

- A Letter of Intent was filed with Arkansas Department of Education on time and included all the necessary information.

PART B EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Arkansas Department of Education requires all applicants to include an executive summary.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A mission statement (with content to be evaluated for Prompt #3 of Part C); and
- The key programmatic features of the proposed charter school.

Meets the Standard

C-1 PUBLIC HEARING RESULTS

All proposed school design teams must conduct a public hearing before applying for an open- enrollment charter school, to assess support for the school's establishment. Applicants are asked both to document the logistics of the hearing and to include a narrative of the hearing results.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A thorough description of the results of the public hearing;
- Evidence of public support exhibited at the hearing;
- Documentation of required notices published to garner public attention to the hearing; and
 - Published on a weekly basis for at least three consecutive weeks prior to the date of the hearing in a newspaper having general circulation in the school district in which the school will likely be located
 - The notice of the public hearing was not published in the classified or legal notice section of the newspaper.
 - The last publication date of the notice was no less than seven days prior to the public meeting.
- Documentation of required notices of the public hearing to superintendents of districts from which the proposed school is likely to draw students and to superintendents of districts that are contiguous to the district in which the charter school would be located

- Within seven calendar days following the first publication.

C-2 GOVERNING STRUCTURE

The Governing Structure section should explain how the school will be governed. It should present a clear picture of the school's governance processes and composition, what responsibilities various groups and people will have and the relationships among the groups.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Documentation of proper legal structure of the governing board and sponsoring entity;
- A comprehensive description of the planned relationship between the governing board of the school and governing board of the sponsoring entity;
- A clear description of the governing board's roles and responsibilities;
- Adequate policies and procedures for board operation, including board composition, member term length, and member selection;
- A clear, sensible delineation of roles and responsibilities in relation to governance and school management; and
- A reasonable plan for involving parents, staff, students and community in the decision-making of the school.

Partially Meets the Standard - MEETS THE STANDARD (BASED ON RESPONSE)

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Explain why the superintendent is mentioned as advising the charter director, but not mentioned in any other section of the application.

The reference to a "superintendent" under the job description of Dean of Students on page 13 is a typo dating back to a much earlier draft. I would clarify that the position responsibilities of Program Director as described on page 11 and referenced throughout the application, include any and all responsibilities expected of a Superintendent.

C-3 MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission Statement should be meaningful and indicate what the school intends to do, for whom, and to what degree.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A mission statement that is clear and succinct.

C-4 EDUCATIONAL NEED

The Educational Need section should explain the need for a charter school in the proposed location and the innovative educational option offered by the charter school.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A description of the educational need for the charter school substantiated with valid and reliable data, and
- A description of the innovations that would distinguish the charter from other schools.

Partially Meets the Standard - MEETS THE STANDARD (BASED ON RESPONSE)

Concerns and Additional Questions::

- Confirm that the budgeted expenditures for technology, $10,950 for 2014-2015 and $5,000 for 2015-2016, are sufficient to provide the technology included.

The $10,950 and corresponding $5,000 technology expenditures for the first two years, referenced from budget Line 151, are designated specifically for wiring and maintenance expenses per an estimate from a local service provider. Line 39 "classroom equipment" at $25,140 covers 1:1 device expenses for students at $250 per Chromebook for 5 classrooms, and (approximately) $69 per Kindle for 1 (kindergarten) class- room. The authors of the application have discovered two additional omissions not noted in the original budget: 1) $4,000 is needed for laptops for 6 regular teachers, 1 ELL teacher, and 1 SPED teacher at $500 each. 2) $8,000 is needed for classroom furnishings. Our lessor is providing tables, desks, and whiteboards in the classrooms, but we need to plan for additional tables, chairs, bookcases, and bulletin boards. $6,960 will be needed for scholarships for home internet services for 58 NSL students (if additional eligible students enroll, scholarships may be taken from NSL funds). This is at a rate of $120 per year per family. Cox provides services at $9.95 per month for families with a student receiving free or reduced lunch. The funds for the omitted expenditures totaling $18,960 may be drawn from (a) the $12,500 that was mistakenly budgeted under Guidance Services, year 1, on Line 102, and (b) funds from mistakenly setting two staff positions at 1.3 FTE (Dean and Admin Asst) which has been corrected.

C-5 EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

The Educational Program section should describe the educational foundation of the school and the teaching and learning strategies that will be employed.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A clear description of the proposed educational program, including but not limited to the foundational educational philosophy and curricular and instructional strategies to be employed;
- Specific reasons that the school would be viable; and
- A description of the length of school day and school year that meets minimum state requirements.

Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Provide the grade levels to be served by year with the maximum enrollment for each year.
- Confirm the understanding that every digital course must be offered from a provider approved by the Arkansas Department of Education and must meet or exceed curriculum standards and requirements established by the Arkansas State Board of Education in accordance with all laws, rules, and procedures promulgated to ensure access to quality digital learning content and online blended learning.

Grade levels to be served by year and maximum enrollment:

| GRADE LEVEL | 2014-15 | 2015-16 | 2016-17 | 2017-18 | 2018-19 |
|--------------------|----------------|----------------|----------------|----------------|----------------|

| TOTAL | 108 | 146 | 185 | 225 | 245 |

It is the intention of OCCA that every digital course will be offered from a provider approved by the Arkansas Department of Education and must meet or exceed curriculum standards and requirements established by the Arkansas State Board of Education in accordance with all laws, rules, and procedures promulgated to ensure access to quality digital learning content and online blended learning.

C-6: ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT GOALS

The Academic Achievement Goals section should define the performance expectations for students and the school as whole.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Specific goals in:
 - Reading;
 - Reading Comprehension;
 - Mathematics; and
 - Mathematics Reasoning;
- Goals that are clear, measurable and data-driven;
- Goals on improving student achievement; and
- Valid and reliable assessment tools for measuring each of the defined goals.

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Confirm the understanding, that during the first year of operation, the charter's annual measurable objectives (AMOs) will be based on the state AMOs, and that in following years, the charter's AMOs will be based upon the academic performance of the students who attend the charter.

It is the intention of OCCA that during the first year of operation, our annual measurable objectives (AMOs) will be based on the state AMOs, and that in following years, our AMOs will be based upon the academic performance of the students who attend the charter.

C7: CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT AND ALIGNMENT

The Curriculum Development and Alignment section should define the process by which the design team developed (or chose) the curricular program of the school and illustrate alignment with Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and Common Core State Standards.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard of a curricular development and alignment program will present:

- Evidence that the curriculum aligns with, or a sound plan and timeline for aligning the curriculum with, the Arkansas Department of Education's content standards, benchmarks and performance standards.
- Evidence that the applicant is prepared to implement the requirements and timeframe of the Common Core State Standards.

Meets the Standard

C-8: STUDENT SERVICES

The Student Services section should describe how the school will address specific services for its student body.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will describe the ways in which the following services will be provided to students even in those areas for which a waiver is requested:

- A guidance program that will serve all students;
- A health services program that will serve all students;
- A plan for a media center for use by all students;
- Sound plans for educating special education students that reflect the full range of programs and services required to provide such students with a high quality education;
- A transportation plan that will serve all eligible students;
- An alternative education plan for eligible students, including those determined to be at-risk and to offer access to one or more approved Alternative Learning Environments;
- A plan to serve students who are English language learners; and
- Plans for offering access to one or more approved Alternative Learning Environments; and
- Plans for a gifted and talented program for eligible students.

Partially Meets the Standard - MEETS THE STANDARD (BASED ON RESPONSE)

Concerns and Additional Questions:

Guidance Services

- Clarify if a part-time counselor will be hired in the first year of operation as 0.25 counselor is budgeted in 2014-2015.

Line 102, Year 1 is a typo. Guidance services requirements will be waived in the first year and student guidance needs will be addressed by the Program Director and the Dean of Students as described in section C-20.

Health Services

- Explain the ways in which daily responsibilities for student health issues will be handled and by whom when the nurse is not on campus.

OCCA will observe the following plans and procedures for addressing student health issues when the nurse is not on campus:

1. All staff will be required to attend Red Cross first aid and CPR training, as well as any additional trainings as required by the ADE, the county health department, or specific trainings relative to particular student health issues. The school nurse will be responsible for arranging health care trainings for staff.
2. Mid-day medications for chronic conditions will be dispensed by the nurse. In the event that a student requires medication or a health procedure at other times during the day, at least two staff members, including one administrator and one teacher, will be trained to administer the required treatments.
3. Parents/guardians must sign a comprehensive waiver and permission for their child to receive minor treatments in the school setting, i.e., cough drops, acetamenophin, antacids, bandaids.
4. In the event of a medical emergency, the following Emergency Medical Plan will be implemented:

- a. The supervising staff member will hit the emergency button on the classroom telephone or call for help. The emergency button will be linked to 9-1-1, building security, the school nurse, and school administrators. If an emergency button or phone is not immediately available and the student is in need of rapid assistance, this step can be skipped until someone else at the scene is able to make the call.
 - b. The staff member will administer first aid or CPR until professional help arrives.
 - c. When additional staff arrives at the scene, if the student cannot be moved to a safe and private location, other students will be removed to another classroom or area.
 - d. Parent/guardian will be notified immediately. e. Student health records will be pulled to show Emergency Personnel when they arrive.
 - f. If the student is not transported away by Emergency Personnel, then the parent and administrator will determine whether the student is safe and well enough to remain in school for the remainder of the day.
5. The Program Director and Dean of Students will be trained Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) members, certified to conduct disaster response including triage, search & rescue, disaster psychology, and hazardous materials safety. The Program Director has experience as a CERT advisor at high schools in two states and will initiate a SERT (Student Emergency Response Team) at the OCCA site as well. Parents and community members will be invited to participate in the training and become members of our CERT team as well. The Dean of Students will be responsible for arranging trainings and meetings.
6. The Program Director and Dean of Students will be trained in Risk Management to reduce the likelihood of accidents while OCCA students are at school. The Dean of Students will be responsible for arranging trainings.
7. The OCCA staff and students will be trained in evacuation procedures and Parent Orientation will include instruction in emergency evacuation plans to ensure the health and safety of students in the event of a building emergency. The Dean of Students will be responsible for arranging drills and trainings.

Media Center Services

- Explain how the classroom library will meet the needs of the Common Core State Standards and where funds for classroom libraries are budgeted.

Line 41 of the budget specifies $3,000 for books the first year, and $4,500 the second year. In the first year of operation, at an average cost of $4.00 per book for e-books and used books, we will have approximately 750 titles available, or 7 books per student. With our 1:1 device ratio, all students will also have access to online library and database holdings, exponentially increasing their access to fiction and non-fiction literature. By the second year of operation, our holdings will approximate 1,875 books, or 13 volumes per student not counting online library and database holdings, providing an excess of materials for every student. Teachers and students will have access to holdings in multiple classrooms, they will not be limited to the holdings in their own classroom. Teachers will be trained in identifying materials aligned with CCSS to ensure Lexile levels (quantitative measures of reading level), critical thinking level (qualitative measures of reading level), and reader/task variables are aligned to meet range, quality, and text complexity requirements for attaining grade level proficiency on PARCC assessments.

Special Education Services

- Explain the Child Find plan for locating and identifying children in need of special education services.

- Confirm that the charter will be prepared to offer a full continuum of special education services to meet the needs of any student who may enroll.
- Confirm that all state and federal special education rules and regulations will be followed.

OCCA will adopt a Child Find plan for locating and identifying children in need of special education services. The Arkansas Child Find Procedural Guide outlines activities geared to assist schools, agencies, and families in identifying students in need of special education services. In accordance with the guide, OCCA staff, under the supervision of the OCCA SPED teacher, will use the following instruments to assist in identifying students in need of services:

- 1) Standardized achievement tests
- 2) Teacher grade book data
- 3) Inventories provided by the SPED teacher, school counselor, and Program Director
- 4) Observations by teachers, parents, staff, and administrators
- 5) Hearing screening data provided by the school nurse
- 6) Vision screening data provided by the school nurse
- 7) Speech/Language observations and inventories
- 8) Developmental indicators observed by teachers, staff, and administrators
- 9) Behavioral data
- 10) Cognitive data

When a child is identified as in need of evaluation, the teacher, parent, staff, or agency will be complete a referral form to be sent to the OCCA SPED teacher. The SPED teacher will work with the parent/guardian to make arrangements for external testing and diagnosis by qualified service providers. When a diagnosis or test results indicate a need for special education services is present, the SPED teacher will be responsible for developing an Individualized Education Plan for the student. The OCCA Director will ensure that the necessary resources are provided to implement the IEP as written.

OCCA will be prepared to offer a full continuum of special education services to meet the needs of any student who may enroll.

OCCA will follow all state and federal special education rules and regulations.

OCCA will also partner with the Arkansas Support Network agency office in Springdale to ensure that families of children receiving special services will have access to community, state, and federal resources available to children with disabilities and their families.

English Language Learner Services

- Explain how gifted and talented students will be identified.

- Explain which teachers will serve gifted and talented students and describe specific training that the teachers will receive in meeting the needs of gifted and talented students.
- Explain how the social and emotional needs of gifted and talented students will be met.

OCCA will use the following process to identify gifted and talented students:

1. A GT Committee consisting of an administrator and two teachers (one elementary, one secondary) will be formed. The committee members will be trained in basic identification of GT students, analyzing screening instrument results, and ensuring GT student placement and services are appropriate to the unique needs of each student. Committee members will receive a minimum of 18 hours of professional development training per year to include attendance at the state GT conference, Arkansas IDEAS coursework, and/or postsecondary coursework.
2. Nominations, screening, and placement will be ongoing for grades K-12 throughout the school year. Nominations may be made by parent/guardian, teacher/staff, agency, or student/self.
3. Parent/guardian will be asked to sign a form granting permission for screening.
4. The following instruments will be used for screening:
 - CogAT (Cognitive Abilities Test)
 - OLSAT (Otis Lennon School Ability Test / secondary testing instrument)
 - Williams Creativity Screening
 - Renzulli Parent Inventory
 - Renzulli Teacher Inventory
 - Standardized Test Scores
 - ACTAAP Scores
 - Grade Point Average
 - Student Portfolio of Work
 - Interview and/or Observation
5. The GT Committee will review the screening results using a blind identification process (student names will not be used).
6. Parent/guardian will be notified of the placement decision by letter.
7. Students placed in GT services will receive modifications, enrichment, and access to pull-out and Advanced Placement opportunities in accordance with ADE rules and regulations.
8. The social/emotional needs of GT students will be addressed through individualized counseling with families of GT students including: parent/guardian conferences with the GT committee, resource books and materials located in the Program Directors office, referrals to the school counselor or an external provider to support the child if needed. GT students will also have opportunities to socialize with other GT students through group projects and community partnerships.

- Explain why the budget shows 1.3 FTE for Dean of Students.
- Confirm that instructional aides hired with Title I funds or working in a Title I Schoolwide Program will highly qualified as required by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act and perform the duties deemed appropriate in the federal statute.

The reason the Dean of Students and the Administrative Assistant show 1.3 FTE is because the authors of the application mistakenly assumed that we could hire these two individuals four months (.3) before the school opening and pay their salaries using the funds from the 2014/15 budget. It has been brought to our attention that this is not an appropriate expenditure. Therefore, the FTEs for those two positions are being amended to 1 FTE each, and the excess funds will be designated for contingencies.

Attach documentation to demonstrate that each of the following requirements of Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-302 was met:

- A. The notice of the public hearing was published on a weekly basis for at least three (3) consecutive weeks prior to the date of the hearing in a newspaper having general circulation in the school district in which the school will likely be located.
- B. The notice of the public hearing was not published in the classified or legal notice section of the newspaper.
- C. The last publication date of the notice was no less than seven days prior to the public meeting.
- D. Within seven calendar days following the first publication of the notice of the public hearing, emails announcing the public hearing were sent to the superintendent of each of the school districts from which the open-enrollment public charter school is likely to draw students for the purpose of enrollment and the superintendent of any district that is contiguous to the district in which the open-enrollment public charter school will be located.

Applicant Response:

OCCA held three public meetings.

The first meeting was held on July 9, 2013 at the Jones Center for Families at 944 E. Emma Avenue, a local community center located in the Springdale Public Schools District. Notice of the meeting was published in the Northwest Arkansas Times, both Washington and Benton County editions, for three weeks prior to the meeting, on June 16th, 23rd, and 30th. The notice was in the front page section, not the legal or classifieds. The last publication of notice was no less than 7 days prior to the meeting. Within seven calendar days following the first publication of the notice of the public hearing, emails were sent to the superintendents of the following districts: Benton County School of the Arts, Bentonville, Farmington, Fayetteville, Gentry, Gravette, Greenland, Haas Hall, NWA Classical Academy, Pea Ridge, Rogers, Siloam Springs, Springdale, and West Fork.

The meeting was attended by 8 community members. Dr. Christine Silano gave a PowerPoint presentation and answered questions. Attendees signed in. Two front page articles were written and published by reporters from two local newspapers.

The second public meeting was held on July 30, 2013, also at the Jones Center in Springdale. The meeting was publicized for two weeks prior to the hearing in the local newspaper on July 21st and 28th. It was also publicized on the local Hispanic radio station, La Zeta 95.7 by PSA for one week prior to the meeting. It was also publicized on a local Hispanic television station, Univision on Cox Cable channel 11 by way of an interview with our Hispanic Outreach Coordinator, Arturo Garcia, with reporter Belen Gomez-Jordana. The meeting was also advertised by fliers handed out in front of the Springdale Public Library and at a local church.

Six community members were in attendance, three of whom were Hispanic parents who had heard about us on the radio. One was a Caucasian mother who had read about OCCA in the newspaper. The other two women were school teachers who had read about OCCA and were interested in helping to establish the school.

The attendees asked several questions about specific plans for the school. Each wrote a comment or question on a card, along with their contact information and indication of whether they would like to serve on the advisory board. Comments included the following:

"Heard about this on 95.7 'La Z' and was intrigued at once. I want my son and daughter to have access to the best education there is." (Advisory Board? Yes)

No comment. (Advisory Board? Yes)

"To find out more about OCCA! I'm interested in a school that focuses on children in poverty and their needs." (Advisory Board? Yes)

"I came because I am looking for a better education for my 10 yr. old son. We are in the Springdale school system and find it sub-par, having transferred from Fayetteville. Also, the learning style doesn't fit him and many students aren't passing the end of year state tests. He is unhappy and we are looking for a better experience, closer to Montessori, his first school. We are non-traditional and are interested in alternatives. I know there is something better for my child." (Advisory Board? Yes)

"How much would my family pay? Please send me posters to post at Walmart Home Office."

"I am interested in being a teacher here!" (Advisory Board? Yes)

The third public meeting was held on August 15, 2013, also at the Jones Center in Springdale. This meeting was publicized for four weeks in the local newspaper, on July 21st and 28th, and also on August 4th and 11th. Fliers were distributed and PSA's were aired on local radio as well. Leaders from the Marshallese community were contacted personally to get the word out to this significant minority population in Springdale.

The third meeting was attended by 8 community members and parents. Comments and discussion following the presentation included the following written notes:

"Students in Springdale need alternatives to public education. Also, when one charter school is established perhaps another will start in the area." (Advisory board? Yes)

"Interest in special attention to each child. Excellence in achievement through praise. There is a need. Like the use of computer learning based programs."

"I really like how you are open to exploring what online resources are available. I would encourage you to explore Khan Academy videos online (free of charge) as a remediation or enrichment tool." (Advisory board? Yes)

"I would like to see a charter school because it will benefit my daughter. She is a slow learner. Smaller classes will help her."

A fourth public meeting will be held in the spring of 2014 to inform parents of prospective enrollees about the OCCA program.

The legal entity governing the proposed school is Ozark Education, Inc. (OEI), which is a non-profit corporation in the state of Arkansas. The Board of Trustees of OEI will also serve as the governing body of Ozark College & Career Academy. The Board will elect its members according to the terms of the corporate bylaws. The bylaws specify that the Temporary Governing Board is a body of up to 7 members appointed by the Founder and will serve until the first Board of Trustees is elected by the school community at its first annual meeting no later than October 31st of the first school year.

The Temporary Governing Board, and subsequently the Board of Trustees, has final decision-making authority in:

- (1) School finance, by means of approving or rejecting the district budget and emergency expenditures in excess of $1,000 as submitted by the Program Director (hereafter referred to as the Director);
- (2) Student discipline, in that any expulsions recommended by the Director and/or Dean must be approved or rejected by majority vote of the Board;
- (3) Hiring and firing of staff, in that all hirings and firings must be approved or rejected by the board under advisement of the Director (in instances of personnel matters); and,
- (4) Hiring and firing of the Director under advisement of all stakeholders (the Community Advisory Board, parents, staff, and students).

The Temporary Governing Board includes a non-voting member, the Ozark Education, Inc., Executive Director who also serves as the Ozark College & Career Academy Program Director (referred to as the Director).

The following is a verbatim copy of the pertinent sections of the by-laws regarding the election and responsibilities of the governing board:

Section 2. Term. Trustees shall be elected for three year terms. Terms shall be staggered so that no more than 1/2 of the Board shall be up for election in any year, unless a vacancy needs to be filled.

Section 3. Powers. The Temporary Governing Board and then the Board of Trustees shall have all powers and authority, as designated in the Charter, for the management of the business, property, and affairs of the Corporation, to do such lawful acts as it deems proper and appropriate to promote the objectives and purposes of the Corporation. The Board of Trustees may, by general resolution, delegate to committees or to officers of the Corporations such powers as it may see fit for specified periods of time.

Section 4. Election. The names of the members of the Temporary Governing Board are set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation. All successor Trustees shall be elected by the eligible voters of the school community at an election held each year at the annual meeting. Eligible voters shall be the parents or guardians of any children currently attending the school. Elections shall be conducted using secret ballots. Voters shall be required to sign a Roster of Voters confirming their eligibility to vote. Each school family shall be accorded one vote per available position, regardless of the number of its children attending the school. Proxy voting is prohibited. Votes shall be tallied and announced at the meeting where the vote takes place. A group of volunteers, no less than three nor more than five people, made up of eligible voters, but not those up for election, shall tally the votes. In the event of a tie vote for a position, a second ballot will be cast for that position only, with only the tied candidates participating on the ballot. Should a second tie vote occur, a result shall be obtained by flipping a coin with the person whose name is earliest in the alphabet calling a coin side first. Newly elected trustees shall assume office at the first Board of Trustees meeting following their election.

Such notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting.

Section 10. Quorum. A majority of the full number of Trustees shall constitute a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business. When a quorum is present, a majority of the Trustees present may take any action on behalf of the Board, except to the extent that a larger number is required by law, by the Charter, or by these By-laws. Every act of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present, whether physically or by electronic means, shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Trustees.

Section 12. Vacancies. A vacancy on the Board of Trustees, including a vacancy caused by an increase in the number of trustees, may be temporarily filled by a majority vote of the remaining Trustees to elect a person to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting of Trustees, at which time trustees so elected must be re-elected as specified in the Bylaws or step down from the Board as soon as his or her successor is duly elected and qualified.

Section 13. Compensation. Trustees receive no payment for their services. With board approval, trustees may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred on approved board business. Trustees must present receipts for all such expenses, which shall be for the trustee only, and shall be itemized and documented. Such expenses must be approved by a motion of the Board at the meeting immediately following the expenditure(s). Each year, at the annual meeting, the Board of Trustees shall set a schedule of allowable charges for meals, lodging, mileage expended on board business. Reimbursements shall not exceed these limitations.

Section 16. Meeting Attendance. Trustees are expected to attend all Board meetings. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Board to communicate with any trustee after such trustee's three unexcused, consecutive absences to ascertain the trustee's interest in retaining Board membership. Failure to provide an adequate response may qualify as sufficient cause for removal from the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE V Committees

Section 1. Establishment. The Board of Trustees may appoint such standing committees and/or ad hoc committees as it thinks necessary for the effective governing of the school.

Section 2. Standing Committees. Each standing committee shall have a charge specific to its permitted activities. The function of any committee so established shall be fact-finding, deliberative, and advisory to the Board of Trustees. Committees shall not have authority to take legislative or administrative actions, nor to adopt policies for the school.

Section 3. Ad Hoc Committees. Each ad hoc committee shall have a charge specific to its permitted activities and that charge shall include the date on which the committee is to present its report to the Board of Trustees and be dissolved. Members of ad hoc committees may be drawn from those parents and staff of the school community who indicate interest in serving on the ad hoc committee and from such others as may be deemed appropriate by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE VI Officers

Section 1. Titles. The Officers of the Corporation are a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The Board of Trustees may create such other officer positions as it thinks necessary. Each officer position shall have its duties and responsibilities specified and included in these Bylaws. No Officer may hold more than one position at the same time.

Section 2. Election. The Officers shall be elected from among the Board of Trustees at each annual meeting of the Trustees and shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 3. Terms. The president may serve no more than three consecutive one-year terms. Trustees elected to the other officer positions may serve no more than five consecutive one-year terms. Former officers, after a break in service of two years, may be elected to another term as an officer.

Section 4. Duties. Officers shall have the duties and responsibilities belonging to their office, including those that follow:

(a) The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation, responsible, along with his/her fellow Trustees, for the oversight of its business and affairs. He/she shall preside at all meetings of the Board. The President shall have full and equal vote as accorded to all trustees. The President may enter into and execute in the name of the Corporation contracts or other instruments that are authorized by the Board of Trustees. The President may delegate, as needed, to any other officer any or all of the duties of the office of President. He/she shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees or by these Bylaws.

(b) The Vice President shall have such duties and responsibilities as may be delegated to him/her by the President. The Vice President shall have full and equal vote as accorded to all trustees. In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall perform all the duties of the President and, when so acting, shall have all the responsibilities of and be subject to all the restrictions as fall upon the President, including presiding at meetings of the Board of Trustees. He/she shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees or by these Bylaws.

(c) The Secretary shall cause notices of all meetings to be served to all members of the Board of Trustees and the Director and shall keep or cause to be kept the minutes of all meetings of the Board, including the time and place, the names of those present, the actions taken, and the votes on such actions. The Secretary shall present the minutes of the previous meeting at the subsequent meeting to be voted on by the Board and duly noted in the minutes of the instant meeting. The Secretary shall keep the Seal of the Corporation. He/she shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board or by these Bylaws.

(d) The Treasurer shall be the chief financial officer of the Corporation and shall have oversight of the Program Director or designated Administrative Assistant as that employee takes responsibility of the financial records, investments, and other evidences of school properties and assets. The Treasurer shall ensure that the Business Administrator keeps regular books of account for the Corporation that set out business transactions of the Corporation, such books to be at all times open to inspection at their place of keeping to any Board of Trustee member. The Treasurer shall be the chair of the Financial Committee, which shall prepare an annual budget, in conjunction with the Director and the School Business Administrator, for the consideration and approval of the Board of Trustees. The Treasurer shall ensure that the Director or Administrative Assitant deposits all moneys and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the Corporation with such depositaries as shall be designated by the Board of Trustees. The Treasurer shall provide oversight to the Director or Administrative Assitnant in the investment and reinvestment of funds of the Corporation and the disbursement of funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Trustees. The Treasurer shall render to the Board of Trustees and the members of the school community, at the Annual Meeting, statements evidencing the current financial condition of the Corporation. The Treasurer shall ensure that the Director or Administrative Assistant establishes a system of adequate financial recording showing quarterly income, expenditures and balances and shall, at the first meeting following the end of each quarter, submit to the Board of Trustees a detailed written financial report. The Treasurer, as chair of the Finance Committee, annually shall recommend an auditing firm to be hired by the Board of Trustees to review the books of the Corporation and provide a report on them to the Board of Trustees.

Program Director

The Executive Director of Ozark Education, Inc., will be designated OCCA Program Director, to be referred to as the Director.

The Director will facilitate the ongoing development and implementation of a vision of achievement, innovation, and care for all stakeholders of the school community including students, staff, parents, and community partners as well as handling all financial and facilities business.

The Director retains the authority to hire and dismiss any subordinate staff, at will.

The Director retains final decision-making authority in the area of finance and purchasing in accordance with the school budget as voted on and approved by the Board of Trustees. School finance and purchasing decisions include vendor management; payroll administration; accounting; budgeting; cash management; financial reporting; and annual audits. The contingency fund may be accessed by the Director only with board approval for amounts exceeding $1000.

The Director retains the following administrative authority:

- Student discipline, in accordance with the Student Handbook.
- School budget, including crafting, submitting to the Board Finance Committee for review, and implementing the Board-approved budget.
- Hiring and dismissing school staff at will under advisement of the Board.
- Managing the day-to-day operations of the school including personnel matters.
- Reporting to the Board including a monthly discipline report and academic achievement report.
- Serving as the Instructional Leader of the school, responsible for curriculum alignment with Common Core State Standards, teacher and staff evaluations, and professional development.
- Cultivating and communicating a vision for excellence under the advisement of the Community Advisory Board and the School Leadership Team.
- Developing and maintaining a positive, high impact school culture that emphasizes rigor, relevance, and relationships.

School Leadership Team

The Leadership Team will be comprised of the Director, the Dean of Students, and the Lead Teachers.

Lead Teachers

The Director will designate up to three Lead Teachers as needed for grades K-4, 5-8, and 9-12. They will act under the advisement of their grade range departments.

The Lead Teachers will facilitate Professional Learning Community meetings and activities within their grade-range departments including student data collection, curriculum alignment, event/field trip planning, real-world projects, job shadowing arrangements, assemblies, and departmental professional development. They will also solicit and submit purchase orders for instructional materials and classroom supplies.

Teachers

Every faculty and staff member will belong to a Professional Learning Community (PLC) responsible for measuring student achievement, setting SMART goals (specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, and time-bound), implementing high-yield instructional strategies, and ensuring curriculum is aligned with Common Core State Standards. PLCs may also deliberate on and strategize matters of concern including discipline procedures, event planning, school culture, etc., and may submit recommendations to the Leadership Team and/or Board of Trustees for review and adoption. Each PLC will be facilitated by a Lead Teacher who will receive a stipend. PLCs will not have more than 6 members.

Community Advisory Board

Parents, community members, teachers, and students will be encouraged to serve on the Community Advisory Board which may form committees to address specific areas of need or populations of students. For example, an Elementary Committee, Secondary Committee, Hispanic Committee, and/or a Marshallese Committee may be formed. The Advisory Board may make recommendations to the Leadership Team and/or the Board of Trustees to solicit changes and improvements in the governance of the school. The Community Advisory Board and sub-committees shall elect their own officers/representatives.

Students

Students grades 4-12 will be encouraged to participate in Student Government. Each class may elect two representatives to serve on the council, for a total of 18 members. The council members may elect officers among themselves or run a school-wide election for offices. Student officers may represent the student body at Board of Trustees and Community Advisory Board meetings, as well as make recommendations to the Leadership Team to solicit changes and improvements in the governance of the school. The Director will act as Advisor to Student Government.

Dean of Students

The Dean of Students will address student behavior issues in accordance with Student Handbook policy; however, in the event of contested decisions or extenuating circumstances, the Director will have decision-making authority under advisement from the Superintendent as needed. In the event a student is recommended for expulsion, the Dean and Director will present documentation of behavior warranting expulsion before the Board of Trustees or its designated entity for approval or rejection.

The Dean of Students will also assist the Director in operations management to include vendors, transportation, maintenance, food service, security, and technology. The Dean of Students will be responsible for operations continuity in the Director's absence.

3. Give the mission statement for the proposed charter school.

Applicant Response:

The mission of Ozark College & Career Academy is to empower K-12 students to excel academically, discover their talents, and advance toward their dreams through 21st Century learning models.

4. Describe the educational need for the school. Include the innovations that will distinguish the charter from other schools.

Applicant Response:

At a local level, Northwest Arkansas boasts a higher rate of success among its students than that of neighboring communities. With an average graduation rate of 82% in Washington County, and 89% in Benton County, the region is above the state average of 80%. Nonetheless, in a region of more than 57,000 school children, an 86% graduation rate means as many as 8,500 of the current students in this area will exit the system without a high school diploma (www.greatschools.org). Demographically, 48% of the region's students are considered economically disadvantaged. Of those, the graduation rate drops to 74%.

For the 13 school districts listed in proximity to the proposed location of OCCA, the following data provide a snapshot of regional academic strengths and weaknesses. District literacy and math scores were chosen to compare average elementary level achievement.

Data sources: ADE and University of Arkansas Office of Education Policy

Though NWA schools are a step ahead of the rest of the state, a large percentage of students are not experiencing the academic success necessary for college or career advancement. In 2011, out of 109 Arkansas schools identified as “focus” schools, i.e., schools with a clear gap in achievement between at-risk (economically disadvantaged, English Learners, and Students with Disabilities) and regular students, or schools with low graduation rates, 10 of those schools were in Northwest Arkansas, and 8 of those were in the district in which the charter proposes to open, Springdale.

In Springdale, additional areas to be addressed can be observed. The 2012 Springdale District Report Card documents an 80% graduation rate, meaning as many as 4,000 of the current 20,000+ students may not graduate on time. Of those who graduate and go on to college, the district college remediation level stands at 41%. 4 out of 10 Springdale graduates are not college ready.

This is also evidenced by 2013 Grade 11 Literacy Proficient & Advanced (P&A) rates of 68.5% among the general population, and only 53% P&A among the TAGG group (minority, economically disadvantaged, and special needs students). Springdale is notably more successful with math instruction at 83% P&A on EOC Algebra and 75% P&A on EOC Geometry. But the Biology scores, like those of most of the rest of the state, are low at 41.5%. In an economy where science proficiency matters, Springdale graduates are at a distinct disadvantage.

Northwest Arkansas is also home to one of the lowest performing Priority Schools in the state. Priority schools represented the lowest 5% of Title 1 schools. Springdale's Alternative Learning Environment (ALE) high school was in fact the second-lowest performing high school in the state, with a running record of under 10% P&A on the 11th Grade Literacy for the years 2010-2012, under 22% P&A on the EOC Algebra for those 3 years, and less than 4% P&A on the Biology EOC for the same time period. Springdale has made a notable effort to correct this deficiency, however, raising 2013 scores to 33% in 11th grade literacy, 63% in EOC Algebra, and 19% in EOC Biology.

To provide a more promising option to the children in low-achieving schools, and a choice for families looking for a different educational program for their child, Ozark College & Career Academy endeavors to offer an innovative, effective program designed to engage and support at-risk and regular learners to increase the likelihood of high school graduation and college success. The innovation of the OCCA program is multi-fold, including smaller class sizes, 1:1 technology ratio and flipped instruction,, project-based learning, a Montessori-based early childhood program, and early foreign language instruction.

Smaller Class Sizes

Kindergarten class size will be no more than 15. Each grade will add an additional student (grade 1=16, grade 2=17, etc.) capping at no more than 20 for grades 5 and up. At-risk and regular students will enjoy more one-on-one time with their teachers as well as differentiation of curriculum and instruction to meet diverse student needs. Numerous studies have shown that smaller class sizes can significantly affect achievement outcomes, especially among younger and at-risk learners (Achilles, 2012). Innovation. Except for Alternative Learning Environments and special needs classrooms, traditional students can expect to have at least 20 students in elementary classrooms and 30 in secondary. Every OCCA student will enjoy the benefits of smaller class size.

One-to-One Technology Ratio and Flipped Instruction

OCCA will make laptops and notebooks available for checkout to students. They and their parent/guardian will sign a contract agreeing to responsible usage and care for the equipment. The device will be taken home daily for homework. OCCA will partner with Cox Cable to ensure that all families have access to high speed internet service in their home. Cox partners with Connect2Complete to provide high speed internet access to Arkansas students receiving Free and Reduced lunch benefits (<http://www.thecitywire.com/node/28752#.UhwaKmRgar9>).

A primary benefit of 1:1 technology is the ability to personalize instruction, meaning every child can work with curriculum aligned to their own literacy or math level. Digital, interactive curriculum programs, fully aligned with Common Core State Standards, are designed to first assess each child to better determine their course level placement, i.e., advanced students are able to forge ahead without waiting for the rest of the class to catch up (placing them at risk for boredom and disengagement), and struggling students are able to fill in learning gaps rather than falling farther behind as the rest of the class progresses. State-of-the-art, research-based, CCSS-aligned digital curriculum programs, such as Edgenuity and Odysseyware), formatively assess students as they work through the lessons, giving them immediate feedback and alerting the classroom teacher if mini-lessons or small group tutoring are needed for concept mastery. Using data from diagnostic and formative assessments, OCCA teachers will “blend” direct instruction with personalized digital learning to give students the benefits of traditional and 21st century instructional models.

Another powerful benefit of 1:1 technology is the ability to incorporate the “flipped” instructional model. Stanford Medical School and many other colleges and K-12 schools utilize this digitally-based method (Steakley, 2012). OCCA plans to incorporate flipped instruction whereby students use their digital device to watch and/or read an instructional video or graphic rendition of a concept for homework, then return to class the following day ready to participate in activities and projects under their teacher's competent supervision. Essentially, students may view lectures at home and do “homework” at school. With this model, teachers can use precious class time to engage students in effective hands-on and small group learning experiences and projects, reinforcing new vocabulary and concepts introduced in the take-home ODYSSEYWARE or Edgenuity lesson. The classroom teacher becomes a facilitator of Socratic discussions, diverse learning-style delivery methods, and project-based assessments that support and engage at-risk and regular learners, rather than traditional “sage on the stage” style instruction.

ODYSSEYWARE (OW) provides customizable, online courses for grades 3-12, aligned to Common Core State Standards and Arkansas Frameworks. OW offers the following features as described in their white paper (http://www.odysseyware.com/asset/media/pdf/Odysseyware_Course_Outline.pdf):

- OW's new Teacher Authoring Tool takes customization to the next level.
- Easy-to-use technology lets students learn at their own pace; and allows educators to teach in their own style.
- Interesting, engaging and timely - with links to videos, audio files, interactive games and other content to enhance the learning experience.
- Powerful administrative and reporting tools allow educators to complete tasks quickly and easily.
- Also facilitates credit recovery, remediation, dropout prevention and textbook replacement

OW offers a variety of core and elective courses for grades 3-12 as well as a number of CTE courses for grades 9-12.

Edgenuity, another quality digital curriculum, offers many of the same courses as OW, but it also provides Advanced Placement courses, as well as a number of cutting-edge technology courses such as “Green Design and Technology,” “Game Design,” and “Introduction to C++ Programming” (<http://www.edgenuity.com/Curriculum-Research/Course-Search>), ideal skills for STEM projects.

Innovation. A 1:1 device ratio, blended and flipped instruction, and digitally-interactive Arkansas Frameworks and CCSS-aligned software are luxuries that only a few classrooms and schools in the NWA region can boast of. OCCA students will experience the benefits of this top-notch, innovative model.

Project-based Learning

The Buck Institute for Education (2013), a clearinghouse for project-based learning research and a leader in PBL professional development, defines PBL as:

“In Project Based Learning (PBL), students go through an extended process of inquiry in response to a complex question, problem, or challenge. While allowing for some degree of student “voice and choice,” rigorous projects are carefully planned, managed, and assessed to help students learn key academic content, practice 21st Century Skills (such as collaboration, communication & critical thinking), and create high-quality, authentic products & presentations.”(What is PBL, 2013).

Project-based learning will be at the heart of the OCCA instructional model. Meta-analyses of studies of PBL show consistent evidence that PBL instruction is more effective than traditional instruction in long-term memory tests and skill development (Strobel & van Barneveld, 2009). The Buck Institute for Education (BIE) is dedicated to supporting schools in the adoption of the Project-based Learning (PBL) model. OCCA will use BIE as a resource for support materials, rubrics, training, and coaching staff in PBL best practices. OCCA will adopt the “8 Essentials of Project-based Learning” as outlined by Larmer and Mergendoller to inform the development of course projects (http://images.bie.org/uploads/useful_stuff/8_Essentials_article_small_file_size_Oct2012version.pdf). The 8 essential components enumerated by the authors are:

1. Significant content.
2. A Need to Know
3. A Driving Question
4. Student Voice and Choice
5. 21st Century Learning Skills
6. Inquiry and Innovation
7. Feedback and Revision
8. Publicly Presented Product

The OCCA PBL model will emphasize 21st Century skills. A 2013 Gallup study found that students who had learned 21st Century skills in school had significantly higher workplace success. 21st Century skills include: use of technology; knowledge construction; skilled communication; real-world problem solving; self-regulation; collaboration; global awareness; and online collaboration (“21st Century,” 2013).

Real-world problem solving has been identified as a key aspect of the success of STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) education practices. The National Center for the Advancement of StEM Education advocates “real-life” problem-solving as an integral component for getting students “turned on” to inquiry and design (I & D) STEM curriculum (National Center, 2013). Though OCCA will not limit our students and teachers by emphasizing STEM at the expense of literacy and the arts (we prefer the less well-known “STEAM” acronym -adding an “A” for arts), we will rigorously incorporate and integrate STEM learning into our project models in accordance with best practices in STEM instruction.

Innovation. Though PBL is gaining recognition in Arkansas as a powerful instructional model, thanks to the emphasis on “authentic” learning found in the Common Core State Standards, OCCA will be uniquely structured to support PBL learning compared to traditional public schools. Our small class sizes, STEAM skill focus, and personalized instructional model are vital components for ensuring PBL success at all grade levels.

Montessori-based Early Childhood Program

OCCA will adopt a modified version of the Montessori model for its early childhood program. K-2 students will spend a substantial portion of their day in a discovery learning environment with a Montessori-trained instructor. In the Montessori model, children are led by their interests. The classroom environment and materials are carefully chosen and strategically arranged to invite mastery of academic concepts, and the teacher has at the ready a comprehensive menu of games, lessons, and projects to quietly offer students as she travels around the classroom watching for “teachable moments” day after day. Montessori students who start with this method in the preschool years are known to be early readers and masters of mathematical concepts, as demonstrated by research, even when controlled for demographic backgrounds (Lillard, 2006).

Our Montessori-based program will be complemented by CCSS core instruction developed by our K-2

Professional Learning Community. Our K-2 teachers will use an online formative assessment tool such as the STAR Early Literacy assessment program to inform unit planning, and may also use a remedial tool such as the ODYSSEYWARE Common Core Assessment and Remediation Tool (CART) to ensure rigorous alignment with CCSS standards.

Innovation. In Northwest Arkansas, Montessori-based early childhood instruction is rarely available to families who cannot afford private school tuition. This internationally recognized method of instruction will fit well with the OCCA philosophy of project-based learning which requires the creativity and critical thinking skills that Montessori methodology cultivates.

Early Foreign Language Instruction

Early foreign language instruction has been found to have a plethora of benefits to students. According to research conducted by the Connecticut State Department of Education, numerous studies bear out the following benefits. Early foreign language study:

1. Benefits academic progress in other subjects
2. Narrows achievement gaps
3. Benefits basic skills development
4. Benefits higher order, abstract and creative thinking
5. Enriches and enhances cognitive development
6. Enhances a student's sense of achievement
7. Helps students score higher on standardized tests
8. Promotes cultural awareness and competency
9. Improves chances of college acceptance, achievement and attainment
10. Enhances career opportunities
11. Benefits understanding and security in community and society

At OCCA, foreign language instruction will start at the Kindergarten level. Because of our extended school day, 30 minutes of instruction per day can be devoted to foreign language acquisition. Parents may choose to enroll their student in Spanish or Chinese, two languages that can increase employability in our global economy.

Students who come to school with bilingual skills may elect to study both of their home languages, i.e., Spanish/English, rather than tackle a new language, with the goal of proficiency in reading and writing in both languages. Monolingual children will start learning basic conversational skills in a second language their first years, then progress toward written literacy over a period of years. Students identified as gifted and talented in language acquisition may elect to study a third language during before- or after-school program time.

At the beginner level, OCCA monolingual teachers will study foreign languages with their students using digital curriculum while integrating opportunities to practice conversation with native speakers. At intermediate and advanced levels of language acquisition, students will learn from native speakers and/or professional foreign language teachers.

Innovation. Early foreign language instruction is only offered in private elementary schools in Northwest Arkansas. OCCA students will be a step ahead of their NWA peers, enjoying a sense of pride in their achievement, increased cultural awareness, greater employability, and enriched cognitive development.

5. Describe the educational program to be offered by the charter school.

Applicant Response:

Philosophy of Learning

The Ozark College & Career Academy philosophy of learning starts with the premise that the best kind of learning is natural and pleasurable. But traditional public schools, being built on a factory production model, often produce an unnatural and unenjoyable classroom environment that slows the learning process for some students. We adhere to the idea that each child possesses unique, innate intelligences that, when discovered and developed, can provide them with multiple cognitive “hooks” on which to hang all types of learning, helping them to experience pleasure in learning concepts and facts that might otherwise seem foreign. The child who demonstrates giftedness in music, whose talent is “discovered” by a teacher and is taught an instrument or singing at an early age, begins thinking in terms of patterns that make math concepts accessible to him. The child who is fascinated by animals finds delight in writing elaborate stories about her pets, despite her deficiencies in spelling. The boy who seems to like nothing other than collecting rocks on the playground becomes the class scientist when a teacher shows him that rocks have names and can be classified according to their geologic characteristics.

Psychologists refer to this type of learning, this state wherein humans enjoy the task in front of them in a way that causes them to lose themselves in the doing and extend their cognitive reach, as “flow” (Csikszentmihalyi, 1997). Flow has been defined as the pleasure that comes when skills match challenges, and work is neither too easy (boring) nor too difficult (frustrating). A similar psychological concept is Vygotsky's “ZPD,” or “Zone of Proximal Development” (1935). Both concepts allude to two of the biggest problems that educators grapple with daily: the bored, under-stimulated student; and the frustrated, struggling student. John Dewey had another way of describing the observed phenomena. A student who was enjoying his lesson but didn't see any real value to it, was said to be “fooling.” The student who saw value in a lesson, but did not enjoy it, was experiencing “drudgery” (Dewey, [1910] 1997). Maria Montessori referred to the ideal state of enjoying learning for its own sake as “normalization.” The teacher's job is to find the “sweet spot” for his students, that state that is most healthy and “normal,” the place where they are intrinsically motivated to do serious work.

The traditional public school teacher is pulled apart by two unhappy groups of students, trying to teach, as she has been trained, one concept to many students at once, some of whom are already masters of the concept and therefore bored or unchallenged, and some of whom are confused, lacking the knowledge and understanding prerequisite to the new learning. Only the third in the middle, the middle of the bell curve, are in “the zone.” Whether the middle group of students is enjoying “flow” or “normalization” is nebulous in such a haphazard environment. More likely they are distracted by their unhappy peers on either side of them.

No two persons are exactly alike in their interests. And yet traditional schools ask teachers to teach every student the same way. Teachers spend their days doling out work for students and hoping they will complete the work without resistance. If students are especially difficult to motivate, the school day becomes a 6 or 7 hour cycle of rewards and punishments, a carrot at the front and a stick at the rear. Therefore, OCCA is dedicated to creating a culture and community that will build intrinsic motivation in all learners by appealing to their innate intelligences and interests at each level of development by focusing on individual and small group learning at least 90% of the school day. At all developmental levels, including adult, students are drawn to that which captures their imagination either by its design, its actions, its effect, its meaning, or its pleasure.

As a brand new charter school, we can expect that many of the students that come through our doors will arrive with entrenched adaptive behaviors and negative attitudes born of the expectation that all learning is either boring or frustrating, and our teachers may find themselves resorting to many of the same prods and tokens that their traditional counterparts resort to in order to raise achievement. But as the school year goes by, and as our student body becomes more our own with each passing year (i.e., raised in our school from an early age), we will keep the goal in front of us: to build intrinsic motivation in our students by giving them opportunities to lead, to follow their interests, to make choices, and to discover their own talents. By providing all types of high quality and enriching materials, equipment, and experiences and focusing on student-centered models designed to encourage intrinsic motivation, we expect to soon find that our students are leading us as much or more than we are leading them in their learning.

OCCA teachers will be dedicated to helping each student discover their unique set of intelligences and interests, then customizing their learning program to increase the experience of “flow” in the classroom.

Intrinsic Motivation, “Flow,” and Montessori

When Csikszentmihalyi, the author of the “flow” concept, learned of Maria Montessori's philosophy of education and her belief that children must achieve “normalization” before they can become great learners, he knew he had found a kindred spirit, and became a proponent of her work. Montessori's “normalization,” like flow, is marked by intense concentration, intrinsic motivation to continue an activity, to learn independently for the pure pleasure of it. Montessori had developed her ideas through working with mentally disabled children in Italy at the turn of the twentieth century. She later cultivated and polished those ideas with the impoverished children of factory workers in Rome. She discovered that by manipulating their environment in such a way that they could “discover” a variety of learning experiences independently -the teacher acting as facilitator, not dictator -that the children actually developed intrinsic motivation to learn, becoming proficient in reading and math at very young ages. The achievements of her students drew the attention of the world, and still do to this day.

The Montessori Method is recognized internationally as a premier teaching method. In the U.S. alone, there are currently over 5,000 Montessori schools flourishing, most of them supported by well-heeled private-pay families. Recent research continues to bear out the notable value of a Montessori education (Lillard, 2006; Rathunde & Csikszentmihalyi, 2005). However, mainstream educators prefer not to notice, choosing to continue filling a bottomless toolbox of strategies in hopes of finding the right combination of tools that will repair the problem of disengaged students without addressing the limitations of the factory school model itself.

OCCA K-2 students will enjoy the benefits of a Montessori-based curriculum, designed to cultivate creativity, higher order thinking, and intrinsic motivation that will prepare them for success throughout their school career and beyond.

Project-based Learning

With PBL, students don't just learn about a subject, they put knowledge and skills to work to produce high quality projects that benefit the school and community. Lesson-planning, from a teacher's perspective, could follow the outline below to exploit the benefits of PBL:

1. What is the central question, and what are the CCSS standards, my students will be learning?
2. What are my students' interests, multiple intelligences, knowledge, and ability levels currently, and what type of project would appeal to and enrich those?
3. How can I help my student(s) design a project with a real audience and purpose that will allow students authentic, hands-on experience with the topic of learning to increase their engagement and thence their understanding?
4. How might we benefit our school, our families, or our community with this project?
5. Which “employability soft skills” can we integrate into this project?
6. Which STEAM skills and knowledge can we integrate into this project?
7. Which literacy skills can we integrate into this project?

Projects will be scored with rubrics aligned to Common Core State Standards, Arkansas Frameworks, qualitative and quantitative attributes. The Buck Institute of Education (BIE) provides a variety of PBL rubrics that may be modified to meet the individual needs of OCCA students.

Project-based learning will allow every OCCA student to experience the satisfaction of completing work that is meaningful to themselves and useful to others.

K-12 Model

McEntire (2002) made the following observations about school transitions found in current, traditional school models:

The division of elementary schools into configurations that include fewer grades requires that students make several transitions from one school to another. Researchers note that transitions can be stressful for students:

a. Alsbaugh (1999) found a significant achievement loss during each transition year. He also found that some students regain what is lost in the following year, but it would seem that students who make fewer transitions need fewer years to make up for achievement losses caused by transitions.

b. Another study found that each time students switched schools, their feelings of anonymity increased. Researchers who found that sixth-grade students in both elementary and combination K-12 schools outperformed students in middle schools or junior high schools considered the number of transitions a significant factor. This study considered 8 schools with 7 different grade spans with student populations of 82 to 1,200. The schools were located in both urban and rural settings in 5 northwest states. The number of grades in the schools ranged from 1 to 11 (Paglin & Fager, 1997).

c. Another research study found that girls in early adolescence suffered from a drop in self-esteem, extracurricular participation, and leadership behaviors when they made the transition into middle school or junior high, but not if they remained in an elementary school setting. This study found that the effects of this transition lingered throughout the school years. For boys, the study found similar negative effects in extracurricular participation and grades, but not in self-esteem, when they made the transition into middle school or junior high. The authors concluded that the relatively protected elementary school setting made the entry into adolescence less stressful for both boys and girls. The students who had not had the stress of the earlier transition seemed to cope better with the transition into high school than did other students (Simmons & Blyth, 1987).

d. Franklin and Glascock (1996) found that sixth-grade boys experienced more suspensions in middle schools or junior high schools than in elementary schools, possibly related to the effects of the transition, the school organization, or school size. This study was based on information gathered from all Louisiana public schools during the 1992-1993 school year.

For these reasons and more, Ozark College & Career Academy has adopted a K-12 model. Not only will our students benefit from fewer transitions imposed by traditional districts, but the impact of frequent family moves will be decreased for highly-mobile students. The Center for Housing Policy found that low income families move more frequently, and household moves result in significant negative effects on student achievement (Cohen & Wardrip, 2011). Highly-mobile families who enroll their children at OCCA may benefit with higher achievement through school location stability. As long as they stay in the Northwest Arkansas area, their children will not have to suffer the setbacks of changing schools.

A K-12 model will benefit all OCCA students by surrounding them with adults who can follow their development and maintain supportive relationships through several stages, as well as allowing them to avoid frequent transitions that may impede learning due to social adjustment stress.

School Uniforms

OCCA will adopt a school uniform policy under the advisement of the Community Advisory Board. The goals of the policy will be as follows:

- To increase safety through easy identification of students on the school campus.

- To increase safety by eliminating gang dress or promotion of inappropriate behaviors.
- To level the playing field among economically diverse students.
- To practice professionalism in anticipation of the workplace.
- To build a sense of school identity and pride.
- To reduce clothing costs for families.

Extended Day, Extended Calendar

Marcotte and Hansen (2010) found that, through controlled experiments based on numbers of snow days (a random variable), it can be asserted with certainty that additional instructional days increases school achievement. Other studies have shown similar results in recent years, emphasizing that instructional quality must accompany quantity.

In a recent study, researchers found that ExpandEd Schools (an expanded school day model with schools in New York, Baltimore, and New Orleans) showed significant achievement gains in math proficiency, school attendance, safety, communication, student engagement, and academic expectations. ExpandEd Schools were found to have an enriched curriculum, and middle school students who felt supported and challenged. The OCCA model is very similar to ExpandEd in that the extended day will not just increase instructional time in core competencies, but expand opportunities for enrichment in the arts, foreign language, and STEM projects that promise to engage students and increase success (<http://www.expandedschools.org/sites/default/files/expanded-year-one-report.pdf>).

OCCA students will benefit from increased instructional time in core coursework as well as enrichment activities designed to increase student engagement. High school students may use the additional time for job shadowing, internships, and other school-to-work programs and activities.

School-wide Discipline Model

OCCA will not leave the benefits of good classroom management to chance. We will offer ongoing staff development in two recognized classroom management models: Harry Wong's "Effective Teacher" program, including Teacher Induction training and the text, The First Days of School. Through the effective use of Wong's classic "procedures and professionalism," OCCA will build a culture of high expectations for independent learners in a positive environment.

OCCA will also implement Fay and Cline's, "Love and Logic" model. "Love and Logic® provides skills that help teachers keep control of their classrooms, have fewer detention referrals, and earn lifelong respect from their students" (www.loveandlogic.com). This program gives teachers skills in responding to and controlling difficult to manage behaviors. Problem students will not be allowed to "take over" the classroom using destructive or distracting language and behavior, but under the guidance of our teachers and administrators, they will learn positive language and behaviors to increase classroom success.

OCCA teachers will learn classroom management skills that will increase their confidence and student achievement through proven procedural strategies and professional behaviors. OCCA students will benefit from the Love & Logic model as positive behaviors are reinforced and negative behaviors are extinguished through strategic staff approaches and responses built on reasoning and compassion.

Quality Assurance through Additional Accreditation

Ozark College & Career Academy adheres to the understanding that a quality school program can only be ensured through compliance with rigorous organizational standards and cooperation with a programmatic external evaluation process. AdvancEd accreditation tells parents, communities, other K-12 schools, colleges, and postsecondary institutions that diplomas and transcripts issued by a school are legitimate and worthy of transfer and/or acceptance. Though the accreditation process can be a lengthy and challenging one for staff, the benefits to students are well worth the effort.

OCCA will prepare for AdvancEd accreditation by submitting a Letter of Intent to the accrediting agency before opening and commencing the rigorous evaluation process according to the time frame provided by the accreditor.

6. 7. Describe the process that will be used to develop and align the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education.

Applicant Response:

The Ozark College & Career Academy Program Director will be responsible for instructional leadership of the faculty including curriculum development and alignment. The Director will take the following steps to ensure alignment with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards:

1. The Director will research high quality digital curriculum materials to find interactive textbooks and software that align with the Frameworks and CCSS for each grade level and subject area for purchase by OCCA.
2. The Director will facilitate work sessions with the faculty Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) to map Frameworks and CCSS into quarterly units, then work across the curriculum and in multi-grade teams to design learning projects that integrate content, skills, technology, and real-world problem-solving. A typical mapping session might include:
 - Cut hard copies of the Frameworks and CCSS into strips. Match them to narrow the number of categories by grade level.
 - Sort the matched strips by key concepts, themes, and content to be addressed each quarter at each grade level and for each core content area.
 - Brainstorm thematic and targeted project ideas related to concepts/theme/content for the school, the grade range, classes, and individuals.
 - Build a curriculum map including unit titles, framework and CC standards addressed, formative and summative assessments, links to scoring rubrics. Post on school website.
 - Assist students in selecting projects that are highly engaging and offer potential for integrating Framework and CCSS skills and content knowledge. Projects may link to school-wide themes. For example, if the school adopted the theme of "Island Paradise" for first quarter of the school year, the following projects might be incorporated:
 - i. Kindergarteners adopt tropical fish species, create fish mobiles and art, do a presentation on their adopted fish, sing famous songs about fish, care for a class pet fish, write stories about fish, and transform a corner of their classroom into a paper "aquarium" suitable for tropical fish habitat. Field trip to a fish store or aquarium. Integrate scientific concepts including living vs. non-living, data collection, species classification (sorting). Integrate math and literacy including counting, colors, letter/sound recognition, vocabulary, etc.
 - ii. First graders follow suit with birds. Invite a guest speaker to bring tropical birds, or take a field trip to a bird sanctuary. Field trip to an aviary.
 - iii. Second graders follow suit with reptiles. Guest speaker from University brings in snakes.
 - iv. Upper grades produce a play such as a middle school version of Shakespeare's "The Tempest," study island formation and volcanology, track hurricanes in the Pacific Island region, and explore island cultures including our own Marshall Islander history here in Springdale
 - v. Secondary students contribute by using computer programming skills to design Island Mission video games integrating geometry from their own curriculum and math facts for the younger students, then produce videos documenting the immigration stories of Marshall Islanders who came to live in Springdale.
 - vi. Parent Night/Open House: Parents and community guests are greeted with leis and island food, tour the transformed classrooms, listen to songs sung by the younger students and watch the play and documentaries by the older students.
3. Interactive, digital curriculum units and assessments that teach, reinforce, remediate, and enrich CCSS and Frameworks learning objectives are identified and aligned into custom-built courses.
4. Direct instruction lessons are blended where needed to address neglected or weakly-presented concepts.
5. Finally, differentiation considerations are addressed. What support resources can be prepared for students who struggle? What enrichment activities and accelerated texts can be offered to gifted students?

8. Describe the manner in which the school will make provisions for the following student services, even in those areas for which a waiver is requested:

A) Guidance program;

Applicant Response:

A waiver is requested. The first year, the Program Director and Dean of Students will work together to assign students to classes, provide social skills and character education activities, and offer college and career education to grades 1-8. If student personal crises arise during the school day, the student will be referred to the Dean of Students for a listening ear and possible intervention. Interventions may include referral to a social service agency or health professional, a parent meeting, conflict resolution between students, or referral to the Director for more serious or chronic problems. The Program Director will handle student schedules and course requests. The second year of school, a .5 Counselor will be hired. In addition to the duties the Director and Dean handled the first year, the Counselor's duties will also include: preparation and upkeep of Graduation Plans and transcripts and maintenance of Smart Core forms.

B) Health services;

Applicant Response:

In accordance with Arkansas rules, OCCA will employ a .25 FTE nurse for the first two years. The position will grow to .5 as the school grows. The nurse will come at midday to dispense medications, maintain health records, and manage student health cases in accordance with the Arkansas School Nurse's Association Practice Guidelines. Necessary equipment and supplies will be purchased.

C) Media center;

Applicant Response:

A waiver is requested for media center requirements. However, students will have access to quality media materials via classroom libraries which will be stocked at the beginning of the school year. Also, every student will have a digital notebook or laptop for access to online library holdings through the local public and state library systems. Professional development will be offered throughout the year to train teachers to access and utilize technology and digital and print resources.

D) Special education;

Applicant Response:

A .5 special education certified teacher will be on staff. The SPED teacher will be responsible for writing and maintaining student Individual Education Programs and ensuring that accommodation and modification requirements specific to each IEP are met. The SPED teacher will also work individually and in groups with students as required by their IEPs. The SPED teacher will also schedule and facilitate required parent and staff meetings in keeping with federal law. Health professional evaluations, therapies, and special equipment will be provided as required by the IEP or specified by referral in accordance with IDEA. Facility and transportation services will meet ADA requirements for special needs students.

E) Transportation;

Applicant Response:

OCCA will purchase and staff two school buses. Routes will run before and after school, and during field trips. All students will be encouraged to enroll in and attend a high quality before and after school program, three of which will be available in close proximity to our school, one of which is owned and operated by our sponsoring organization, Ozark Education, Inc. This will cut down on transportation needs as parents may drop off and pick up students according to their family schedule, saving fuel and travel time. Older students will also have the option of taking the city bus, which comes to our front door hourly. OCCA will not pay for vouchers before or after school, but parents may choose to pay for this option to cut student travel time. Bus vouchers may also be used to transport older students to concurrent credit programs and internships, at OCCA expense. Transportation services will comply with all government regulations and ADA specifications.

F) Alternative education, including Alternative Learning Environments;

Applicant Response:

A waiver is requested. OCCA will provide most of the same services offered by ALEs in Arkansas, including reduced class sizes, social service referrals, individualized instruction, and career guidance. OCCA will look to the National Association of Alternative Educators' "Exemplary Practices for Alternative Educators" handbook for guidance in building a quality program.

G) English Language Learner (ELL) instruction

Applicant Response:

One ELL-certified teacher will be paid a stipend to manage state ELL requirements including testing and modifications, as our ELL Director. All OCCA teachers will be trained in best practices and effective strategies for supporting EL learners. OCCA will comply with all state and federal regulations for serving second language learners. A translator will be provided for non-English speaking students and parents as needed. Hiring preference will be given to ELL-certified and bilingual teachers and staff.

H) Gifted and Talented Program.

Applicant Response:

A waiver is requested. OCCA is dedicated to differentiating instruction for all students, including Gifted and Talented. Our commitment to differentiated instruction will allow GT students to work at a pace that is satisfying to them, increasing engagement and achievement. All OCCA teachers will be trained in best practices and effective strategies for supporting GT learners. Project-based instruction will offer GT students multiple opportunities to polish their skills and display their talents throughout the school year.

9. Describe the geographical area to be served by the charter. List all school districts within the geographical area likely to be affected by the open-enrollment public charter school.

Applicant Response:

OCCA will be located within the city limits of Springdale, Arkansas, in Benton and Washington Counties, and will be located within the boundaries of the Springdale School District. It is anticipated that students will enroll in OCCA from Springdale School District, Fayetteville School District, Bentonville School District, Rogers School District, Gentry School District, Siloam Springs School District, Pea Ridge School District, Huntsville School District, and Greenland School District. According to the 2012-2013 enrollment information housed on the Department of Education Data Center's website, Springdale School District contained 20,141 students, Fayetteville School District contained 9,142 students, Bentonville School District contained 14,880 students, Rogers School District contained 14,452 students, Gentry School District contained 1,398 students, Siloam Springs School District contained 3,959 students, Pea Ridge School District contained 1,685 students, Huntsville School District contained 2,267 students, and Greenland School District contained 776 students. In year one, with Grades K-2 and 6-8 open and 108 students anticipated, approximately 60 students are anticipated to come from the Springdale School District, approximately 12 from the Fayetteville School District, approximately 12 from the Bentonville School District, approximately 12 from the Rogers School District, and approximately 12 students from the other listed school districts combined. When the school has its entire grade span of Grades K-12 in place, and an enrollment cap of 250 students, approximately 130 students are anticipated to come from the Springdale School District, approximately 30 students from the Fayetteville School District, approximately 30 students from the Bentonville School District, approximately 30 students from the Rogers School District, and approximately 30 students from the other listed school districts combined.

10. Describe the plan for the school officials to provide an annual report to parents, the community, and the authorizer that demonstrates the progress made by the charter school during any previous academic year in meeting its academic performance objectives. (See ADE Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts.)

Applicant Response:

Ozark College & Career Academy will comply with annual progress report requirements as enumerated in the Standards for Accreditation, Standard II, Goals and Administration of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts, Section 7.02.

We will begin by filing an Arkansas Consolidated School Improvement Plan (ACSIP) with the Department of Education annually, under the advisement of our stakeholders including our PLC committees, Community Advisory Board, Leadership team, and Student Government. Our goals will be aligned with both state and national education goals.

We will provide and publish an annual report on progress toward our academic performance objectives in a newspaper in general circulation, namely Northwest Arkansas News, detailing our progress toward accomplishing program goals, accreditation standards, and proposals to correct deficiencies. Evidence of our progress will include state and national standards test results, attendance data, discipline data, grade inflation, if any, ACT scores, college acceptance and remediation rates, and graduation rate. We will make copies of the report available on our website, by email to our parents and faculty, in our school lobby, and at Community Advisory Board meetings. Our authorizer will also receive a copy of our report as required.

Once yearly we will hold a public meeting explaining our policies, programs, and goals, as well as reporting on our progress, achievement, and deficiencies, to the community. The community will have the opportunity to ask questions and make suggestions.

11. Describe the enrollment criteria and student admission, recruitment and selection processes for the proposed public charter school.

Applicant Response:

In accordance with state and federal law, Ozark College & Career Academy will not deny enrollment to any age-eligible student based on gender, national origin, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, academic, or athletic eligibility. Nor will OCCA discriminate against students with special education, gifted and talented, or English Language Learner needs. OCCA will not show preference to students based on socioeconomic status.

In the event that OCCA receives applications from more eligible, first-time enrollment students than it is able to accept by our deadline for the receipt of applications for the next school year, then we will employ a random, anonymous lottery process to ensure that all new applicants have an equal chance for admission. The lottery proceedings will occur at the Ozark College & Career Academy campus, under the supervision of an objective third party from the University of Arkansas Department of Education Reform which has worked with other Arkansas charter schools to ensure a systematic (in the event that the said entity is not available, another third-party entity will be recruited to oversee the event), unbiased lottery process. A waiting list of non-selected applicants will be kept until the next random, anonymous lottery process.

Exceptions to the lottery process, per ADE Public Charter Law, include: children of founding members (not to exceed 10% of the total number of enrollees) and siblings of students currently enrolled;

Prior to the lottery process event, applicants will be notified via postcard, email, and the OCCA website of the time and place of the event. The ADE Public Charter School department will be notified of the event by email as well.

Check which of the following enrollment preferences, as permissible in Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-306(14)(C), would be allowed at the charter school.

- Children of founding members of the charter school
- Siblings of enrolled students
- No enrollment preferences (No other boxes may be checked in order to select this option.)

It is affirmed that a random, anonymous student selection method will be utilized in the event that more students apply for admission to the open-enrollment public charter school than can be accommodated under the terms of the charter, except as allowed for in Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-306(14)(C).

- Yes
- No

If it is believed that the use of a weighted lottery is required by federal court or administrative order, explain and furnish a copy of the order.

Applicant Response:

A weighted lottery has not been required in this school district at this time.

12. Summarize the job descriptions of the school director and other key personnel. Applicant Response:

Christine Silano, Executive Director of Ozark Education, Inc., has yet to receive a salary, however, in the event that she will likely be remunerated in the future, she serves as a non-voting member of the Temporary Governing Board to minimize conflict of interest.

Dr. Silano is employer to Amy Chiodo, a part-time employee of OEI. Originally a founding board member who has since stepped down, Ms. Chiodo plays a valuable role in building a foundation of high quality instruction in our organization. She is one of the part-time teachers in OEI Summer Classes, Homeschool Tuesdays, and After-School program, for a total of approximately five hours per week teaching time, for which she is paid $20 per hour. In addition, Ms. Chiodo provides administrative assistance to Dr. Silano through curriculum software product evaluation and testing, publicity and marketing, student recruiting, curriculum development, and social media, for which she receives no remuneration. Ms. Chiodo also assists in developing our Early Childhood Program through attending Montessori training and Early Childhood literacy coursework. The free training is a benefit to her and builds her capacity to serve as the Director of our Early Childhood program, which OEI intends to open in the summer of 2014. She receives no additional pay for attending the classes. As a service to the OEI Board of Directors, Ms. Chiodo records meeting minutes and passes them to our Board Secretary for archival. As a founding member of the organization, Ms. Chiodo may opt to benefit from the open enrollment lottery waiver option afforded in Arkansas code, A.C.A. § 6.07.1.14.2.1 for her children.

Dr. Silano is also employer to Arturo Garcia, part-time Hispanic Outreach Coordinator of Ozark Education. His job is to assist with building relationships with Hispanic community leaders and parents, represent OEI on Hispanic media venues, and translate materials as needed. He is paid an hourly wage for his services. He is not a member of the OEI board. It is possible that in the future Mr. Garcia will opt to benefit from the open enrollment lottery waiver option afforded to founding members in Arkansas code, A.C.A. § 6.07.1.14.2.1 for his children.

Explain the procedures to be followed if a conflict of interest is identified. The procedures must ensure that all actions are in the best interest of the school and the students at the school.

Applicant Response:

CONFLICT OF INTEREST PROCEDURES

The following action will be taken in the event a Conflict of Interest (COI) is identified within the OCCA organization:

If a COI is either reported or discovered, one of the following consequences may occur at Board discretion:

1. In the event that a board member is discovered to have a conflict of interest and the COI is determined to be of no harm to students or the organization, the COI situation may be permitted and the employee, volunteer, or board member will be asked to step out of the room for discussion and voting on matters of benefit to the individual or individual's family or business; OR,
2. In the event that a board member is discovered to have a conflict of interest and the COI is determined to be potentially or actually harmful to students or the organization, the COI situation will be terminated and the employee, volunteer, or board member may be reprimanded or disciplined if COI action is deemed willful, knowing, or negligent; OR,
3. In the event that a board member is discovered to have a conflict of interest and the COI is determined to be potentially or actually harmful to students or the organization, the COI situation will be terminated and the employee, volunteer, or board member may be asked to resign or be dismissed.

To discourage potential Conflict of Interest activity, the Ozark Education, Inc., organization and its subsidiaries have adopted the following Conflict of Interest Policy to be signed by board members, employees, and volunteers:

Conflict of Interest Policy

The standard of behavior at Ozark Education, Inc., and its subsidiaries including Ozark College & Career Academy is that all staff, volunteers, and board members scrupulously avoid conflicts of interest between the interests of Ozark Education, Inc., and its subsidiaries, on one hand, and personal, professional, and business interests on the other. This includes avoiding potential and actual conflicts of interest, as well as perceptions of conflicts of interest.

I understand that the purposes of this policy are to protect the integrity of the Ozark Education, Inc., and its subsidiaries decision-making process, to enable our constituencies to have confidence in our integrity, and to protect the integrity and reputations of volunteers, staff and board members. Upon or before election, hiring or appointment, I will make a full, written disclosure of interests, relationships, and holdings that could potentially result in a conflict of interest. This written disclosure will be kept on file and I will update it as appropriate. In the course of meetings or activities, I will disclose any interests in a transaction or decision where I (including my business or other nonprofit affiliations), my family and/or my significant other, employer, or close associates will receive a benefit or gain. After disclosure, I understand that I will be asked to leave the room for the discussion and will not be permitted to vote on the question. I understand that this policy is meant to supplement good judgment, and I will respect its spirit as well as its wording.

Another stopgap measure to prevent Conflict of Interest discrepancies is found in the Ozark Education, Inc., bylaws below:

ARTICLE X. Board Members Conflicts of Interest.

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt, non-profit corporation's (Ozark Education, Inc.) interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Corporation or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 3. Procedures.

1. Duty to Disclose In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.
2.  - d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

Section 4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy.

- a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

- a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
- b. Has read and understands the policy,
- c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
- d. Understands the Corporation is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Section 8. Periodic Reviews. To ensure the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- b. 18. Describe the manner in which the school will make provisions for food services. State whether the proposed charter school will apply to participate in the federal National School Lunch program or other federal nutrition programs.

Applicant Response:

Ozark College & Career Academy will apply to participate in the federal Child Nutrition Program (CNP), including the School Breakfast Program and the National School Lunch Program (NSLP). Following federal contract procurement guidelines, it is the intention of OCCA to contract with EasyDoesIt, a local caterer, to provide food service for school meals. EasyDoesIt operates catering services from a kitchen at the Jones Center, right on our campus, eliminating food delivery expense and ensuring fresh, hot food for our students. All meals and food preparation will meet NSLP and United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) standards. Additionally, the EasyDoesIt kitchen will work in compliance with local, state, and national health and nutrition guidelines.

Meal prices will be kept affordable, commensurate with those in the local school district. OCCA will ensure equal treatment of those who qualify for free and reduced price meals. No one will be discriminated against based on race, gender, age, national origin, or disability. Upon receiving appropriate training, OCCA staff may assist with serving food at meal times.

The Dean of Students, with the assistance of the Program Director and Administrative Assistant, will supervise food service as part of his/her assigned duties. School breakfast will be served in the classrooms, and lunch will be served in the Jones Center food court, in an area specifically designated for OCCA students.

19. Describe how the parents or guardians of the enrolled students and other members of the community will be involved with the school to positively impact the charter school's educational programs.

Applicant Response:

OCCA parents will have extensive opportunities for involvement with their children's education. Epstein's typology of parent involvement (2001) outlines six types of involvement that OCCA will provide and support in the following ways:

1. Family obligation to provide the child's basic needs of health and safety. OCCA will establish a network of social service relationships and partnerships to refer families who need assistance with food, shelter, clothing, and health services.
2. School obligation to communicate with families. OCCA will employ a variety of communication tools including monthly paper and electronic newsletters, teacher blogs and weekly memos, automated and direct phone calls, parent access to online grade books, texting and/or email of daily grades, parent conferences, and an open door administrative policy.
3. Involvement at school. Parents and community will have extensive opportunities to participate and volunteer, including serving on the Community Advisory Board, attending music programs, science fairs, project presentations, field trips, athletic events, English and foreign language classes, Homeroom Moms, Watchdog Dads, and parenting workshops.
4. Involvement at home. OCCA parents will be expected to spend a minimum of 10 minutes per night per grade level monitoring their child's homework. Homework will include read aloud time for younger children, independent reading for older children, and instructional videos (flipped learning) for all students. Parents will not be required to sign a homework agreement, but families with difficulty assisting with homework will be encouraged to enroll their child in one of our partner after-school programs where their child will receive help with homework completion.
5. Involvement in governance. OCCA parents may volunteer to serve on the Community Advisory Board and/or a subcommittee to have a voice in school decision-making. The Community Advisory Board provides parents and guardians the opportunity to ask questions, voice concerns, contribute ideas, and advocate for their children in a supportive group forum.
6. Collaboration with community organizations. OCCA will actively participate in the life of the community by soliciting mentors, partnering with local businesses and non-profits, and welcoming volunteers. For example, at the primary level, students may partner with the local historical society to collect Story Corps stories from an older relative using their digital notebooks, documenting a story about their history in Northwest Arkansas, then setting up a gallery display with transcribed quotations and photos. At the secondary level, a local restaurant may sponsor students attending concurrent credit classes at a local culinary school. The students may be invited to job shadow chefs in the restaurant. The restaurant owner may come to the school and talk to the students about industry career paths. The restaurant may sponsor a fund-raiser where students help prepare and serve one evening at the restaurant, and a portion of the proceeds go toward helping OCCA students pay for their food preparation knives. A student may job shadow a restaurant manager.

20. List the provisions of Title 6 of the Arkansas Code Annotated (Education Code), State Board of Education rules, and sections of the Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts from which the public charter school seeks to be exempted in order to meet the goals of the school. 21. Describe the potential impact of the proposed public charter school on the efforts of affected public school district(s) to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.

Applicant Response:

Ozark College & Career Academy (OCCA) proposes to locate its open-enrollment public charter school within the boundaries of the Springdale School District, and as an open-enrollment public charter school unconfined by district boundaries, expects to obtain the majority of its students from within the boundaries of the Springdale, Fayetteville, Bentonville, and Rogers School Districts. Besides the Springdale, Fayetteville, Bentonville and Rogers School Districts, the Bentonville School District is also contiguous or in close proximity to the Siloam Springs, Gentry, Greenland, Huntsville and Pea Ridge School Districts; OCCA may also receive some students from these districts as well.

In carefully reviewing the potential impact that OCCA would have upon the efforts of the surrounding school districts to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools, the applicant finds that neither the Springdale School District nor any of its contiguous or neighboring school districts are currently subject to, or have ever been subject to, any court orders or judicial decrees concerning the desegregation of its schools. As an open-enrollment public charter school, OCCA must be race-neutral and non-discriminatory in its student selection and admission processes, and its operation will not serve to hamper, delay, or in any manner negatively affects the desegregation efforts of any public school district or districts within the state.

22. Identify the two or three key individuals responsible for this application. Discuss the experience and qualifications of each. Explain what the founders are doing or will do to ensure the success of the charter school when others are in leadership roles.

Applicant Response:

In preparing this application, Dr. Silano has worked with the Board of Ozark Education, Inc., to ensure the financial stability of the organization by incorporating internal controls to ensure fiscal accountability and sound management for future OCCA administrators and board members. Part IX. Financial Data

The instructions at the top of Part IX on page 9 of Form 1023 are now as follows. For purposes of this schedule, years in existence refer to completed tax years.

1. If in existence less than 5 years, complete the statement for each year in existence and provide projections of your likely revenues and expenses based on a reasonable and good faith estimate of your future finances for a total of:
 - a. Three years of financial information if you have not completed one tax year, or
 - b. Four years of financial information if you have completed one tax year.

2. If in existence 5 or more years, complete the schedule for the most recent 5 tax years. You will need to provide a separate statement that includes information about the most recent 5 tax years because the data table in Part IX has not been updated to provide for a 5th year.

Part X. Public Charity Status

Do not complete line 6a on page 11 of Form 1023, and do not sign the form under the heading “Consent Fixing Period of Limitations Upon Assessment of Tax Under Section 4940 of the Internal Revenue Code.”

Only complete line 6b and line 7 on page 11 of Form 1023, if in existence 5 or more tax years.

Part XI. Increase in User Fees

User fee increases are effective for all applications post marked after January 3, 2010.

Finally, you can also call 1-877-829-5500.

Application for reinstatement and retroactive reinstatement. After your organization’s tax-exempt status was automatically revoked for failing to file a return or notice for three consecutive years, your organization must apply to have its tax-exempt status reinstated. You must file a Form 1023 if applying under section 501(c)(3) or Form 1024 if applying under a different Code section, pay the appropriate user fee, and write “Automatically Revoked” at the top of your application and the mailing envelope. If approved, the date of reinstatement will be the date of the application. See Notice 2011-44, 2011-25 I.R.B. 883, at http://www.irs.gov/irb/2011-25_IRB/ar10.html, for details.

Smaller organizations — defined as having annual gross receipts of $50,000 or less, in its most recently completed tax year — that have lost their tax-exempt status because of failure to file a required electronic notice (Form 990-N e-Postcard) may be eligible for transitional relief, including retroactive reinstatement and a reduced user fee of $100. Changes for the Instructions for Form 1023

- Change to Part III. Required Provisions in Your Organizing Documents
- Clarification to Appendix A. Sample Conflict of Interest Policy

Changes to Instructions for Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (Rev. June 2006)

Part III. Required Provisions in Your Organizing Document

Changes are necessary to comply with Rev. Proc. 82-2, 1982-1 C.B. 367, to incorporate the state of New York as jurisdiction that complies with the cy pres doctrine to keep a charitable testamentary trust from failing the requirement for a dissolution clause under Regulation sections 1.501(c)(3)-1(b)(4), when the language of the trust instrument demonstrates a general intent to benefit charity. Therefore, the instructions on page 8, line 2c, after the third paragraph now includes the state of New York in the state listing as an authorized state. Since the state of New York allows testamentary charitable trusts formed in that state and the language in the trust instruments provides for a general intent to benefit charity, you do not need a specific provision in your trust agreement or declaration of trust providing for the distribution of assets upon dissolution.

Appendix A. Sample Conflict of Interest Policy

Appendix A, Sample Conflict of Interest Policy, is only intended to provide an example of a conflict of interest policy for organizations. The sample conflict of interest policy does not prescribe any specific requirements. Therefore, organizations should use a conflict of interest policy that best fits their organization.

Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

- 1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. If you are unsure, see the instructions. Yes No
- b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2.
- 2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI. Yes No
- 3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4. Yes No
- 4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation? Yes No
- 5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.
The organization is not a private foundation because it is:
 - a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A.

- i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status.

6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.

- a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. Form 1023
Ozark Education, Inc.
aka
Ozark College & Career Academy

Part I:

Representative: Hogan Taylor, LLP. Anton (Tony) C. Uth, Jr., Certified Public Accountant

Part IV: Narrative Description of Activities

Past Activities

Ozark Education, Inc., is a newly formed organization. Therefore, past activities are typical of a startup organization, including: seeking seed funding, creating a founding board, purchasing a web domain and opening a bank account, searching for adequate facilities, hiring staff, developing by-laws, purchasing equipment and supplies, and recruiting students.

Present Activities

Presently, Ozark Education, Inc., is offering summer classes to community children grades 5-8. The classes are created based on a project-based learning philosophy that incorporates technology and community partnerships. The instruction also integrates skills that can be taken back to the classroom including literacy, math, and scientific process. Courses currently being offered include "foodology" (gardening + biology + culinary), video production, and computer game design.

The courses are being housed at two non-profit community centers in two adjacent townships. The Springdale courses are being held at the Jones Center for Families. Ozark Education, Inc. pays rent for classroom space at this location, and is advertising the classes on their website, on fliers at the location, and through marketing at different locations throughout the community. The courses will run for two four-week sessions, at two classes per week. Families who are able to afford it will pay $90 per session, per course. Those who are not able must document need for a scholarship. Scholarships will not be limited, but no more than 15 students per class may enroll.

The Fayetteville courses are being offered at Lifesource, International. Lifesource offers free summer daycare and youth camp to its low income clients. Ozark Education, Inc., will be coming in to teach those students at no charge. The courses are the same as those above, but the sessions run 3 1/2 weeks each instead of four weeks, and the class sizes may run up to twenty per class.

Summer classes are taught by trained, college-educated teachers with some level of expertise in the subject matter they are teaching. Teachers are paid a competitive rate for their services, and assist in building curriculum that is relevant and engaging. Each teacher has a paid assistant as well as a volunteer to help in the classroom.

Future Activities

It is the intention of Ozark Education, Inc., to offer courses similar to those described above at area, non-profit, after school programs throughout the school year, and again in the summer of 2014.

Charter school. In addition to summer and after-school education programs, it is the intention of Ozark Education, Inc., to apply for authorization to operate a public charter school in the Northwest Arkansas region, scheduled to open in the fall of 2014. The application process starts in the summer of 2013 with public informational meetings and disclosure of intentions to the community. By August 30, 2013, an application will be completed and filed with the Arkansas Department of Education. A process of hearings, meetings, and revisions will occur, and authorization status will be determined in the winter of 2013-2014.

The “doing business as (DBA)” name of the charter school, Ozark College & Career Academy (OCCA), has been registered with the state of Arkansas. The mission of OCCA is to offer a K-12 education option that emphasizes a highly engaging, project-based curriculum that prepares students for concurrent credit college and/or career training by their junior year of high school.

To ensure that our curriculum is in alignment with the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the Arkansas Department of Education, a high quality, digital curriculum will also be included as a part of the daily program. Each student will be assigned a laptop, ipad, or e-reader that allows them to access interactive, digital curriculum that allows them to move at their own pace toward subject mastery. Highly qualified teachers will assist students with their digitized studies. Every student must demonstrate substantial progress toward grade-level mastery with their digitized coursework in order to earn the privilege to participate at more than a minimal level with the hands-on component of the program.

The OCCA school day will be at least one hour longer than classes in traditional classrooms in the region, and class sizes will be at least 25% smaller than those in neighboring schools as well. Parent participation and advisement will be an integral feature of school operations.

The OCCA program will be marketed more heavily among economically disadvantaged and minority student populations in the region, although, in accordance with state law, enrollment will be open to all with the only limitations based on seat availability per class.

PART V: Compensation and Other Financial Arrangements With Your Officers, Directors, Trustees, Employees, and Independent Contractors

4F. Do you or will you approve compensation arrangements based on information about compensation paid by similarly situated taxable or tax-exempt organizations for similar services, current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms, or actual written offers from similarly situated organizations? Refer to the instructions for Part V, lines 1a, 1b, and 1c, for information on what to include as compensation. (YES)

4G. Do you or will you record in writing both the information on which you relied to base your decision and its source? If you answered “No” to any item on lines 4a through 4f, describe how you set compensation that is reasonable for your officers, directors, trustees, highest compensated employees, and highest compensated independent contractors listed in Part V, lines 1a, 1b, and 1c.

OEI board members will be unpaid volunteers

The OEI Executive Director, who will serve as a non-voting board member, will be compensated at a rate commensurate with the salaries of school building administrators in the local region, in accordance with education and experience. Administrator salary schedules from neighboring districts are easily referenced on district websites. If the responsibilities of the position grow to include oversight of additional school facilities or programs, the Executive Director’s salary may be raised to include additional contract days. In making salary decisions for this position, the board will consider school budget, district size, level of education, contract days, candidate experience, and Superintendent salaries of similar-sized districts in determining salary.

Teachers, counselors, nurses, and other professional and/or certified staff will be compensated at a rate commensurate with other professionals and certified educators in the local region. Local district websites offer salary schedules for public viewing. Salary schedules include references to years of experience and years of education. Both factors will be included in determining staff salaries.

5A. Have you adopted a conflict of interest policy consistent with the sample conflict of interest policy in Appendix A to the instructions? If “yes,” provide a copy of the policy and explain how the policy has been adopted, such as by resolution of your governing board. If “no,” answer lines 5b and 5c.

See Article X of attached bylaws. OEI bylaws were adopted by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors on May 21, 2013.

PART VI: INDIVIDUALS AND ORGANIZATIONS THAT RECEIVE SERVICES FROM OZARK EDUCATION, INC.

1a. Individuals. OEI provides classes to students grades PreK-12 in the Northwest Arkansas region. Our classes are offered as part of our charter school program, and also through our after school and summer class programs.

Our charter school operates under the fictitious (DBA) name, "Ozark College & Career Academy." It is a K-12 public charter school operating in Springdale, Arkansas in accordance with Arkansas Charter School Rules & Regulations. Our school serves up to 250 students. The school has adopted the philosophy of project-based learning for all grade levels, emphasizing college & career preparation through rigorous, technology-driven projects and curriculum. Individual students benefit from our charter school program through smaller class sizes, school uniforms, individualized learning plans, college and career preparation, parent/community advisory committees, and one-to-one computer ratios.

Our summer and after school programs offer classes at local community centers and public libraries to benefit individual students as well. Our classes are taught by professional and/or certified individuals who are experts in their fields. Each class is technology-driven, meaning students produce a project using video equipment, computers, digital scientific instruments, or other devices to extend their academic learning and technology skills.

Educators benefit from our professional development offerings including modeling of technology integration and community involvement in class projects that allow teachers hands-on experience, demonstrations, and discussion on integrating these high quality learning experiences with core curriculum.

1b. Organizations. OEI benefits other non-profit organizations and schools that share our mission by bringing high quality programming to their students.

Although our charter school is a stand-alone operation, our summer and after school programs involve other non-profits and schools. We bring quality programming into community centers, after-school programs, public and private schools, and preschool programs. Organizations benefit by receiving low or no-fee educational services in their classrooms.

3. Do any individuals who receive goods, services, or funds through your programs have a family or business relationship with any officer, director, trustee, or with any of your highest compensated employees or highest compensated independent contractors listed in Part V, lines 1a, 1b, and 1c? 6.07.1.14.1 Except as provided in Section 6.07.1.14.2 of these rules, if more eligible students apply for a first-time admission than the open enrollment public charter school is able to accept by the annual deadline that the open enrollment public charter school has established for the receipt of applications for the next school year, the open-enrollment public charter must require the open enrollment public charter school to use a random, anonymous student selection method that shall be described in the charter application.

6.07.1.14.1.1 If there are still more applications for admissions than the open-enrollment public charter school is able to accept after the completion of the random, anonymous student selection method, then the open-enrollment public charter school shall place the applicants on a waiting list for admission.

6.07.1.14.1.2 The waiting list is valid until the next time the open enrollment public charter 005.15 ADE 313-33 school is required to conduct a random, anonymous student selection.

6.07.1.14.2 However, an open-enrollment public charter school may allow a preference for:

6.07.1.14.2.1 Children of the founding members of the eligible entity. The number of enrollment preferences granted to children of founding members shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total number of students enrolled in the open enrollment public charter school; and

Mail solicitation. Newsletters to supporters and parents may include requests for financial participation in education needs, events and projects such as athletics, art shows, science fairs, after-school programs, summer school, school uniforms, technology, or facilities campaigns.

Email solicitation. E-letters to supporters and parents may include requests for financial participation in educational events and projects such as athletics, art shows, science fairs, after-school programs, summer school, school uniforms, technology, or facilities campaigns.

Personal solicitations. Should the need arise, supporters of the Corporation may be asked to donate to educational events and projects such as athletics, art shows, science fairs, after-school programs, summer school, school uniforms, technology, or facilities campaigns.

Foundation grant solicitations. Applications for funds have been and will be made to foundations that support the mission and goals of the Corporations. These funds may be used for startup expenses, facilities projects, and technology.

Website donations. A donation page on our website will inform interested parties of education needs, events, and projects that they may participate in such as athletics, art shows, science fairs, after-school programs, summer school, school uniforms, technology, or facilities campaigns.

Government grant and loan solicitations. Government grants will be solicited to fund a variety of needs including startup, facilities, curriculum materials, tutors, and equipment.

4b. Do you or will you have written or oral contracts with any individuals or organizations to raise funds for you? If "Yes," describe these activities. Include all revenue and expenses from these activities and state who conducts them. Revenue and expenses should be provided for the time periods specified in Part IX, Financial Data. Also, attach a copy of any contracts or agreements.

Written or oral contracts. The Corporation may enter into a contractual agreement with a professional fundraiser to assist in raising money for education expenses. The corporation is not currently bound by any such contract for services. The attached contract will be used to bind services with future fundraiser.

4d. List all states and local jurisdictions in which you conduct fundraising. For each state or local jurisdiction listed, specify whether you fundraise for your own organization, you fundraise for another organization, or another organization fundraises for you.

Fundraising will be restricted to Arkansas. OEI will fundraise for our own organization only.

4e. Do you or will you maintain separate accounts for any contributor under which the contributor has the right to advise on the use or distribution of funds? Answer "yes," if the donor may provide advice on the types of investments, distributions from the types of investments, or the distribution from the donor's contribution account. If "yes," describe this program, including the type of advice that may be provided and submit copies of any written materials provided to donors.

The first grant we expect to receive is the Arkansas Department of Education Charter School Planning and Implementation grant. Funding for the grant requires that a separate account be kept for the funds, and rules for spending the funds apply. For example, the grant monies may not be used to purchase or lease facilities nor to pay utilities or salaries, but must be used for curriculum, equipment, and advertising among other things.

It is likely that our students' parents may create a "booster" club to raise funds for special events, athletics, and other student needs. The booster club will keep their own separate account and use the funds solely for the benefit of students. They will decide how the funds are used. Their fundraising projects may include playground equipment, athletic uniforms, travel expenses for student teams, or other projects to benefit the school or the students. No materials or agreements have been developed for such an entity at this time.

5. Are you affiliated with a governmental unit? If "yes," explain.

Our charter school, Ozark College & Career Academy, will be authorized and monitored by the Arkansas Department of Education, and subject to all rules and regulations of the Charter School division.

7a. Do or will persons other than your employees or volunteers develop your facilities? If "Yes," describe each facility, the role of the developer, and any business or family relationship(s) between the developer and your officers, directors, or trustees.

Our facilities may be new construction or older buildings requiring renovation. The building(s) must be large enough to house up to 250 students and must include separate classrooms for up to 20 students each. The buildings must also contain a common area for meals and events, adequate restrooms, storage, and office spaces. The buildings must be located on property that is spacious enough for parking, bus access, and play areas.

In the event that a developer is contracted, their role may include: identifying a feasible site, assembling a development team, directing the design process, establishing planning and zoning arrangements with the locality, supervising detailed design, assisting with financing arrangements, overseeing construction, and advising and apprising the OEI Board of Directors throughout the process.

Under no conditions will business partners or family members of officers, directors, or trustees be allowed to enter into contract for services for the development of facilities other than in volunteer capacity for which no barter, remuneration, or compensation of any type will be exchanged for services.

10. Do you or will you publish, own, or have rights in music, literature, tapes, artworks, choreography, scientific discoveries, or other intellectual property? If "yes," explain. Describe who owns or will own any copyrights, patents, or trademarks, whether fees are or will be charged, how the fees are determined, and how any items are or will be produced, distributed, and marketed.

In general, any intellectual property created by OEI staff and/or students will be the property of the individual creators. However, products created for the purpose of promotion of OEI or OCCA, whether in print, radio, television, or internet, will be the property of OEI with all associated rights of ownership.

Schedule B, Section I

2b. Are you a public school because you are operated wholly or predominantly from government funds or property? If “Yes,” explain how you are operated wholly or predominantly from government funds or property. Submit a copy of your funding agreement regarding government funding. Do not complete the remainder of Schedule B.

OEI operations and projects are funded primarily by government funds including “foundation funding,” which is the per pupil amount the state provides to all public schools and is contingent upon enrollment. OEI will also receive state professional development funds on a per pupil basis. National school lunch state categorical funding will be received according to student eligibility. Also, federal Title I funding and other categorical funding will be accepted as rules permit. OEI may also receive state and federal grants to fund planning, startup, and programs.

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION RULES GOVERNING PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOLS August 2012

6.17 Funding for Open-Enrollment Public Charter Schools

6.17.1 An open-enrollment public charter school shall receive funds equal to the amount that a public school would receive under Ark. Code Ann. § 6-20-2305(a) and (b) as well as any other funding that a public charter school is entitled to receive under law or under rules promulgated by the State Board.

6.17.2 For the first year of operation and any year the open-enrollment public charter school adds a new grade, the foundation funding for an open enrollment public charter school is determined as follows:

6.17.2.1 The initial funding estimate shall be based on enrollment as of the deadline established by Ark. Code Ann. § 6-23-501; 6.17.2.2 In December, funding will be adjusted based upon the first quarter average daily membership; and 6.17.2.3 A final adjustment will be made after the current three quarter average daily membership is established.

6.17.3 For the second year and each school year thereafter, the previous year’s average daily membership will be used to calculate foundation funding amounts.

6.17.4 National school lunch state categorical funding under Ark. Code Ann. § 6-20-2305 (b)(4) shall be provided to an open-enrollment public charter school as follows:

6.17.4.1 For the first year of operation and in any year when a grade is added, free or reduced-price meal eligibility data as reported by October 1 of the current school year will be used to calculate the national school lunch state categorical funding under the State Board rules governing special needs funding; and 005.15 ADE 313-41 6.17.4.2 For the second year and each school year of operation thereafter, the previous year's October 1 national school lunch student count as specified in State Board rules governing special needs funding will be used to calculate national school lunch state categorical funding for the open-enrollment public charter school.

6.17.5 Professional development funding under Ark. Code Ann. § 6-20-2305(b)(5) shall be provided to an open-enrollment public charter school for the first year of operation and in any year in which a grade is added as follows:

6.17.5.1 In the first year of operation and in any year when a grade is added, the open-enrollment public charter school shall receive professional development funding based upon the initial projected enrollment student count as of the date required by Ark. Code Ann. § 6-23-501 multiplied by the per-student professional development funding amount under Ark. Code Ann. § 6-20-2305(b)(5) for that school year.

6.17.5.2 For the second year and each school year thereafter, professional development funding will be based upon the previous year's average daily membership multiplied by the per-student professional development funding amount for that school year.

6.17.6 The Department of Education shall distribute other categorical funding under Ark. Code Ann. § 6-20-2305(a) and (b) for which an open enrollment public charter school is eligible as provided by state law and rules promulgated by the State Board.

6.17.7 An open-enrollment public charter school shall not be denied foundation funding or categorical funding in the first year or any year of operation provided that the open-enrollment public charter school submits to the Department of Education the number of students eligible for funding as specified in applicable rules. 005.15 ADE 313-42

6.17.8 Foundation funding for an open-enrollment public charter school shall be paid in twelve (12) installments each fiscal year.

6.17.9 An open-enrollment public charter school may receive any state and federal aids, grants, and revenue as may be provided by law.

6.17.10 Open-enrollment public charter schools may receive gifts and grants from private sources in whatever manner is available to public school districts.

6.17.11 An open-enrollment public charter school shall have a right of first refusal to purchase or lease for fair market value a closed public school facility or unused portions of a public school facility located in a public school district from which it draws students if the public school district decides to sell or lease the public school facility.

6.17.11.1 The public school district may not require lease payments that exceed the fair market value of the property.

6.17.11.2 The application of this Section 6.17.11 is subject to the rights of a repurchase under Ark. Code Ann. § 6-13-103 regarding property taken by eminent domain.

6.17.11.3 A public school district is exempt from the requirements of this Section 6.17.11 if the public school district, through an open bid process, receives and accepts an offer to lease or purchase the property from a purchaser other than the open enrollment public charter school for an amount that exceeds the fair market value.

6.17.11.4 The purposes of this Section 6.17.11 are to:

6.17.11.4.1 Acknowledge that taxpayers intended a public school facility to be used as a public school; and

6.17.11.4.2 Preserve the option to continue that use.

6.17.11.5 Nothing in this Section 6.17.11 is intended to diminish the opportunity for an Arkansas Better Chance program to bid 005.15 ADE 313-43 on the purchase or lease of the public school facility on an equal basis as the open-enrollment public charter school.

6.19 Use of Funding by Open-Enrollment Public Charter Schools

6.19.2 No indebtedness of any kind incurred or created by the open-enrollment public charter school shall constitute an indebtedness of the state or its political subdivisions, and no indebtedness of the open-enrollment public charter school shall involve or be secured by the faith, credit, or taxing power of the state or its political subdivisions.

6.21.2 Non-charter school funds of the sponsoring entity shall be deposited in a separate bank account titled in the name of the sponsoring entity and shall not be commingled with charter school funds.

6.21.3 If the charter school operates an approved federal child nutrition program, food service revenues shall be deposited and managed as required by federal law and by any regulations promulgated by the Arkansas Department of Education Child Nutrition Unit or the Arkansas Department of Human Services.

SPRINGDALE — Parents heard details about Ozark College and Career Academy for the first time Tuesday night.

The open-enrollment charter school could offer classes capped at 15 or 20 students in a smaller school setting, said Christine Silano, executive director. Language instruction would start at kindergarten, uniforms will help level the playing field in appearance and computer-based curriculum will replace textbooks, Silano said.

First the school's charter must be approved by the state.

Tuesday's meeting was the first in a series of public meetings to build support as organizers take their appeal for a charter to the state.

"Rogers, Fayetteville and Bentonyville have charters. Springdale does not," Silano said. "We want this to be grassroots. We want this to come out of Springdale."

Silano envisions certification programs beginning in middle school where students can pursue their interests and teaming with local community colleges so students can earn dual credit. The curriculum has not been finalized, she said, but she would like to see children who speak Spanish or Marshallese be able to read and write in their native language when they graduate.

Students will have eight hours of school each day, instead of seven and will attend 10 extra school days giving teachers 258 more hours each year with their students. The school may offer after or before school care also, Silano said.

"I think it would be good if it would actually happen," said parent Lluvia Dimas as she left the meeting Tuesday night.

INFORMATIONAL MEETINGS

Two other informational meetings about the Ozark College and Career Academy will be held before organizers submit their charter request to the state.

of Arkansas, spoke before the meeting about charter school research.

Charter schools, Wolf said, are showing no signs of plateauing in enrollment. About 6,000 charter schools serve more than 2.3 million students, or about 4 percent of school-age children, in the United States, Wolf said. Underserved children form a large base of charter school enrollment, judging by statistics, Wolf said.

Many successful charter schools have more educational time during the year and because parents and students chose the school they have more of an investment in their success. They also are structured to give more freedom to leadership, have high expectations of their students and focus on achievement.

"That's sort of the secret sauce," he said. Research does not show overwhelmingly better test scores from students enrolled at charter schools, but the quality of the schools vary, Wolf said. "With charter schools you allow a lot of freedom to innovate and experiment," Wolf said.

Minorities are the majority in most Springdale schools, Arturo Garcia, community outreach director for the school group.

He has a son starting his second year at Haas Hall Academy in Fayetteville. The charter school experience has been positive for his son, Garcia said.

There is a lot of communication with parents, his son has been pushed to succeed and the eighth-grader had a college visit.

That, Garcia said, is like teaching a child to swim. Once they learn it's hard to get them out of the water.

"The Springdale education system is good, but this is a second choice for our kids," Garcia said.

Arkansas Department of Education

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my great pleasure to ask for your support in the opening of the open-enrollment charter school referred to as the Ozark College & Career Academy (OCCA). I have been a life long resident of Springdale and truly believe that this school would benefit our community greatly. I graduated from the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville campus, with a Masters degree in Elementary Education as well as an English as a Second Language Endorsement. I also have three young daughters that will attend Springdale public schools, my oldest however attend the Benton County School of the Arts Charter School, that is located over thirty mins. away in Rogers. My oldest attends this school because we needed an option that was not available in the Springdale community.

As parents in this community, our options are very limited in what type of education our children can receive. As Springdale's population has doubled over the last two years, I, as a parent, have seen our public schools struggle to not only meet the growing needs of the community, but also that of the new and very high ESOL students that arrive daily. By granting this charter school, you will not only open the doors for so many students that truly need this, but also give hope to parents that have merely settled because there no option given for their child.

I know that as educators we are all advocates for the children we teach, so I ask you not only as a parent but as an educator that you grant this charter and support the Springdale Community as well as Dr. Christine Silano in her efforts to give our children a new and exciting opportunity in this high quality, and project-based learning experience.

Thank you again for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Charter Authorizing Board:

I am writing in support of the charter school application submitted by Ozark College and Career Academy in Springdale. Parents, community members, and educators have been meeting for several months to develop their vision and believe that this is a desirable educational option for students in our region.

Traditional public schools in Northwest Arkansas do a tremendous service for our communities; however, some students may be better served by the unique qualities of a charter school. I support the efforts of this organization in seeking to provide smaller classrooms, longer school days and calendar, project-based and service-based projects, STEM education, and 21st century career skills.

Again, I support the opening of Ozark College and Career Academy charter school. I, along with many of my constituents, hope you will approve their application. School choice provides parents the opportunity to choose a school they feel best meets the needs of their children.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dr. Tom Kimbrell
Commissioner
Arkansas Department of Education
#4 Capitol Mall
Little Rock, AR 72201

Dear Dr. Kimbrell,

I am writing to confirm that the Walton Family Foundation supports newly authorized open-enrollment public charter schools through our school start up grant program, at $250,000 for each school successfully authorized in Arkansas and vetted by our own foundation staff via our start up grant process.

The foundation has already made a planning grant in the amount of $30,000, based on the initial concept of the proposed charter school for Springdale, submitted by Christine Silano. As such, I feel confident that should the Ozark College and Career Academy be authorized by the Charter Council and subsequently the State Board of Education, the foundation will deem it worthy of a start up grant in the potential amount of $220,000 (the $250,000 potential minus the planning portion of $30,000).

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kathy Smith

Escuela charter otra opción educativa

SPRINGDALE — Padres de familia buscando otra opción escolar para sus hijos escucharon detalles sobre Ozark College and Career Academy (OCCA) por primera vez la noche del martes, 9 de julio.

La escuela charter, de inscripción abierta, daría clases de máximo 20 estudiantes en una escuela más pequeña, puntualizó Christine Silano, directora ejecutiva de OCCA. La enseñanza de idiomas comenzaría en el kindergarten, los uniformes ayudarían a nivelar la experiencia del cuerpo estudiantil, y el currículo basado en computadoras sustituirá a los libros de texto, dijo Silano.

Pero primero, el "charter" de la escuela debe ser probado por el Estado. La reunión del martes pasado fue la primera de una serie de reuniones públicas para fomentar el apoyo mientras que los organizadores recurren para pedir el "charter", un contrato con el Estado que da más flexibilidad con el currículo a comparación con escuelas públicas. "Rogers, Bentonville y Fayetteville tienen escuelas charter. Springdale no", señaló Silano. "Queremos que esto sea de base. Queremos que esto provenga de Springdale". Silano prevé programas de certificación a partir de la escuela secundaria donde los estudiantes pueden explorar sus intereses y trabajar en equipos con los colegios comunitarios locales para que los chicos puedan obtener crédito dual.

El plan de estudios no se ha finalizado, dijo, pero le gustaría ver que los niños que hablan español o Marshalllese sean capaces de leer y escribir en su lengua materna cuando se gradúen.

Los estudiantes tendrán ocho horas de clases, en lugar de siete, todos los días y asistirán 10 días adicionales, dando al profesor 258 horas más al año con sus alumnos.

"Creo que sería bueno si en realidad sucede", comentó Lluvia Dimas, madre de familia, al salir de la reunión del martes por la noche.

Las minorías son la mayoría en la mayor parte de las escuelas de Springdale, indicó Arturo García, director de alcance comunitario para OCCA, cuyo hijo ha tenido una experiencia positiva en la escuela charter Haas Hall Academy de Fayetteville.

"El sistema educativo Springdale es bueno, pero esto es una segunda opción para nuestros niños", dijo García sobre OCCA.

2013 APPLICATION
STATEMENT OF ASSURANCES

The signature of the president of the board of directors of the proposed public charter school's sponsoring entity certifies that the following statements are and will be addressed through policies adopted by the sponsoring entity and policies to be adopted by the public charter school; and, if the application is approved, that the sponsoring entity, governing body, administration, and staff of the open-enrollment charter shall abide by them:

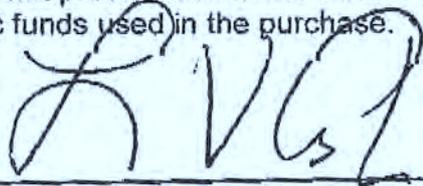

1. The information submitted in this application is true to the best of my knowledge and belief, and this application has been sent to the superintendent of all the districts from which we intend to draw students.
2. The open-enrollment public charter school shall be open to all students, on a space-available basis, and shall not discriminate in its admission policy on the basis of gender, national origin, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or academic or athletic eligibility, except as follows: the open-enrollment public charter school may adopt admissions policies that are consistent with federal law, regulations, or guidelines applicable to charter schools. The charter may provide for the exclusion of a student who has been expelled from another public school district.
3. In accordance with federal and state laws, the open-enrollment public charter school hiring and retention policies of administrators, teachers, and other employees shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, creed, sex, ethnicity, sexual orientation, mental or physical disability, age, ancestry, or special need.
4. The open-enrollment public charter school shall operate in accordance with federal laws and rules governing public schools; applicable provisions of the Arkansas Constitution; and state statutes or regulations governing public schools not waived by the approved charter.
5. The open-enrollment public charter school shall not use the moneys that it receives from the state for any sectarian program or activity, or as collateral for debt.

However, open-enrollment public charter schools may enter into lease-purchase agreements for school buildings built by private entities with facilities bonds exempt from federal taxes under 26 USCS 142(a) as allowed by Arkansas Code Annotated § 6-20-402. No indebtedness of an open-enrollment public charter school shall ever become a debt of the state of Arkansas.

6. The open-enrollment public charter school shall not impose taxes or charge students tuition or fees that would not be allowable charges in the public school districts.
7. The open-enrollment public charter school shall not be religious in its operations or programmatic offerings.

8. The open-enrollment public charter school shall ensure that any of its employees who qualify for membership in the Arkansas Teacher Retirement System or the State and Public School Employee Insurance Program shall be covered under those systems to the same extent a qualified employee of a traditional school district is covered.
9. The employees and volunteers of the open-enrollment public charter school are held immune from liability to the same extent as other public school district employees and volunteers under applicable state laws.
10. The open-enrollment public charter school shall be reviewed for its potential impact on the efforts of a public school district or public school districts to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.
11. The open-enrollment public charter school shall comply with all health and safety laws, rules and regulations of the federal, state, county, region, or community that may apply to the facilities and school property.
12. The applicant confirms the understanding that certain provisions of state law shall not be waived. The open-enrollment public charter school is subject to any prohibition, restriction, or requirement imposed by Title 6 of the Arkansas Code Annotated and any rule and regulation approved by the State Board of Education under this title relating to:
 - (a) Monitoring compliance with Arkansas Code Annotated § 6-23-101 et seq. as determined by the Commissioner of the Department of Education;
 - (b) Conducting criminal background checks for employees;
 - (c) High school graduation requirements as established by the State Board of Education;
 - (d) Special education programs as provided by this title;
 - (e) Public school accountability under this title;
 - (f) Ethical guidelines and prohibitions as established by Arkansas Code Annotated § 6-24-101 et seq., and any other controlling state or federal law regarding ethics or conflicts of interest; and
 - (g) Health and safety codes as established by the State Board of Education and local governmental entities.

- 13. The facilities of the public charter school shall comply with all requirements for accessibility for individuals with disabilities in accordance with the ADA and IDEA and all other state and federal laws.
- 14. Should the open-enrollment public charter school voluntarily or involuntarily close, the applicant confirms the understanding that any fees associated with the closing of the school including, but not limited to, removal of furniture, equipment, general expenses, etc., are the sole responsibility of the sponsoring entity. No indebtedness of any kind incurred or created by the open-enrollment public charter school shall constitute an indebtedness of the state or its political subdivisions, and no indebtedness of the open-enrollment public charter school shall involve or be secured by the faith, credit, or taxing power of the state or its political subdivisions. Upon dissolution of the open-enrollment public charter school or upon nonrenewal or revocation of the charter, all net assets of the open-enrollment public charter school, including any interest in real property, purchased with public funds shall be deemed the property of the state, unless otherwise specified in the charter of the open-enrollment public charter school. If the open-enrollment public charter school used state or federal funds to purchase or finance personal property, real property or fixtures for use by the open-enrollment public charter school, the authorizer may require that the property be sold. The state has a perfected priority security interest in the net proceeds from the sale or liquidation of the property to the extent of the public funds used in the purchase.

THE JONES TRUST

A proposal for Administrative and classroom space for

Ozark College and Career Academy

The Jones Trust

The Jones Trust is a Charitable Operating Foundation, founded by the late Harvey and Bernice Jones of Springdale, Arkansas. The Jones Trust currently has over 550,000 SF of specialty space that include The Jones Center For Families, Center for Nonprofits @ The JTL Shops and The Harvey Jones Education Building all located in Springdale, AR and The Center for Nonprofits @ St. Mary's in Rogers.

The Jones Center:

The Jones Center was constructed in 1994, repurposing the old Jones Truck Lines Terminal Building. The facility has over 78,000 SF in the main concourse area and over 10,000 SF in the Food Court area. The north wing of the main concourse area is defined as the "conference center" and includes a main ballroom and four breakout rooms. The Center section of the upper concourse includes the library/computer center, Administration and Advancement offices for the Jones Trust and Jones Center staff. The south portion of the concourse will continue to provide Community programs including child care, parenting classes, senior programs, health and safety classes and general community programs and events.

The lower concourse or recreational area will continue to serve the community with the swimming pools, basketball courts, walking track, ice skating arena and fitness center.

Leasable Area:

The areas of the Jones Center offered in this proposal are shown in Exhibit #1 attached hereto. This proposal includes the following areas:

| | | |
|--|--------------|-----------|
| Administrative Office Space | 1,720 | SF |
| Classroom Space (Existing classrooms and furnishings included) | 6,850 | SF |
| Total gross leasable area | 8,570 | SF |

Shared space:

The Jones Center currently has a library/computer lab on campus. OCCA students will have access to the library during all hours of operation. The computer classroom may be scheduled by OCCA instructors on a first priority basis prior at the beginning of the semester in accordance with the published fee schedule. Conference rooms will be made available to OCCA faculty through our scheduling department based on availability at no additional cost.

The staff break room will be available to OCCA staff.

Parking will be available in common facility parking lots. No reserved spaces are available.

Improvements desired by OCCA:

OCCA will utilize the space as is. Internal network wiring may be required. Any network cabling necessary shall be completed at the expense of OCCA.

Telephone Systems, IT Systems and A/V Equipment:

The Jones Center will provide a location within the current library "server room" for telephone service to be installed by the telephone service provider for OCCA. OCCA shall be responsible for any necessary internal wiring associated with telephone service needed within the OCCA space. The Jones Center is currently wired for an internal network and may be suitable for the needs of OCCA. If it is deemed unsuitable for OCCA needs, OCCA shall bear the cost of network cabling to suit the need.

The Jones Center A/V equipment will be available to OCCA only if not in use by the Jones Center on the date needed. Customers of the Scheduling Department will have priority use of the Jones Center A/V Equipment.

Security and Public Safety:

The Jones Center currently has CC TV surveillance for security purposes. If OCCA should desire to expand this system, The Jones Center would allow such an expansion at OCCA's cost. The Jones Center will have full time armed police officers on campus during all hours of operation.

Classroom furnishings:

The Jones Center currently has white boards, desks and tables located within the classroom space. These furnishings shall remain in the classroom for use by OCCA.

Housekeeping:

Housekeeping (Vacuum cleaning of floors, general cleaning of desktops, windows, etc. and wastebasket removal only) shall be provided by the Jones Center housekeeping staff. OCCA will be responsible for all cleaning associated with moving, semester startup, etc.)

Access:

During the life of this agreement, The Jones Center for Families will be open to the public from 8:00 AM to 9:00PM Monday through Friday. All OCCA faculty, staff and student body will have access during these hours. OCCA Students will have access to the library/computer center during hours of operation of the library and computer center. Access outside of the published hours shall be granted upon request.

Financial Considerations:

The Jones Trust offers the space described herein above for a period of two (2) years beginning August 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2016 for an annual amount of $117,409.00 payable in monthly in the amount of $9,784.08.

We look forward to the opportunity to discuss in more detail the specifics of this proposal.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dr. Tom Kimbrell
Commissioner
Arkansas Department of Education
#4 Capitol Mall
Little Rock, AR 72201

Dear Dr. Kimbrell,

I am writing to confirm that the Walton Family Foundation supports newly authorized open-enrollment public charter schools through our school start up grant program, at $250,000 for each school successfully authorized in Arkansas and vetted by our own foundation staff via our start up grant process.

The foundation has already made a planning grant in the amount of $30,000, based on the initial concept of the proposed charter school for Springdale, submitted by Christine Silano. As such, I feel confident that should the Ozark College and Career Academy be authorized by the Charter Council and subsequently the State Board of Education, the foundation will deem it worthy of a start up grant in the potential amount of $220,000 (the $250,000 potential minus the planning portion of $30,000).

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Kimbrell:

This letter is in response to the recent charter school application for Ozark College & Career Academy submitted by Dr. Christine Silano. The intent of this letter is not to deny the options parents can/should have for their students. The intent of this letter is to clarify the claims made in Dr. Silano's application and explore whether or not her proposed charter school represents a justified investment - public or private - as compared to the existing public school option available in Springdale, Arkansas.

1. Key Programmatic Features:

Uniqueness of the Program Offerings: The specifics of the proposed academy model are highly aligned with the programs currently being offered in the Springdale School District. The Csikszentmihalyi "Flow" theory and the "Facilitator as Teacher" concept (Montessori) stated in the proposal are both well understood by the curriculum leadership in Springdale and, as theorists have been part of the shift into the project-based learning model found throughout classrooms in Springdale.

There does not appear to be concrete evidence that the academy's project model is sufficiently defined so as to invite a distinction from the engaging environment provided by Springdale School District classrooms. In fact, all of the models currently used in Springdale schools are designed in such a way as to have high levels of student engagement and they go far beyond the rudimentary curriculum design model and the unit experiences described in the application. Copies of the following are available for your review upon request: (1) Understanding by Design curriculum documents used in K-12, (2) Cognitively Guided Math Instruction problem posing models, (3) Thinking Mathematically math pedagogy, (4) Literacy and Math Design Collaborative (grades 9-12) Tasks, the International Baccalaureate unit planners used in three of our schools, (5) lesson plans from eMINTs-trained teachers (enhancing Missouri's Instructional Networked Teaching strategies), and (6) EAST lab program outcomes defining student projects.

CHARTER SCHOOL OFFICE ¹⁵⁷

To ensure the highest caliber of curriculum design, the Springdale district has been working with curriculum expert Dr. Marcia Imbeau, University of Arkansas, a protégé of Carol Ann Tomlinson, another nationally-known curriculum expert. The district is also working with authors/advisors to the PARCC assessment model, David Pook and Diane August, to ensure that our formative assessments are in complete alignment. Over the course of three years, the district has invested in the nationally-known leader in pedagogy (known as Gradual Release of Responsibility or GRR), Doug Fisher, to ensure that all teachers were well trained in the systems of delivery that were most effective for the second language learner. Dr. Silano's application provides no evidence that the curriculum or instructional program will equal or exceed that of the Springdale School District.

2. Baseline Assessments:

The charter school proposal suggests that all students will be given PARCC assessments within two weeks of enrollment. The absence of PARCC assessment calibrated tools will not allow for implementation of accurately aligned assessments until after the end of the first year of testing, which will occur in the spring of 2015. The Springdale School District will participate in field testing in the spring of 2014 in twenty-two (22) of the district's schools. This will give us a rich understanding of the PARCC assessment model in general; however, no one will have access to assessment models that can be calibrated until after a full testing period, which will not occur until 2015.

During the interim, the Springdale School District is using a well-established national testing company known as Northwest Educational Assessment (NWEA) in order to get a national level comparison. Because the database of NWEA is nationally normed, it is expected to be predictive toward the PARCC assessment and student performance levels. In addition, each student in the Springdale School District is expected to have a data profile that includes all state-required testing such as Qualls, Benchmark/EOC, as well as NWEA (where appropriate). These are used to design Personal Learning Plans based on the state's Academic Improvement Plan. The charter school proposal is establishing a measure that does not yet exist and the proposal does not account for an interim system that aligns with PARCC.

3. One-to-One Technology:

Dr. Silano's proposal indicates that the students will have access to a 1:1 student to computer ratio. Currently, the Springdale School District has a ratio of 3:2. Each year we invest $700,000.00 toward reaching our goal of having 1:1 technology. We also have a "system of upgrade" to ensure that our technology is state of the art. Furthermore, the use of technology requires the expertise of many technicians so as to ensure that the technology works. As a district, we have invested heavily in the integration skills of our teachers so that they are equipped with a solid understanding of technology and how to integrate it into the curriculum. According to John Hattie's meta-analysis of research, technology purchased without professional development support results in an ineffective use of technology. The charter school proposal does not include evidence of a research-based professional development plan for technology. Conversely, the Springdale School District has an extensive professional development plan for integration of technology.

4. Advanced Placement or Other Accredited Courses:

The charter school proposal indicates that there will be AP (advanced placement) courses offered to students. The size of the school may limit the number of courses offered since the school's enrollment is limited in number. In comparison, the Springdale School District offers between 20-23 AP courses each year. Additionally, many Springdale AP faculty members have been recognized for their expertise and service as AP readers of exams. Furthermore, AP teachers in Springdale collectively have many years of training to prepare them to teach AP courses.

Students in Springdale have multiple opportunities to gain college credit. Additionally, we have 15 articulation agreements with Northwest Arkansas Community College and contracts with NTI (Northwest Technical Institute) that are accepted as credit or credentialing in area businesses, colleges and universities. These choices give high school students a broad array of post high school programs of study. The two high schools offer concurrent credit courses in college English and college algebra. In addition, Springdale has been involved in the AAIMS program (Arkansas Advanced Initiative for Math and Science) for the past 5 years. The enrollment of students in AP has continued to rise giving more students the opportunity to take these classes. There are no barriers to students who desire to be enrolled.

Springdale has a distinguished track record in CTE (Career Technical Education), AP and International Baccalaureate courses. Dr. Silano's proposal does not appear to offer advanced level courses that are different from the Springdale School District.

5. Extended Day, Extended Calendar:

There is no research offered to support the claim that ten (10) additional days of schooling will impact academic achievement significantly. The Springdale School District has a number of extended day programs in elementary, middle and secondary schools, including 21st Century Community Learning Center grants that serve over 300 students. Additionally, the district supports many extended calendar program options for at risk students, including the University of Arkansas Razorback Writers Program and the Lemke Writing Program. Additionally, several partnerships are available with the district for enriched summer activities such as Camp War Eagle and Youth Strategies, a summer mentoring/work program.

6. Student Services:

Dr. Silano's charter school proposal requests several waivers from essential student services that are well established within the Springdale School District. The proposal does not appear to provide a richer learning environment based on the following requested waivers:

- A. Waiver from the Guidance Program: The charter school proposal asks for a waiver from guidance services. Springdale students benefit greatly from the outstanding, well-recognized three-tiered model - class counseling, small group counseling and individual counseling - based on the National Counseling Standards. The charter application states that at-risk students would be the target enrollees in the program; however, the proposal's requested waiver diminishes the importance of a strong counseling program. Hattie's research indicates that social skills training has the greatest impact on at-risk students. Therefore, in the Springdale School District, we have both a strong school-based and clinical partnership with the Ozark Guidance Center in every school.

- B. Waiver from Media Center: Dr. Silano’s proposal also asks for a waiver from media services. A recent presentation by well-known author Stephen Krashen given October 10, 2013, in Rogers, Arkansas, included research that indicates the best way for schools to mitigate poverty is to provide a qualified librarian with an aide and offer students access to excellent books. The role of the LMS is not only to check out books – but to guide and advise students. This charter school proposal diminishes an important service, now supported by research, which is very effective in serving students in poverty.
- C. Waiver from Alternative Learning Environments: The proposed charter school does not have an alternative for students who do not “fit” into the system. The alternatives provided by the Springdale School District are extensive and range from elementary to post high school. Presumably, if students need alternatives, they would return to the Springdale School District.
- D. ELL Instruction: The ESL program in Dr. Silano’s proposal appears limited in scope, concerned only with compliance issues. The Springdale School District leads the state in the area of ESL programming. The program options for ELL students range from newcomer centers to sheltered classes to fully integrated programming. In fact, this proposal does not appear to provide any advantage to an ELL student. In comparison, the Springdale School District has a fully functioning office with assessors, translators and support services available to parents. The teachers in Springdale have been recognized for their work with ESL students and families. In addition, we have a Rockefeller Foundation program to support parent leadership development and there are thirteen (13) nationally recognized family literacy programs to engage parents authentically in the education of their children. Dr. Silano’s proposal is silent on authentic parent engagement, especially in the area of ELL instruction.

In summary, the opportunity to provide parents a choice that is distinctly “value added” and worth the investment of the state’s resources should be at the heart of the expansion of the charter application process. There is no evidence provided that Dr. Silano’s proposal meets this important criterion. Furthermore, the proposed academic programs, ESL program, curriculum and instruction design and lack of a professional development plan for technology integration, counseling and a library media program do not come close to matching what is currently available within the Springdale School District.

The nature of the charter movement is to allow new ideas to come forward that provide clear and distinct options for students. Based on the charter application, Dr. Silano’s proposal is very duplicative regarding the instructional programs offered in Springdale schools. On the other hand, it is lacking in many of the programs that, through research, are found to be of particular benefit to children of poverty. Furthermore, any effort to diminish the resource base of the Springdale School District diminishes our capacity to serve the children of Springdale.

Overall, this proposal appears to be limited in scope without making a valid case for the necessity of this type of choice option for parents in Springdale. Therefore, the Springdale School District stands in opposition to this charter application and respectfully submits this letter as evidence for our opposition to Dr. Christine Silano's proposal. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Request for the State Board of Education
to Review the Decision Made by the Charter Authorizing Panel

Redfield Tri-County Charter School
Redfield, Arkansas

19 November 2013

State Board of Education Members c/o Ms. Mary Perry
Charter and Home Schools Coordinator
Arch Ford Education Building
Four Capitol Mall
Little Rock, Arkansas

Dear State Board of Education Members:

Redfield Tri-County Charter School (RTCCS) Board of Directors respectfully requests the State Board of Education review the Charter Authorizing Panel's decision to deny the RTCCS charter application. This request is based on the following reasons:

FINANCIAL STABILITY

During the hearing for RTCCS held on 14 November 2013, multiple panel members were evaluating RTCCS utilizing the budget from another application. RTCCS believes the members were accidentally using the Quest budget. The members utilizing the Quest budget during the hearing not only affected their perception of the financial stability of RTCCS, but also biased the remaining members of the panel with their comments.

The use of another applicant's budget in the review of RTTCS also resulted in damaging the credibility of the speaker for RTCCS. The speaker was confused by the questions and comments related to the Quest budget and stated at least twice that she was confused and did not understand what the panel members were looking at. The panel did not make an effort to clear up the confusion identified by the speaker but instead continued with the next question. The event unsettled the speaker and adversely affected her ability to respond to the remaining questions during the hearing.

RTCCS also included a Letter of Intent (LOI) from Mr. Ken Shollmier for a donation of $85,000 in their brief during the presentation portion of the hearing. Each panel member was given a copy of the LOI. RTCCS asserts none of the members considered this LOI while evaluating the financial stability of RTCCS. RTCCS believes had Mr. Shollmier's donation been considered in the evaluation, it would have alleviated the concerns of panel members on the amount of money budgeted for pupil transportation and textbooks.

Based on budgets submitted with their original applications, the two applications (Quest and Exalt) which were authorized by the panel had net revenue over expenditures ratios of approximately 4%. With the LOI from Mr. Shollmier included, RTCCS had net revenue over expenditures ratio of approximately 9%.

Panel members utilizing the Quest budget during the evaluation of the RTCCS application, while unintentional, is a significant issue. The LOI from Mr. Shollmier not being considered after it was presented to the panel had a major impact as well. RTCCS asserts these two reasons warrant the Charter Authorizing Panel's decision to be appealed.

DEVELOPMENT OF CURRICULUM

Concerns on the curriculum were not stated in the summary document. The summary document only listed one remaining unresolved issue. This issue dealt with the RTCCS ability to meet the needs of gifted and talented students. Gifted and talented services were addressed by RTCCS during the brief before the Charter Authorizing Panel.

RTCCS had submitted information on curriculum on Questions 5 and 7 in our application. The metrics for question C5 included "A clear description of the proposed educational program, including but not limited to the foundational educational philosophy and curricular and instructional strategies to be employed". There were no questions related to the curricular in the ADE Evaluation and Applicant Responses. ADE questions on C5 focused on the enrollment cap, instructional strategies, and length of school day.

RTCCS had submitted an application to join the Arkansas Public School Resource Center (APSRC) in July 2013. RTCCS intent was to utilize APSRC for curriculum expertise. The RTCCS application to join APSRC was denied because we were not authorized for a charter. This information led RTCCS to believe specifics related to curriculum development could be accomplished after authorization.

In the charter application, Question 7 stated "Describe the process that will be used to develop and align the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education". The verb tense of this statement indicates the curriculum does not have to be developed at this time. This wording coupled with the denial of the RTCCS application to join APSRC, led RTCCS to understand the specifics of curriculum could be determined after receiving authorization. RTCCS provided a general description of the curriculum in our application and responses, but also stated the curriculum would be fully aligned with and follow the Arkansas Common Core State Standards.

There was an ADE response to the RTCCS application answer on Question 7 and RTCCS provided more detail in our response document. When RTCCS received the ADE summary, there were no unresolved issues pertaining to the development and alignment of the curriculum. Based on no issues being identified, RTCCS believed their approach to develop and align the curriculum after receiving authorization was acceptable. Authorization would have allowed us to submit another application to APSRC and utilize their expertise. Had there been a statement in the summary indicating the ADE had unresolved issues with the development of the curriculum, RTCCS had funds available and would have paid a curriculum specialist to further define the curriculum in more detail than was included in our application and responses.

RTCCS asserts the ADE concerns pertaining to the development of curriculum should have been identified in the RTCCS Summary. This would have allowed RTCCS to hire a curriculum specialist and present more germane information pertaining to the development of curriculum during the hearing. RTCCS believes the oversight of not listing ADE concerns pertaining to curriculum development as an unresolved issue resulted in the applicant being caught off guard with the curriculum development questions. RTCCS has invested hundreds of hours of manpower researching, preparing the 501(c)(3) application, preparing the charter application, developing a budget, preparing responses to ADE questions, and developing the presentation which equates into tens of thousands of dollars. The cost of a curriculum specialist would have been a small price to pay in comparison.

RTCCS maintains the families living in the communities in the Pulaski, Grant, and Jefferson tri-county area have voiced their desire to have a charter school. Almost 800 signatures were collected in support of an open-enrollment charter school. There was no opposition to the RTCCS charter application. The middle schools near the Pulaski, Grant, and Jefferson tri-county area are in a Needs Improvement status. The RTCCS budget has net revenue to expenditure ratio of 9% with the inclusion of Mr. Shollmier's donation upon receiving authorization. There are no other charter schools in the area. The RTCCS application is the result of hundreds of hours of volunteer time. The families and communities of the Pulaski, Grant, and Jefferson tri-county area are passionate in their desire to have an open-enrollment charter school and hopeful their efforts to develop and sustain an open-enrollment charter school in the area are rewarded with an authorization.

The two areas, curriculum development and budget, were the only areas identified by the panel in making a motion to deny the RTCCS application. All members of the Charter Authorizing Panel cited finances and curriculum for their agreement with the motion to deny the RTCCS application. RTCCS asserts the Charter Authorizing Panel's decision to deny the RTCCS application should be reviewed by the State Board of Education.

Sincerely,

Redfield Tri-County Charter School

Gifted and Talented

14 November 2013

A non-discriminatory comprehensive identification plan will be used to identify students from all cultural and economic backgrounds. Nominations will be on-going and can come from community members, parents, staff and faculty, and self-nomination. Multi-criteria, both objective and subjective, will be used with no single criterion or cut-off score. ADE approved standardized achievement and mental ability tests, creative rating scales, and parent and teacher rating scales may be used as evaluation tools. An identification committee of at least 5 members, made up from faculty and/or community members and chaired by a trained gifted educator, will be named to assist with placement.

All content area and regular classroom teachers in grades 5 and 6 will serve the needs of the gifted student through a consultant teacher model. Working in tandem with these teachers, services will be delivered by developing management plans, demonstration lessons and monitoring student progress.

In grades 7 and 8, a trained teacher or consultant will work with content area teachers to design differentiated curriculum to meet the needs of the identified gifted student. Project based content and acceleration in content are just two examples of differentiation.

Field trips, guest speakers, Quiz Bowl, the Stock Market Game and Chess are examples of activities that may be offered to gifted and talented students. A chess club will be initiated where gifted students can teach chess to other students not in the gifted program.

A Gifted and Talented consultant will conduct on-going teacher training in addition to the training teachers receive during faculty in-service on the needs of the gifted. Teachers will be trained to differentiate the curriculum and to maintain records for the program.

The Gifted and Talented consultant will utilize a Pull-out program to deliver instructional services to the identified gifted students. The services will be delivered in an instructional space proportionately sized based on the number of identified gifted students served at any one time. The social and emotional needs of the gifted child will be met through peer interaction on projects, and other planned activities as well as through content satisfying to the intellectual needs of the student. Additionally, the Gifted and Talented consultant will be available to guide and assist teachers on meeting the social and emotional needs of the gifted students.

Waiver Updates

14 November 2013

Based on information received from the Arkansas Department of Education (ADE) legal staff in the Redfield Tri-County Charter School Summary, RTCCS would like to make the following changes to our request for waivers:

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-1005 Safe and Equitable Schools

RTCCS should have only requested a waiver of Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-1005(b)(5) because it pertains to ALE. Please amend the RTCCS request to only include Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-1005(b)(5) instead of Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-1005 in its entirety.

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-16-102 School Day Hours; Standards for Accreditation Section 10.01.4 and 14.0

RTCCS should not have requested a waiver of Ark. Code Ann. § 6-16-102. The amount of instructional time RTCCS is planning during the school day negates the need for this waiver request. Please disregard the RTCCS waiver request for Ark. Code Ann. § 6-16-102 School Day Hours; Standards for Accreditation Section 10.01.4 and 14.03.

- Section 6 and 7 of the ADE Rules Governing School District Requirements for Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, Minimum Salaries, and Documents Posted to District Websites

RTCCS should have requested a waiver request for Section 6 and 7 of the ADE Rules Governing School District Requirements for Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, Minimum Salaries, and Documents Posted to District Websites. Please amend the RTCCS waiver requests to include a waiver request for Section 6 and 7 of the ADE Rules Governing School District Requirements for Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, Minimum Salaries, and Documents Posted to District Websites.

Requested Waivers

Note from legal staff:

The Charter Authorizing Panel should examine each waiver requested by the applicant. Particular attention should be paid to the following waiver requests which traditionally have either not been granted or have warranted additional discussion by the authorizer:

- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-1005 Safe and Equitable Schools
 - The Applicant requested at waiver of this statute as it pertains to ALE. A waiver specific to ALE should only include Ark. Code Ann. § 6-15-1005(b)(5).
- Ark. Code Ann. § 6-16-102 School Day Hours; Standards for Accreditation Sections 10.01.4 and 14.03
 - The Applicant has indicated its program may necessitate a “school day” shorter or longer than six hours. However, the proposed daily schedule (Application, Attachment 5) shows 400 minutes of instructional time each day. This waiver is not necessary for an instructional day longer than six hours.
 - The Panel lacks the authority to grant a waiver of graduation requirements. However, in the past the authorizer has granted a waiver of the 120 clock hour requirement upon satisfaction that the charter will adhere to full curriculum alignment with Arkansas Frameworks.
- Sections 6 and 7 of the ADE Rules Governing School District Requirements for Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, Minimum Salaries, and Documents Posted to District Websites
 - Based on the statutory waivers requested, a waiver of these rules is necessary but was not requested.

The school will be located at 1811 HWY 365 North, Redfield, Arkansas and will be named Redfield Tri-County Charter Middle School (RTCCMS). RTCCS has been authorized by the Arkansas Secretary of State to transact business in the State of Arkansas as a Non-Profit Corporation. C-2 GOVERNING STRUCTURE

The Governing Structure section should explain how the school will be governed. It should present a clear picture of the school's governance processes and composition, what responsibilities various groups and people will have and the relationships among the groups.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Documentation of proper legal structure of the governing board and sponsoring entity;
- A comprehensive description of the planned relationship between the governing board of the school and governing board of the sponsoring entity;
- A clear description of the governing board's roles and responsibilities;
- Adequate policies and procedures for board operation, including board composition, member term length, and member selection;
- A clear, sensible delineation of roles and responsibilities in relation to governance and school management; and
- A reasonable plan for involving parents, staff, students and community in the decision-making of the school.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Explain the discrepancy between the statement that there are no term limits, consecutive or otherwise, and the statement about the regular rotation of members off the board.

The board members do not have term limits, consecutive or otherwise. The regular rotation of members mentioned in our application will be for the original members of the Redfield Tri-County Charter School Board. The original members have made a commitment to remain on the board for the first five years of the charter school. This commitment by the members ensures consistent, knowledgeable administration as the school is established. The rotation described in our application was to provide a means of stability while transitioning from the original members to new members and prevent the situation of having all new, inexperienced board members at one time.

C-3 MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission Statement should be meaningful and indicate what the school intends to do, for whom, and to what degree.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A mission statement that is clear and succinct.

Meets the Standard

C-4 EDUCATIONAL NEED

The Educational Need section should explain the need for a charter school in the proposed location and the innovative educational option offered by the charter school.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A description of the educational need for the charter school substantiated with valid and reliable data, and
- A description of the innovations that would distinguish the charter from other schools.

Meets the Standard

C-5 EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

The Educational Program section should describe the educational foundation of the school and the teaching and learning strategies that will be employed.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A clear description of the proposed educational program, including but not limited to the foundational educational philosophy and curricular and instructional strategies to be employed;
- Specific reasons that the school would be viable; and
- A description of the length of school day and school year that meets minimum state requirements.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Specify the enrollment cap requested for Year 5 when the charter will serve students in Grades 5-12.

By the fifth year of operation, the Redfield Tri-County Charter School will serve a maximum of 375 students in grades 5 – 8 as follows:

|-------------------------------------|--------------|
| 2014-2015 Grades 5,6,7,8 | 175 Students |
| 2015-2016 Grades 5,6,7,8,9 | 225 Students |
| 2016-2017 Grades 5,6,7,8,9,10 | 275 Students |
| 2017-2018 Grades 5,6,7,8,9,10,11 | 325 Students |
| 2018-2019 Grades 5,6,7,8,9,10,11,12 | 375 Students |

- Provide details about the instructional strategies to be employed at the charter.

In conjunction with the project-based learning, our teachers would be able to use a variety of instructional strategies. They could use brainstorming to theorize about potential outcomes, journal writing to document the process and observations during the performance of projects, or cooperative learning assignments to reinforce understanding of concepts.

Our goal is for our staff to use a variety of instructional strategies. Each student is unique and is capable of learning but may achieve understanding easier if more than traditional instructional strategies (i.e. lecture and drill and practice). Our teachers' professional development training will include information on a broad range of instructional strategies. Students that have access to teachers with the knowledge and ability to teach by using a variety of instructional strategies are more likely to improve academically.

- Describe the length of the school day and year.

The RTCCS school day will begin at 7:45 AM. Teachers will be available to assist students from 7:45 AM to 8:05 AM during a mentoring/tutoring period. This time is not mandatory but will be available to any student desiring additional assistance. First period will begin at 8:10 AM. The first seven periods will be 50 minutes each. The last period of the day (eighth period) will be 30 minutes. Lunch period will last 35 minutes. There will be a potential total of 400 minutes of teacher/student instructional time per day if a student participates in the optional time between 7:45 AM and 8:05 AM. There will be 380 minutes of teacher/student instructional time for those students not participating in the optional instructional time at the beginning of the school day.

The school year will consist of four quarters totally together for 178 days of instruction.

- Confirm the understanding that every digital course must be offered from a provider approved by the Arkansas Department of Education and must meet or exceed curriculum standards and requirements established by the Arkansas State Board of Education in accordance with all laws, rules, and procedures promulgated to ensure access to quality digital learning content and online blended learning.

The board members and administrators of the Redfield Tri-County Charter School will comply with the requirements for every digital course to be offered from a provider approved by the Arkansas Department of Education and to meet or exceed curriculum standards and requirements established by the Arkansas State Board of Education in accordance with all laws, rules, and procedures promulgated to ensure access to quality digital learning content and online blended learning.

C-6: ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT GOALS

The Academic Achievement Goals section should define the performance expectations for students and the school as whole.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Specific goals in:
- Reading;
- Reading Comprehension;
- Mathematics; and
- Mathematics Reasoning;
- Goals that are clear, measurable and data-driven;
- Goals on improving student achievement; and
- Valid and reliable assessment tools for measuring each of the defined goals.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Provide the testing instrument and levels of test scores expected for students annually in reading, reading comprehension, mathematics, and mathematic reasoning as AYP is no longer calculated.

RTCCS will utilize the Iowa Basic Skills Test (IBST) to measure the reading, reading comprehension, mathematics, and mathematic reasoning of our students. The first year of operation, the charter's annual measurable objectives (AMOs) will be based on the state AMOs. In following years, the charter's AMOs will be based upon the academic performance of the students who attend our charter. Our goal is for our students to meet or exceed the state's average scores and for the gap between students scoring below basic and basic to decrease as fast as the state's gap decreases for those students scoring below basic and basic.

RTCCS is aware of an upcoming change to Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC). Information on the ADE website indicates it may be implemented as early as 2014-2015. RTCCS will utilize whatever standardized test the state mandates to measure our students in reading, reading comprehension, mathematics, and mathematic reasoning. Our goal will be for our students will meet or exceed the state's average scores.

As grades are added to our charter, we will be utilizing End of Course exams as mandated by the ADE and administered according to the state testing schedule. Our students will meet or exceed the state's average scores.

Based on data from APSCN, our graduation rate will meet or exceed the state's graduation rate. Our first graduating class will be in May of 2019.

- Provide specific information that will be used to demonstrate academic improvement when it is stated, "Individual student scores will demonstrate increased improvement and students scoring below basic and basic will decrease annually while increasing proficient and advanced student scores within the school's initial five (5) year period." This should include the evaluation instrument, the expected improvement in proficient and advanced scores, the expected decrease in below basic and basic scores, and when the assessment will be conducted.

C-7: CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT AND ALIGNMENT

The Curriculum Development and Alignment section should define the process by which the design team developed (or chose) the curricular program of the school and illustrate alignment with Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and Common Core State Standards.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard of a curricular development and alignment program will present:

- Evidence that the curriculum aligns with, or a sound plan and timeline for aligning the curriculum with, the Arkansas Department of Education's content standards, benchmarks and performance standards.
- Evidence that the applicant is prepared to implement the requirements and timeframe of the Common Core State Standards.

Does Not Meet the StandardConcerns and Additional Questions:

- Describe the process that will be used to develop and align the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education.

Upon receiving authorization for a charter school, the RTCCS Board of Directors will begin the process of hiring a Director for the Redfield Tri-County Charter School. The Director will also be serving as the principal during the first year of operation for the Redfield Tri-County Charter School. The Director/Principal will be responsible for the process of aligning the curriculum to be utilized by the charter school with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education. RTCCS plans on taking full advantage of any and all assistance available from the Arkansas Department of Education in this endeavor. Monies have been budgeted for submitting an application to become a member of the Arkansas Public School Resource Center (APSRC). APSRC could also be a valuable source of assistance aligning the charter's curriculum. RTCCS budgeted to be able to hire the services of a Curriculum Specialist to assist in this task as well. Aligning the curriculum will be the top priority for the newly hired Director/Principal. The Director/Principal will utilize the ADE, the APRSC, and the services of a curriculum specialist if necessary along with research and their experience to successfully complete this task as expeditiously as possible.

- Provide the timeline for aligning curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards.

It is difficult to develop a specific timeline for the completion of the alignment of the curriculum to the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards. We are estimating it will take approximately four (4) to six (6) weeks for the Principal to complete the alignment but the process will continue after the initial alignment. RTCCS will require the Principal to complete the alignment of the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards before 01 July 2014. As teachers are hired, the principal will work with them to ensure the development of lesson content is consistent with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards.

- Confirm that the principal will take the lead on aligning the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards as the teacher job description on Page 22 indicates that the teacher will "develop framework based curriculum based on the Common Core State Standards."

The Principal will take the lead on aligning the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards. The teacher job description on Page 22 indicates they will develop framework based on the Common Core State Standards. The teacher job description on Page 22 should have stated the teachers will develop lesson content to satisfy the curriculum requirements that have been aligned with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards.

C-8: STUDENT SERVICES

The Student Services section should describe how the school will address specific services for its student body.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will describe the ways in which the following services will be provided to students even in those areas for which a waiver is requested:

- A guidance program that will serve all students;
- A health services program that will serve all students;
- A plan for a media center for use by all students;
- Sound plans for educating special education students that reflect the full range of programs and services required to provide such students with a high quality education;
- A transportation plan that will serve all eligible students;
- An alternative education plan for eligible students, including those determined to be at-risk and to offer access to one or more approved Alternative Learning Environments;
- A plan to serve students who are English language learners; and
- Plans for offering access to one or more approved Alternative Learning Environments; and
- Plans for a gifted and talented program for eligible students.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

Guidance Services

- Explain the “traditional aspects of a contemporary guidance program” that will be included in the charter’s guidance program.

The charter will provide guidance to students on course selection, career counseling, and personal/social developing counseling. The teachers will provide guidance program services such as advising students on course selection. This will be done as-needed due to the counselor position being a part-time position during the first year of operation. The part-time counselor will be focused on career counseling and providing opportunities for the students to be exposed to information on a variety of jobs and career fields.

- Explain the counselor responsibilities that will be assigned to each staff position. Include the responsibilities that will be assigned to a part-time counselor in 2014-2015 and a full-time counselor in 2015-2016 as these are budgeted positions.

The teachers will be advising students on course selection. This will be done as-needed due to the counselor position being a part-time position during the first year of operations. The part-time counselor will be focused on career counseling and personal/social development.

Health Services

- Provide the names of the companies and/or individuals with whom the charter may contract for health services.

Potential names of companies and/or individuals with whom the charter may contract with for health services include Rhonda Ply or Jefferson Comprehensive Care Clinic who currently operates the clinic in Redfield.

- Specify the health services for which the charter will contract.

The charter will contract the screening, referral, and follow-up procedures for all students. The contractor will also be responsible for providing and maintaining current health appraisals records for all students according with guidelines developed by the Arkansas Department of Education. IAW Act 1565 of 1999, the contractor will also provide students with special care needs, including chronically ill, medically fragile, and technology dependent, and students with other health impairments will have an Individualized Health Care Plan. The contractor will also perform invasive medical procedures required by students and provided at school because they must be performed by trained, licensed personnel who are licensed to perform the task. The contractor will also provide custodial health care services required by students under an Individualized Health Care Plan.

- Confirm that the charter will contract for a nurse as the expenses for a part-time nurse are budgeted in a health services vendor line.

The charter will contract for a part-time nurse and has this budgeted in our first and second year of operation.

- Explain the ways in which daily responsibilities for student health issues will be handled and by whom when the nurse is not on campus.

Daily responsibilities for student health issues not requiring a licensed person perform them will be performed by the administrative assistant. Daily responsibilities requiring a licensed person to perform them will be scheduled while the part-time nurse is on campus.

Media Center Services

- Explain where the students will access technology to use “in conjunction with projects and assignments” as was stated in the educational plan since it is stated that there may be only one computer in the media center during the school’s first year of operation.

The charter will also have a computer lab on campus. The lab will have a minimum of eight (8) computers. The students will be able to access the lab during the twenty minute tutoring time from 7:45 AM to 8:05 AM, during their lunch period, and during study hall in addition to any time spent using the computers during their classes. RTCCS will be pursuing grants that would allow additional computers/tablets to be included in the lab, the media center, and the classroom.

Special Education Services

- Confirm the understanding that the staff will provide special education students with all accommodations and services outlined in the IEP.

RTCCS understands the staff will provide special education students with all accommodations and services outlined in their IEP.

Transportation Services

- Provide details about transportation that will be provided for students.

Once RTCCS receives authorization for a charter, two used school buses will be purchased. The buses will pass inspection and be maintained as mandated by the State of Arkansas.

The drivers will meet all training requirements as specified by the State of Arkansas and hold a Commercial Driver's License. Bus drivers will also pass a physical examination given by a licensed physician or an advanced practice nurse at least every two (2) years.

The Director/Principal will map out bus routes for the area in an eight (8) to ten (10) mile radius of the charter school. RTCCS will provide a satellite pick-up for the students. Sites and times for pick up and drop off will be identified and published so parents and students are aware of the site(s) closest to them.

English Language Learner Services

- Explain the types of English language instruction, other than immersion, that will be considered and explain how the appropriate type of instruction for each student will be determined.

In addition to immersion, the charter will also offer small-group interventions and high-quality vocabulary instruction during the day. Supplemental assignments and utilizing instructional activities that would present an opportunity for students with different English language proficiencies to work together in pairs in a structured environment may also be used to augment the charter's approach to English Language Learner Services.

RTCCS did budget a $550 stipend for the staff member responsible for ensuring the charter complies with federal and state ELL regulations, recordkeeping and confidentiality regulations, and knowledge of diagnostic testing. This staff member will be responsible for working with the teachers of students with ELL needs to ensure the instructional strategies that best fits the students are being used and for administering the annual ELDA testing requirements.

RTCCS will work with the ADE to ensure all of the requirements for ELL are addressed and satisfied. If additional funding needs to be budgeted to cover travel or training expenses for the staff member responsible for ELL, RTCCS will work with the ADE to determine an appropriate amount to include in the budget.

Gifted and Talented Services

- Explain how gifted and talented students will be identified.

Gifted and talented students could be nominated by teachers, staff, parents, community members, or by self-nomination. Students could also be identified for consideration as gifted and talented based on academic performance on standardized tests.

- Explain which teachers will serve gifted and talented students and describe specific training that the teachers will receive in meeting the needs of gifted and talented students.

Each of the gifted and talented student's teachers would be available to serve their needs. It would depend on which areas of study the student is gifted. All of the teachers will be receiving gifted and talented training. The Principal will be responsible for ensuring the teachers receive this training as part of their professional development training.

- Explain how the social and emotional needs of gifted and talented students will be met.

The social and emotional needs of the gifted child will be met through peer interaction on projects and other planned activities (e.g. field trips, guest speakers) as well as through content satisfying to the intellectual needs of the student.

C-9: GEOGRAPHICAL SERVICE AREA

The Geographical Service Area section must outline the impact of a new school opening within the current public education system.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- The specific geographical area that would be served by the charter school; and
- Information on the school districts likely to be affected by charter school, including data on the expected number of students to transfer to the charter school.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

Confirm that enrollment will be open to any Arkansas student who wants to attend.

Enrollment in the Redfield Tri-County Charter School will be open to any Arkansas student who wants to attend.

C-10: ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORTS

The Annual Progress Reports section should define how the academic progress of individual students and the school as a whole will be measured, analyzed, and reported.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A timeline for data compilation and completion of an annual report to parents, the community and the Charter Authorizing Panel that outlines the school's progress; and
- A plan for dissemination of the annual report to appropriate stakeholders.

Meets the Standard

C-11: ENROLLMENT CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES

The Enrollment Criteria and Procedures section should describe how the school will attract and enroll its student body, including any criteria for admission and enrollment. Applicants must also provide assurances for a random, anonymous lottery selection process.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A student recruitment plan that will provide equal opportunity for all parents and students to learn about and apply to the school;
- An enrollment and admissions process that is open, fair, and in accordance with applicable law; and
- A process for, and a guarantee of, a random, anonymous lottery process should there be more student applications than can be accommodated under the terms of the charter.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Confirm the understanding that transcripts from prior schools cannot be required for students to enroll and attend the charter.

RTCCS administration and board members confirm their understanding that transcripts from prior schools cannot be required for students to enroll and attend the charter.

- Clarify whether parents with students on waiting lists will have to apply the following year.

It is our understanding the waiting lists are only valid for the year the application was submitted. Parents with students on waiting lists will have to apply the following year to be eligible for any openings. If there are more applications than openings the following year, another lottery will be announced and held. All applications submitted for the current school year will be in the lottery. The number of openings in the grade will determine how many will be accepted to enroll and how many will be on the waiting list. The waiting list will be valid for the school year for which the application was submitted.

- Explain what is meant by, "The waiting list is valid until the next time RTCCS is required to conduct a random, anonymous student selection."

The waiting list will be valid for the school year in which it was created. Once that school year is over, it is no longer valid. During the next application cycle, if there are more applications than there are openings, another lottery will be held and a new waiting list created. If the number of applications are less than or equal to the number of openings, there will be no need for a lottery and no waiting list.

C-12: STAFFING PLAN

The Staffing Plan section should describe the job duties of the school director and other key personnel. This section should also describe the professional qualifications which will be required of employees.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A job description for the school director and other key personnel, including but not limited to an operations director, board members, teachers, etc.;
- An outline of the professional qualifications required for administrators, teachers, counselors, etc.;
- A staffing plan that clearly outlines both the types and numbers of positions to be filled at the school and salary scales for such positions, and
- The staffing plan presented in this section matches the staff members noted in the budget.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Explain when the teachers will be employed if they are to “develop framework based curriculum based on the Common Core State Standards.”

The reference to "develop framework based curriculum based on the Common Core State Standards" was erroneous. Teachers will develop lesson content to satisfy the curriculum requirements that have been aligned with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards by the Principal. Hiring teachers will be the responsibility of the Principal and will begin after the Director/Principal is hired. The job description has been updated to reflect this change and is included below.

TEACHERS

The responsibilities of the teachers will include but not be limited to the delivery of the components of the instructional program, developing lesson content to satisfy the curriculum requirements that have been aligned with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the Common Core State Standards, design and implement daily planning to facilitate instruction of the curriculum using project-based, traditional and other applicable instructional strategies, monitor and evaluate student progress, prepare and participate in parent conferences, develop lines of communication with parents and participate in meetings as necessary with community outside educational entities.

Desired requirements: Must have a Bachelor's Degree in or education from an accredited college or university with a minimum of one year of experience in public education in Arkansas and/or meet requirements for a Highly Qualified Teacher.

- Revise the qualifications for the special education teacher to require a special education license.

RTCCS has revised the qualifications for the special education teacher to include a requirement for a special education license.

SPECIAL EDUCATION TEACHER

The responsibilities of the special education teacher will include but not be limited to all aspects of the school's special education services program, work cooperatively with parents, teachers and others concerning identification and assessment of students, development and implementation of student individual education plans and compliance with all federal and state guidelines concerning the program.

Desired requirements: Must have a special education license and a Bachelor's Degree in special education from an accredited college or university with a minimum of one year of experience in public education in Arkansas and/or meet requirements for a Highly Qualified Teacher.

- Confirm that instructional aides hired with Title I funds or working in a Title I School-wide Program will highly qualified as required by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act and perform the duties deemed appropriate in the federal statute.

RTCCS confirms that instructional aides hired with Title I funds or working in a Title I School-wide Program will highly qualify as required by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act and perform the duties deemed appropriate in the federal statute.

C-13: BUSINESS AND BUDGETING PLAN

The Business and Budgeting Plan section should describe how the charter school will organize its business office and manage its fiscal responsibilities.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- An appropriate plan for managing procurement activities;
- A description of the personnel who will perform business duties, including the requisite qualifications of any proposed personnel;
- A realistic timeline and process by which the governance structure will review and adopt an annual budget;
- A balanced two-year budget estimate that accurately reflects the revenue currently available to the school and expenditures for program implementation and does not rely on one-time grants or other funds that are not presently guaranteed, and
- A budget that includes costs for all personnel, programs, and expenses described in other sections of the application.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

- Provide the timeline and process by which the governing body will review and adopt an annual budget.

The budget will be developed before 20 June and approved by the RTCCS Board of Directors by 30 June. Once approved, the budget will be submitted to the Arkansas Department of Education by 01 September.

The Director will present a financial report at each of the monthly RTCCS Board of Directors meeting. The financial report will compare budget to actual expenditures and used as a tool to ensure the fiscal stability of the charter.

- Provide information on the vendors being considered to provide substitute personnel. RTCCS has researched Teachers On Call, SubTeach, and Aesop Substitute Management as possible vendors to be used to provide substitute personnel.

SubTeach is a company that strives to provide better trained substitute teachers to improve the quality of education in the classroom when the substitute is on campus. They provide training in classroom management, following lesson plans, innovative instructional techniques, and tips on becoming a prepared and professional substitute teacher. The charter will only have to call one number to get a substitute and they handle all substitute personnel files and handle all payroll issues.

Teachers On Call and Aesop Substitute Management are both similar in functionality to SubTeach and should provide the same service.

At this time, RTCCS does not anticipate utilizing any of the vendors to provide substitutes. We will select and employ our own substitutes at this time. Vendors may be considered at a later date as the charter grows.

C-14: FINANCIAL AND PROGRAMMATIC AUDIT PLAN

The Financial and Programmatic Audit Plan section should provide the procedure and timeline by which an annual audit will be conducted. This section should also include an outline for the information that will need to be reported to ADE and the community.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A sound plan for annually auditing school's financial and programmatic operations.

If the application names an accountant other than the Division of Legislative Audit to perform the first-year audit, the named accountant meets the requirements of Arkansas Department of Education Rules Governing Publicly Funded Educational Institution Audit Requirements and is not listed on any ineligibility list maintained by ADE or the Division of Legislative Audit.

Meets the Standard

C-15: ARKANSAS PUBLIC SCHOOL COMPUTER NETWORK ASSURANCES

The Arkansas Public School Computer Network (APSCN) Assurances section should provide documentation of the applicant's understanding of and participation in the required state finance and educational data reporting system.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Assurance that the charter school will participate in APSCN and will comply with all state statutory requirements regarding the APSCN finance and educational data reporting system.

Meets the Standard

C-16: FACILITIES

The Facilities section should identify and describe the facilities to be used by the school, any changes to be made to the facilities, and the owners of the facilities.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- An identified facility appropriate to meet the needs of the school over the term of its charter;
- A realistic plan for remodeling or adapting a facility, if necessary, to ensure that it is appropriate and adequate for the school's program, the school's targeted population, and the public;

- Evidence that the school understands the costs of securing and improving a facility and has access to the necessary resources to fund the facility plan; and
- A sound plan for continued operation, maintenance, and repair of the facility.

For schools that will be using district-owned facilities, a response that meets the standard will present:

- Documentation that the school district and charter school officials are in agreement over the use of the facility and its equipment.

For schools that will NOT be using district-owned facilities, a response that meets the standard will present:

- Documentation that the property owner and school are in agreement over the use of the facility and its equipment;
- A statement of the facilities' compliance with applicable codes; and
- A detailed outline of any relationships between the property owner and:
 - Members of the local board of the public school district where the charter school will be located;
 - The employees of the public school district where the charter school will be located;
 - The sponsor of the charter school; and
 - Employees, directors and/or administrators of the charter school.

Meets the Standard

C-17: CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Conflicts of Interest section should identify any potential conflicts of interest among the individuals involved with the proposed charter school and explain how conflicts will be addressed.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present full disclosure of any potential conflicts of interest and explain how conflicts, if any, will be addressed.

Meets the Standard

C18: FOOD SERVICES

This section should describe how the school will address food services for its student body.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A food service plan that will serve all eligible students.
- A management plan that reflects a clear understanding of federal law and requirements if the charter school plans to participate in the National School Lunch program.

Meets the Standard

C19: PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

The Parental Involvement section should describe how parents or guardians of enrolled students, the school employees, and other members of the community will make a positive impact on the school and its educational program.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- A plan for involving parents and guardians in the school's education programs; and

- A proposal that involves the parents of students, employees and the broader community in carrying out the terms of the charter.

Meets the Standard

C-20: WAIVERS

The Waivers section should discuss all waivers requested from local or state law.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Each law, rule, and standard by title, number, and description for which a waiver is requested;
- A rationale for each waiver request; and
- An explanation of the way that each waiver would assist in implementing the educational program of the charter and/or fulfilling the charter's mission.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

See and respond to comments from Arkansas Department of Education legal staff.

LEGAL COMMENTS

Waivers Requested:

Ark. Code Ann. § 6-10-106 Uniform Dates for Beginning and End of School Year

The applicant should explain why this waiver is necessary if it will follow the calendar of the White Hall School District.

This was an error. RTCCS discussed following Sheridan School District's calendar but decided to follow White Hall School District's calendar. This request should have been removed from our application before we submitted it.

Arkansas Code Title VI, Chapter 17, Subchapter 4

The applicant should specify which statutes within Subchapter 4 it seeks waivers from.

RTCCS is wishing to obtain waivers Teacher and Administrator Licensure requires. We believe this would be in Arkansas Code 6-17-401. We would also seek a waiver for Superintendent Licensure as stated in Arkansas Code 6-17-427.

Ark. Code Ann. § 6-17-1302

The applicant should clarify this waiver. The application appears to attempt to add licensed teachers to this statute to make the school employees minimum sick leave applicable to licensed educators. The Charter Authorizing Panel has authority to waive statutes, but not rewrite statutes.

This waiver request was an error. Please disregard.

Waivers Not Requested:

RTCCS would like to include the following requests for waivers that were not included in our original application.

RTCCS would like to request a waiver of from Arkansas Code Ann. § 6-16-105 (United States Flag) General Provisions and from Arkansas Code Ann. § 6-16-106 (Arkansas State Flag) General Provisions. We will be leasing the location for our charter and may not be able to place flags on the grounds. We will attempt to include this in our lease agreement, but that agreement cannot be finalized until charter authorization and approval from the Commissioner of Education has approved the lease agreement. If we are unable to place the flags on the grounds of the charter school, we will prominently display the United States Flag and the Arkansas State Flag in an indoor area and will display the flags at school events. Our students will be taught respect for the flags and will pledge allegiance the United States Flag at appropriate times.

School Superintendent

The applicant requested a waiver Ark. Code Ann. § 6-13-109. In order to effectuate this waiver, the applicant should also request a waiver of Section 15.01 of the Standard for Accreditation. RTCCS would like to request a waiver of Section 15.01 of the Standard for Accreditation. This request along with our existing request for waiver from Arkansas Code Ann. § 6-13-109 would allow us the ability to meet the unique demands of hiring a superintendent of an open enrollment charter school.

Ark. Code Ann. § 6-17-2201 et seq. Classified Employees Minimum Salary Act and Ark. Code Ann. § 6-17-2301 et seq. Classified Personnel Policies and Committees

In order to effectuate this waiver, the applicant should request a waiver of Sections 5 and 8 of ADE Rules Governing School District Requirements for Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, Minimum Salaries, and Documents Posted to District Websites.

RTCCS would like to request a waiver of Sections 5 and 8 of the ADE Rules Governing School District Requirements for Personnel Policies, Salary Schedules, Minimum Salaries, and Documents Posted to District Websites to effectuate the request for waivers to Arkansas Code Ann. § 6-17-2201 et seq. Classified Employees Minimum Salary Act and Arkansas Code Ann. § 6-17-2301 et seq. Classified Personnel Policies and Committees.

It does not appear that the applicant requested a waiver of minimum compensation and personnel policies for licensed employees. The applicant should confirm its intention to abide by all statutes and rules regarding compensation and personnel policies of licensed employees.

RTCCS would like to request a waiver from Arkansas Code Ann. §§ 6-17-201(c)(2), 6-17-2203, and 6-17-2403. RTCCS intends to pay certified and classified staff salaries and hourly rates based on their experience which are similar to and competitive with the salaries and rates of schools of similar size.

English Language Learners

The applicant did not budget any expenditures for English Language Learners “because of waiver.” No waiver was requested, and it is unclear what provisions of the English Language Learner requirements that the applicant would request to waive.

The entry of “No fund because of waiver” for ELL was an error by RTCCS. Please disregard. RTCCS will comply with the regulations and needs for any student with ELL requirements.

In addition to English immersion, the charter will also offer small-group interventions and high-quality vocabulary instruction during the day. Supplemental assignments and utilizing instructional activities that would present an opportunity for students with different English language proficiencies to work together in pairs in a structured environment may also be used to augment the charter's approach to English Language Learner Services.

RTCCS did budget a $550 stipend for the staff member responsible for ensuring the charter complies with federal and state ELL regulations, recordkeeping and confidentiality regulations, and knowledge of diagnostic testing. This staff member will be responsible for working with the teachers of students with ELL needs to ensure the instructional strategies that best fits the students are being used and for administering the annual ELDA testing requirements.

RTCCS will work with the ADE to ensure all of the requirements for ELL are addressed and satisfied. If additional funding needs to be budgeted to cover travel or training expenses for the staff member responsible for ELL, RTCCS will work with the ADE to determine an appropriate amount to include in the budget.

Health Services

The applicant did not budget any expenditures for Health Services, but no waivers were requested.

RTCCS did budget $20,000 for a part-time nurse to be contracted on line 117 of the Budget under V-HS1 along with $250 for supplies and $1000 for equipment in 2014-2015. We also budgeted $20,400 for a part-time nurse to be contracted in 2015-2016 along with $350 for supplies and $500 for equipment.

C-21: DESEGREGATION ASSURANCES

The Desegregation Assurances section should describe the applicant's understanding of applicable statutory and regulatory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- Assurance that the charter school will comply with all applicable federal and state statutory and regulatory requirements regarding the creation and maintenance of desegregated public schools; and
- An outline of the potential impact of the proposed charter school on those desegregation efforts already in place in affected public school districts.

Partially Meets the Standard

Concerns and Additional Questions:

See and respond to comments from Arkansas Department of Education legal staff.

LEGAL COMMENTS

The applicant should describe the potential impact of the proposed charter school on the efforts of the affected public school district(s) to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools. The applicant should describe any desegregation obligations of the affected public school district(s) and how the applicant determined it will not impact any court order or statutory obligations.

RTCCS will comply with all applicable federal and state statutory and regulatory requirements regarding the creation and maintenance of desegregated public schools.

Based on information from other open-enrollment charter applications for open-enrollment charter schools affecting the Pulaski County Special School District (PCSSD), the federal District Court has determined the PCSSD is unitary in all respects concerning inter-district student assignment. PCSSD would therefore have no existing obligations to comply with court orders or statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.

A motion was filed by the Little Rock School District in 2010 to enforce the 1989 Settlement Agreement in the PCSSD Desegregation case. The motion contended that an open-enrollment charter school within Pulaski County would interfere with M-M Stipulation and the Magnet Stipulation. US District Judge D.P. Marshall, Jr. denied the motion and stated "The cumulative effect of open enrollment charter schools in Pulaski County on the stipulation magnet schools and M-to-M transfers has not, as a matter of law, substantially defeated the relevant purposes of the 1989 Settlement Agreement, the magnet stipulation, or the M-to-M stipulation." Little Rock School District, et al. v. North Little Rock School District et al., Lorene Joshua et al., Arkansas

Virtual Academy, et al., Case No. 4:82-cv-00866-DPM, US District Court-Eastern Division of Arkansas Western Division, Document 4809.

Based on this information, the 1989 Settlement Agreement does not contain any restrictions nor does there appear to be any existing federal District Court desegregation order that would prohibit the authorization of an open-enrollment charter school in Redfield due to it potentially enrolling students from the Pulaski County Special School District.

C-22: SUSTAINABILITY OF THE PROGRAM

The Sustainability section should describe the applicants' plan to ensure continued success of the charter school over time.

Evaluation Criteria:

A response that meets the standard will present:

- The names, experience, and qualifications of the individuals responsible for the application; and
- The plan to ensure the sustainability of the charter in the future.

B. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Provide the mission statement of the proposed school.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will strive to instill in each student core character values, a sense of community service, and a love of learning. Students will be empowered to achieve academic excellence and will be cognizant of their potential to change themselves and their community.

Briefly describe the key programmatic features that the school will implement in order to accomplish the mission.

Applicant Response:

Key programmatic features RTCCS will implement in order to accomplish our mission are as follows:

- * Focus on college and career readiness for all students.
- * Implementation of inquiry-based teaching methods (problem-based learning and project-based learning) as primary teaching method complimented with classical teaching method.
- * Initiate communication with entities with the goal of developing partnerships. These organizations would have expertise in areas such as engineering, science, math, and arts. These partnerships will be utilized to bring in individuals from the community and surrounding areas to enrich our curriculum.
- * Introduce students to the concept of core character values such as civic duty, honesty, respect, and kindness.
- * Strict discipline policy for behavior that detracts from the learning environment.
- * Introduction to computer technology as permitted by budgetary constraints.
- * Involvement in community service projects as permitted by budgetary constraints.

C. NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED CHARTER SCHOOL

The applicant for the proposed charter school, if approved by the authorizer, agrees to operate the educational program described below in accordance with the provisions described within this document, Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-101 et seq., the State Board of Education Rules Governing Charter Schools, and the attached assurances.

Provide a narrative description of the various components of the proposed charter school by responding to the following prompts:

1. Describe the results of the public hearing, which was held for the purpose of assessing support for the establishment of this public charter school. Provide copies of supporting evidence.

Attach documentation to demonstrate that each of the following requirements of Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-302 was met:

- A. The notice of the public hearing was published on a weekly basis for at least three (3) consecutive weeks prior to the date of the hearing in a newspaper having general circulation in the school district in which the school will likely be located.
- B. The notice of the public hearing was not published in the classified or legal notice section of the newspaper.
- C. The last publication date of the notice was no less than seven days prior to the public meeting.
- D. Within seven calendar days following the first publication of the notice of the public hearing, emails announcing the public hearing were sent to the superintendent of each of the school districts from which the open-enrollment public charter school is likely to draw students for the purpose of enrollment and the superintendent of any district that is contiguous to the district in which the open-enrollment public charter school will be located.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS held three public hearings in July 2013. The locations for the public hearings were in the Redfield American Legion Building, the Lone Pine Missionary Baptist Church in Hensley, and the Orion Missionary Baptist Church which has a Redfield address but is in close proximity to the eastern portion of Grant County that RTCCS is targeting. The meetings were published in the Arkansas Section of the Arkansas Democrat/Gazette on the three Sundays immediately preceding the meeting held on Monday, July 8. The last publication of the notice was no less than seven days prior to the public meeting held on Monday, 8 July 2013. The meetings were also published in the Sheridan Headlight on three consecutive Wednesdays beginning July 3rd. Emails with the information for the public meetings were sent to the superintendents of each school district (White Hall, Sheridan, Pulaski County Special) within seven calendar days following the first publication of the notice of the public hearing. Documentation for the first public hearing dates of publication, location of advertisement, and confirmation of payment are included in this application. RTCCS was only required to have one public meeting and all documentation required for the charter application is included for the meeting held on 8 July 2013. The documentation for the other meetings' advertisements in the Sheridan Headlight is not included as part of the application.

All of the meetings were held on Monday nights from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm. The meetings took place on July 8, July 15, and July 22. RTCCS Board of Directors developed a tri-fold that was distributed to attendees of the meeting and developed a PowerPoint presentation that was presented at the meeting. After the presentation, the floor was opened up so that those in attendance could ask questions of the RTCCS Board of Directors. Three representatives from Sheridan School District attended the last meeting at Orion Missionary Baptist Church. They said if Redfield received charter authorization, they would support our efforts in whatever way they could.

Questions were on-topic and brought about meaningful discussion during the meetings. Attendees were supportive of our efforts to get a charter school authorized in Redfield. Attendees were informed about the RTCCS web site and email address in case they thought of questions they wanted answered after the meeting ended. After the meeting was concluded, members of the RTCCS Board of Directors were available to talk with individuals one-on-one. No one present spoke in opposition to the charter school.

Almost eight hundred (800) signatures on petitions, over forty (40) letters from parents, letters from local businesses, a letter from the Redfield mayor, Mayor Tony Lawhon, and a letter from State Representative Andy Mayberry have been collected in support of Redfield pursuing a charter school. These documents are available for review.

2. Describe the governing structure of the open-enrollment charter school, including board composition, selection process, and responsibilities. Also describe the role of the administrators, faculty, parents, students, and community members in the leadership and decision-making of the school. As part of your response, answer the following specific questions:
- A. Identify what individual, job position(s), or entity(s) will have final decision-making authority for the school in the areas of (1) finance and purchasing; (2) student discipline; (3) hiring and firing of staff; and (4) hiring and firing of the school director or superintendent.
 - B. Specify how the final decision-maker(s) identified in response to (A)(3) will be selected or elected, including (1) length of term, (2) method of selection or election, and (3) who will have the authority to participate in the selection or election process.
 - C. Explain how and to what extent the school's leadership will be accountable to parents.

Applicant Response:

The original board membership of Redfield Tri-County Charter School (RTCCS) was appointed by our parent organization, Keep Redfield Middle School. The members of the RTCCS Board of Directors then voted on officers for the group. The original members will retain their positions for up to five years to allow for stability while the school is established and grows to a school system servicing grades 5th through 12th.

- A. The RTCCS Board of Directors will have final decision-making authority for the RTCCS in areas of finance and purchasing, hiring and firing of staff, and hiring and firing of the school director. It will also have final decision-making authority on student discipline issues that have been appealed.
- B. Once the school is established, the treasurer position will become a regular member and the Chief Financial Officer of the charter school will provide financial information to the board when necessary. The members (e.g. Member 1 (M1) through Member 7 (M7)) will be representative of the following groups:

- M1 - nominations accepted for Jefferson County representative
- M2 - nominations accepted for a teacher or staff member of the charter school
- M3 - nominations from Parent Teacher Organization of parents who are members
- M4 - nominations accepted for a Redfield community representative
- M5 - nominations accepted for a Pulaski County representative
- M6 - nominations accepted for a Grant County or Saline County representative
- M7 - will be an at large position

The current board members and the position they hold are as follows:

- M1 - Mr. Larry O'Briant, President, 40+ years of experience in education

Board members shall be sought who reflect the qualities, qualifications and diversity determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall present a slate of potential directors and officers for election by the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall be self-perpetuating. Each Director's term shall be for a term of one(1) year beginning on the date designated by the Board of Directors upon electing such Director and shall continue until such term ends and such director's successor has been elected and qualified, or until the director's death, resignation, or removal. There shall be no limit to the number of terms, consecutive or otherwise, during which a person may serve as a director.

Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

The Board of Directors may remove any director or officer from his/her position by two thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, provided that a written statement of the reason or reasons shall have been delivered to such Director or Officer at least thirty (30) days before any final action is taken by the Board of Directors. Such statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time when, and the place where, the Board it so take action on the removal. The officer or director shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the Board of Directors at the time and place mentioned in the notice.

The Board of Directors may fill vacancies on the Board of Directors that occur for any reason after the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors.

The original Board of Directors will remain in their positions until the charter has grown to a 5th through 12th grade campus (which should be five years from the opening of the charter). The members will start to be replaced gradually.

An annual meeting of the Board of Directors for the election of directors and officers and such other business as may come before the meeting shall be held once a year, at such time and at such place, as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.

During the annual board meeting the initial members of the Board of Directors who are ending their fifth year of service shall begin the process of rotating off the board. Members M2, M3, M6, and M7 will rotate off the board after their fifth year of service. The following year, members M1, M4, and M5 will rotate off the board.

- C. The RTCCS Board of Directors will have at least one member representing the parents of RTCCS students once the school has grown to a 5th through 12th campus. The parents will also be able to address the board during monthly meetings. The school's leadership will take into consideration all suggestions brought to them from parents. The school will also be responsible for providing all annual reports mandated by the state. These reports will be accessible on the school's website or in hard-copy format if a parent requests it. Teachers will also work with parents while educating their students. There are also two scheduled parent-teach conferences during the school year where the teachers and staff will be available to parents. Parents will have the opportunity to join a campus based parent/teacher organization which will afford them the opportunity to interact with teachers and staff.

3. Give the mission statement for the proposed charter school.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will strive to instill in each student core character values, a sense of community service, and a love of learning. Students will be empowered to achieve academic excellence and will be cognizant of their potential to change themselves and their community.

4. Describe the educational need for the school. Include the innovations that will distinguish the charter from other schools.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will provide a quality option for those students that prefer a small school setting and/or shorter commutes to school. A small school setting will afford the teachers and staff the opportunity to get to know each student and allow for the forging of relationships with the students and the ability to determine each student's strengths, weaknesses, and learning style. It would also be beneficial for students that need to be able to participate in extracurricular activities for motivation to stay in school instead of dropping out. Inquiry-based teaching methods might be more successful in educating those students that do not do well in a lecture-based setting.

Middle school students in and around the Redfield area are spending between one and two hours riding the bus each day. The majority (approximately 60%) of these students qualifies for free or reduced meal program. These students are at risk to have truancy issues, lower grades and/or test scores, and to experience exclusion from extracurricular activities due to the length of their bus ride. The students are dependent on the school bus to get to and from school. Many of their families do not have the income to transport them to/from school or cannot due to the demands of their jobs. The majority of parents work north of Redfield. The location of our school would provide an opportunity to dramatically reduce the length of our students' bus ride and increase the chance of their parents being present for and involved in school activities after work. Parental involvement in their child's education is extremely important.

The families with children in and around Redfield are middle to low income families. They choose to live in rural areas and would prefer to send their children to smaller schools if given that option. There are students which are at risk for dropping out of high school if they attend a larger school. These students need a smaller school to allow them to build relationships with teachers and fellow students. Smaller schools provide a greater opportunity to participate in all activities and provide them a feeling of belonging in the student body.

In the past four (4) years, there have been three (3) students from the Redfield area that started as sophomores at the White Hall High School and dropped out of school within the first few weeks. It is impossible to determine the exact reason the students dropped out, but it may have been related to the size of the school and those students' inability to thrive in a school environment of over nine hundred (900) students and forge relationships with their teachers and peers.

Our school will provide students the opportunity to attend school in a community that strongly supports education. Based on information from the last census, Redfield was one of only two cities in Jefferson County to have growth. Jefferson County is struggling with population and economic decline. Schools play an important part of families' decision to move to a community. Redfield has a long history (over one hundred years) of providing education for our children. Our residents have bonded together to pursue getting a charter. We have a group of people that have voluntarily devoted countless hours in this effort. Close to eight-hundred (800) signatures were collected in support of a charter school in Redfield. Our community is committed to providing a quality education and is determined to get the authorization for a charter school.

The innovations that will distinguish our charter school from other schools are our focus on college and career readiness, inquiry-based teaching, our efforts to form partnerships with local entities to enrich students' experiences on projects and in exposure to different career opportunities, community involvement through community service projects, and the infusion of technology into the curricula. Our students will become members of our school family and will leave our school with a love for learning.

5. Describe the educational program to be offered by the charter school.

Applicant Response:

The educational program of the RTCCS shall consist of grades five (5) through grade eight (8) during year one (2014-2015). RTCCS plans to have twenty-five (25) students in 5th grade and fifty (50) students in each of the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades the first year of operation. We will add at least one grade annually until the campus is a 5th through 12th campus.

The educational program will focus on college and career readiness for all students. The educational program will be designed to specifically target career preparation. As students mature, they see themselves in a particular career in their future. The study of career pathways will be incorporated into the curriculum and students throughout all grade levels will be exposed to future possible career pathways. At the beginning of the 2014-2015 school year, all students in all grades will participate in a career interest inventory. The career inventory will be grade level specific and be "user friendly" for the targeted ages. The results of these inventories will assist teachers with curriculum planning for the school year. At the end of the 2014-2015 school year, the students will be assessed again to allow teachers to prepare for the upcoming year. The assessments will be done at the end of each year for years following the 2014-2015 school year. New students will be assessed when enrolled. Standardized career inventory assessments such as Explore, Plan and Kuder will be used at the appropriate times with the appropriate grade levels. The school will use all resources available throughout the community as well as area wide to provide students the accurate knowledge base concerning the requirements of specific careers and the knowledge base needed to adequately pursue and be successful in a specific career area. Students will also participate in interview scenarios that will be incorporated into both the Language Arts and Career and Technical curricula.

As students progress through the educational program, they will become more exposed to various career interests. As the charter school grows, more in depth educational opportunities such as concurrent credit programs or apprenticeship programs will be added. As these happen, the students will not only be allowed, but encouraged to participate in post-secondary courses (both college and vocational). These may be taken through either distance learning opportunities provided at the charter school or at a post-secondary institution that the charter school has contracted with to provide such courses. The leadership and faculty will work closely with Career and Technical Education as well as colleges and vocational schools to establish programs of study that address the interests of the students.

Students may be exposed to various learning and instructional strategies but the foundational base of instruction throughout all curricular areas in all grades will focus on Project-Based learning strategies. The educational program will incorporate the use of technology into as many aspects of the curriculum as possible in order to prepare student for future college and career opportunities. The use of technology in conjunction with the projects and assignments will be implemented as budgetary constraints allow. Our school will foster an atmosphere where education is valued and students will be encouraged to build relationships with their fellow students and teachers. The use of groups during the project-based learning activities will encourage the development of these relationships along with providing opportunities to strengthen communication and interpersonal skills. Cross-curricular instruction will allow teacher flexibility with instruction and allow multiple presentation opportunities of specific frameworks to ensure student mastery.

The continuation or renewal of the RTCCS open-enrollment public charter is contingent on acceptable student performance on assessment instruments adopted by the State Board and on compliance with any accountability provision specified by the open-enrollment public charter. RTCCS will strive to improve student performance on assessment instruments adopted by the State Board.

Our intent is for all students to become part of our school community. It will also be a priority for us to involve community members. Volunteers will be a part of our school community as well. We will work with local community service organizations to involve our students and staff in projects to help individuals, families, and organizations in our community. As a charter school, we will also be working closely with our parents to raise funds as needed, to tackle projects around the school, and to be actively involved in their child's education and extracurricular activities.

Our immediate goal will be to improve the students' interest and involvement in their education. This will help reduce truancy and behavior issues for our students if they have a history of these issues. Our long-term goal is to instill the love of learning in each and every student. We realize that not every student will continue on to college. Their path may lead them to a technical school, a vocational school, or directly into the job market. Whatever their path, they will enjoy success if they are life-long learners.

Teachers and staff will utilize professional development networks. These networks will allow our personnel to take-part in free on-line professional development courses in project-based learning. It will also provide a means for our personnel to collaborate with other teachers instructing their students using the inquiry-based methods. One example of such a resource is Buck Institute for Education (www.bie.org).

RTCCS will also apply to become members of the Arkansas Public School Resource Center (APSRC). This organization will provide consulting and guidance in areas such as law, finance, technology, teaching and learning and will be a valuable asset and resource as we navigate establishing our charter school.

Core character values will be taught. It is our intent to work with Charter Education Partnership (CEP) and to pursue becoming a National School of Character. CEP works to combine all facets - educators, students, parents, and community - to create safe, caring, and respectful schools where students flourish academically and do the right thing. Until we can go through the application process for CEP, we will focus on character values and select a "Student of the Month" from each grade that exhibits the character value being emphasized. Service of others will also be emphasized. Experience with community service will allow the students to realize the joy that comes from helping others and helping their community. It will allow them to realize the power they have as an individual to bring positive change to themselves and others.

6. List the specific measurable goals in reading, reading comprehension, mathematics, and mathematic reasoning based on the state mandated assessments, and any other assessment tools if used, for improving student academic achievement for each year of the public charter school's initial five-year period. For each goal, include the following:
- The tool to be used to measure the academic performance;
 - The level of performance that will demonstrate success; and
 - The timeframe for the achievement of the goal.

Applicant Response:

The school will use several different methods of assessment to measure the academic achievement and educational progression of the students. The data derived from the students performance on the various assessments will directly impact the development and of curriculum, delivery of instruction, impact revisions of student education plans as well as the evaluation of the educational goals of the school.

The school will use the Iowa Test of Basic Skills (ITBS) and the Arkansas Comprehensive Testing, Assessment, and Accountability Program (ACTAAP) for all applicable grades. The school will also work with The Learning Institute to develop specific assessments to better evaluate student needs and performance. As the school adds grades to which these do not apply, other assessments will be applied. Career inventory assessments such as Explore, Plan and Kuder will also be used. As grades are added other assessments such as End of Course, Qualls and other assessments will be used.

The Redfield Tri-County Charter School's scores in Reading, Reading Comprehension, Mathematics and Mathematic Reasoning will meet or exceed AYP in all content areas annually within the school's initial five (5) year period.

Individual student scores will demonstrate increased improvement and students scoring below basic and basic will decrease annually while increasing proficient and advanced student scores within the school's initial five (5) year period.

Students will be required to pass school developed assessments at the end of each semester to determine the student's mastery of the Student Learner Expectations (SLE) specific to the course. Students will be required to pass at a rate of 70% in each course taken.

7. Describe the process that will be used to develop and align the curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will offer a curriculum consisting of instruction in Language Arts, Math, Science, Social Studies, Fine Arts, Physical Education and Health. Instruction in each of these content areas will be fully aligned with and follow the Arkansas Common Core State Standards. The curriculum will be driven by an emphasis in college and career preparation. It is the desire of the school to educate students as to the opportunities that are available to them, the requirements of the specific career path they may choose and give them the comprehensive educational foundation to be successful in their career choice. It is paramount that students receive an educational foundation on which to build future career skills. Utilizing career prep lessons infused into the frameworks will give students a greater appreciation and understanding of why they may “need to know” specific information contained throughout the curriculum.

The principal will take the lead on aligning the RTCCS curriculum with the Arkansas Curriculum Frameworks and the curriculum requirements of the Common Core State Standards as adopted by the State Board of Education. Time will be spent researching and becoming familiar with the Common Core Standards and developing approaches to align the RTCCS curriculum with them. RTCCS has also allocated money to procure the services of a Curriculum Alignment Specialist as a consultant, if necessary. The Curriculum Alignment Specialist will have a substantial working knowledge of the Arkansas education standards and be able to offer multiple solutions on how to align the RTCCS to the frameworks and standards.

8. Describe the manner in which the school will make provisions for the following student services, even in those areas for which a waiver is requested:

A) Guidance program;

Applicant Response:

RTCCS is requesting a waiver for the Education Code requiring a guidance program and an on-campus certified counselor. The principal and teachers will be equipped to give students advice. The staff will be informed that their job duties will include the counselor responsibilities. The school will have a guidance program that encompasses many of the traditional aspects of a contemporary guidance program but with a specific components (individual career plans, administer alternative career centered assessments, etc.) added that will allow for more accurate development of the students educational program. RTCCS plans on adding a full time guidance counselor in the second year of operation.

B) Health services;

Applicant Response:

A waiver will be requested for the requirements of Health Services. RTCCS will be contracting out the health services. These services will include keeping medical records in accordance with privacy statutes, attending to students with minor illnesses, providing aid until emergency responders arrive on site for serious injuries, and the responsibility of creating and maintaining the campus health and safety policies.

C) Media center;

Applicant Response:

A waiver will be requested for the requirements of a Media Center. RTCCS will have a media center with a minimum of 3000 books. There will also be at least one computer in the media center for students to use the first year of our school's operation. Computers will be added to the media center as budgetary constraints allow. There will be a part-time media specialist available to instruct the students on the use of the computer and the development of research skills.

D) Special education;

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will not request a waiver from the requirements of a special education program. The school will provide all necessary services for students identified with special needs. A special education teacher will be responsible for all aspects of the school's special education services program, work cooperatively with parents, teachers and others concerning identification and assessment of students, development and implementation of student individual education plans and compliance with all federal and state guidelines concerning the program. RTCCS will provide an Individual Education Program for each student with a disability. Our staff will diligently work to provide students with disability the accommodations and services they need to be successful in school. Parents, teachers, and school administrators will work together as a team to provide an optimum learning opportunity for the students with disabilities.

E) Transportation;

Applicant Response:

RTCCS bus routes will not be a traditional route. We plan on providing "satellite pick-up" for students using fully certified bus drivers. Satellite pick-up location will be identified where the students will be picked up and dropped off. The district will either provide maintenance or secure a routine maintenance agreement with a qualified mechanic to ensure safe maintenance and operation of the buses. Over time and as budgetary constraints allow, our transportation methodology could transform into a more traditional bus route.

F) Alternative education, including Alternative Learning Environments;

Applicant Response:

RTCCS has asked for a waiver for the exclusion of Alternate Learning Environments at this time. We will be using a variety of teaching methods and the small school setting will allow teachers and staff to know each student. The RTCCS educational approach will allow the teachers to identify each student's strengths and weaknesses and convey information accordingly. Our approach will provide additional instructional time each day to address any educational weaknesses. We will also have a strict disciplinary policy to control any behavior that might distract students.

G) English Language Learner (ELL) instruction

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will administer the English Language Development Assessment (ELDA) as required by the ADE. The test administrator will complete all necessary training before administering the ELDA and meet any other requirement specified by the ADE. The school will utilize the results of the ELDA to determine what type of English Language instruction is appropriate for the ELL student. The majority of the students will be assisted through English immersion.

H) Gifted and Talented Program.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS has asked for a waiver for the exclusion of a gifted and talented program at this time. RTCCS intends to identify students who will benefit from an accelerated educational program and incorporate learning strategies into the student's individual instructional program to enhance the educational process for the students. RTCCS plans on implementing a gifted and talented program at a later time when budgetary constraints allow and as the student population qualifying for gifted and talented program grows.

9. Describe the geographical area to be served by the charter. List all school districts within the geographical area likely to be affected by the open-enrollment public charter school.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will service the city of Redfield and its surrounding areas within a 8-10 mile radius. This will include the eastern portion of Grant County and a small area in Saline County which falls under the Sheridan School District. We will also serve areas in Jefferson County which are located in the White Hall School District. These areas include Redfield and Jefferson. To the north, we will serve the Hensley and Woodson Lateral areas in Pulaski County Special School District. We expect that approximately 100 of the students will be from the White Hall School District with the other students coming equally from the Sheridan School District and the Pulaski County Special School District.

10. Describe the plan for the school officials to provide an annual report to parents, the community, and the authorizer that demonstrates the progress made by the charter school during any previous academic year in meeting its academic performance objectives. (See ADE Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts.)

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will comply with annual progress report requirements as stated in the Arkansas Department of Education Rules of Governing Public Charter Schools, Section 6.03.1.4 and in the Standards for Accreditation, Standard II, Goals and Administration of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts, if it applies to charters.

Feedback from parents and the community will be used to annually develop a comprehensive progress report. This report will include updated data regarding student performance, program objectives, and accreditation standards. RTCCS will also create a School Improvement Plan annually to project campus needs and to identify any deficiencies so they can be corrected. All reports will be based on Arkansas Department of Education regulations and guidelines.

Annual reports will be published in a newspaper with general circulation in the district where the charter school is located. The reports will also be published on the RTCCS web site. Current guidance mandates these reports will be published no later than November 15. Printed copies of the reports will be available for review at RTCCS.

RTCCS will host an annual public gathering in order to provide information regarding the educational program and campus policies and goals. This public gathering will be publicized using flyers sent home with students and posted in the local area and on the RTCCS web site. This public gathering will allow for parents, students, and any interested parties to exchange ideas and suggestions regarding the educational program, the school campus, and the content of the annual report.

The school will be in compliance with rules and regulations concerning annual reports to the parents through public meetings, board meetings and website requirements. As performance data becomes available for the school, the school will provide that information as required by state code and rules and regulations that apply.

11. Describe the enrollment criteria and student admission, recruitment and selection processes for the proposed public charter school.

Applicant Response:

All students are welcome at RTCCS. Students must be able to provide a transcript from the school they are moving from to attend RTCCS. RTCCS will not discriminate in our admissions policy on the basis of gender, national origin, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or academic or athletic eligibility. RTCCS may exclude a student who has been expelled from another public school district in accordance with Title 6 of the Arkansas Code.

Students will be recruited from the city of Redfield and other surround communities like Jefferson and Hensley as well as students in the eastern portion of Grant County and the portion of Saline County that are part of the Sheridan School District that are within a 8-10 mile radius of Redfield. RTCCS will use methods such as our internet presence (www.redfieldtricitycharterschool.org), direct mailings, flyers, and newspaper advertisements to inform the public about our school.

If more applications are submitted than RTCCS has openings, an admission lottery will be held. Each application will be assigned a number. A random, anonymous lottery will take place in order to allow all eligible, interested students an equal opportunity to enroll at the campus. The lottery will take place at the RTCCS campus. It will be governed by the director, as well as being overseen by a community leader, the RTCCS principal, and any available campus staff. The need for a lottery will be posted on the campus website and the Arkansas Department of Education Public Charter School Program Coordinator will be notified in advance of the lottery. Siblings of existing students will be given preference and would not have to participate in the admission lottery. The numbers assigned to the existing applications will be put in a container and drawn and recorded in the order they were drawn. The number of students selected would depend on the number of openings and whether there were any siblings of existing students in the application pool. The record of the order the applications were drawn would be kept in case those that were selected were unable to attend. The next application on the list would then be notified of their selection. The waiting list is valid until the next time RTCCS is required to conduct a random, anonymous student selection.

Check which of the following enrollment preferences, as permissible in Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-306(14)(C), would be allowed at the charter school.

- Children of founding members of the charter school
- Siblings of enrolled students
- No enrollment preferences (No other boxes may be checked in order to select this option.)

It is affirmed that a random, anonymous student selection method will be utilized in the event that more students apply for admission to the open-enrollment public charter school than can be accommodated under the terms of the charter, except as allowed for in Arkansas Code Annotated §6-23-306(14)(C).

- Yes
- No

If it is believed that the use of a weighted lottery is required by federal court or administrative order, explain and furnish a copy of the order.

Applicant Response:

It is not believed that a weighted lottery will be required by a federal court or administrative order.

12. Summarize the job descriptions of the school director and other key personnel. Specify the qualifications to be met by professional employees (administrators, teachers, counselors, etc.) of the program. List the types of administrative positions, teaching positions, and support positions for the school.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, or disability in employment decisions, including hiring and retention of administrators, teachers, and other employees whose salaries or benefits are derived from any public moneys. Waivers for licensure will be requested for all positions requiring an Arkansas Teaching License. RTCCS shall prepare an annual certified audit of the financial condition and transactions of our school on or before 30 June each year in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United State and Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. The audit will also contain any other data as determined by the State Board for all public schools.

RTCCS will work with the Division of Legislative Auditor to prepare the required annual financial audit for our school. The RTCCS Board of Directors will review the scope and results of the audit. Any identified consequential irregularities and any identified weaknesses will be reported to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will be responsible for developing a corrective action plan to address items noted by the auditor.

RTCCS will adhere to the practices below to ensure programmatic quality:

1. Continuous in-house academic program assessment
2. Ensure appropriate action is taken as issues related to school programs arise
3. Annual creation of a School Improvement Plan to identify and address areas that may be lacking
4. Review of curriculum to ensure its alignment with Common Core state standards

15. It is affirmed that the public charter school will participate in the Arkansas Public School Computer Network, as required by state statute and by State Board of Education rule, for reporting both education data and financial data, including grant funds or private donations received directly by the charter school.

- Yes
- No

16. Describe the facilities to be used. Give the present use of the facility. If the facility to be used for the school is a facility of a school district, describe the terms established by the local school board of the district stipulating the relationship between the proposed public charter school and the district pertaining to the use of the facility. Attach a copy of the agreement, signed by the president of the local school board, the chair or president of the governing body of the proposed open-enrollment public charter school, and the chief operating officer of the proposed charter. If the facility is not operated by a school district, attach a copy of the Facilities Utilization Agreement, signed by the entity owning or operating the facility and the chief operating officer of the proposed charter. A proposed lease may also be submitted but is not required. Please note that any lease or other debt must be approved by the Commissioner of Education.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will be leasing land from the Redfield United Methodist Church (RUMC). Modular buildings will be leased to provide necessary space for classrooms, dining facility/PE area, and office space. RUMC also has a home on their property that may be leased in addition to the land. If an acceptable agreement can be reached, the home could be used for administrative office space. There are no known establishments within a half mile of the land that participate in the sale of alcohol. RTCCS will not allow students into the buildings until the school has obtained a certificate of occupancy issued by the local code official approved by the state fire marshal, a certificate of occupancy or other approval of the state fire marshal, or a certificate of substantial completion issued by a licensed architect. The occupancy limits of the facility will be determined by the local code official or state fire marshal.

RTCCS has done extensive research on the cost of the modular buildings. This research is being utilized to complete the budget portion of the charter application with accurate cost information. RTCCS will ensure the buildings meet all federal, state, and local codes. Once the charter has been authorized, RTCCS will follow the applicable procedures for obtaining bids from contractors for leasing the modular buildings (along with the delivery and set-up fees). The RTCCS Board of Directors has members with extensive experience in the continued operations, maintenance, and repairs of facilities.

This location is different than the location submitted on the RTCCS letter of intent. Issues arose pertaining to the requirement to have a sewer treatment facility based on the number of students at our original location. The cost to correct the issues was prohibitive based on budgetary constraints. RTCCS found an alternate location to be the home for the charter school.

Identify the owner(s) of the proposed facility and describe their relationship, if any, with:

- (1) Members of the local board of the public school district where the proposed open-enrollment public charter school will be located,
- (2) Employees of the public school district where the proposed open-enrollment public charter school will be located,
- (3) The eligible entity sponsoring the open-enrollment public charter school, or
- (4) Employees/directors/administrators of the sponsoring entity or proposed open-enrollment public charter school.

Applicant Response:

The Redfield United Methodist Church owns the land that will be leased for the portable buildings.

- (1) Currently there is no known relationships between the owners of the land and the members of the local board of the public school district where the proposed open-enrollment public charter school will be located.
- (2) Currently there are at least three members of the Redfield United Methodist Church that are employees of the public school district where the proposed open-enrollment public charter school will be located.
- (3) Currently there is one member of the Redfield United Methodist Church that is a member of the Redfield Tri-County Charter School Board of Directors.
- (4) Currently there are no known relationships between the owners of land and the employees/directors/administrators of the sponsoring entity or proposed open-enrollment public charter school.

The facility will comply with all requirements for accessibility in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and all other state and federal laws and local zoning ordinances.

- Yes
 No

If the facility does not currently meet these requirements, provide a list of items that will need to be addressed to bring the facility into compliance. Also include a statement of permissible uses for the facility from the local zoning authority, and whether there are any alcohol sales within 1,000 feet of the facility.

Applicant Response:

At this time, RTCCS is only leasing land from the Redfield United Methodist Church. The leased modular buildings that RTCCS plans on using will be compliant with ADA, IDEA, and all other state and federal laws and local zoning ordinances. There are no known establishments within a half mile of the land that participate in the sale of alcohol.

The local zoning authority provided RTCCS with the following information pertaining to the RUMC land:

It is my understanding that the above referenced school is to sit modular buildings behind the Methodist Church building on River Road. This location is permitted for this use. The subject property is located in Zone R-2.

Permitted use in Zone R-2 includes public schools, parks, churches, and educational buildings. It will still be necessary for the any new buildings to meet minimum set-back and spacing dimensions.

Contracting. Dobbins Contracting may be a bidder on projects that RTCCS contracts out. Mr. Todd Dobbins is also the owner of Dobbins Trucking. Dobbins Trucking may be a bidder on projects that RTCCS contracts out if Arkansas code §6-24-105 allows. If either of the Dobbins' companies are capable of performing the specified work, meet Arkansas code §6-24-105 requirements, and are the lowest bid, they would be awarded the contract. Procedures will be put in place to get competitive bids on all projects and to ensure bids are confidential until being reviewed by the RTCCS Board of Directors.

Explain the procedures to be followed if a conflict of interest is identified. The procedures must ensure that all actions are in the best interest of the school and the students at the school.

Applicant Response:

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of the committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

Procedures To Address The Conflict of Interest

- a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

- a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

18. Describe the manner in which the school will make provisions for food services. State whether the proposed charter school will apply to participate in the federal National School Lunch program or other federal nutrition programs.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS will be participating in the Child Nutrition Program which includes the School Breakfast Program and the National School Lunch Program (NSLP). RTCCS plans on contracting out the preparation of the school meals. Measure will be taken to ensure meals meet the NSLP standards, guidance from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), and any state requirements. RTCCS plans on contracting two part-time cafeteria workers to serve the meals, clean up, and work with the RTCCS administrative assistant to maintain all required records for food service.

19. Describe how the parents or guardians of the enrolled students and other members of the community will be involved with the school to positively impact the charter school's educational programs.

Applicant Response:

Parents, guardians, and members of the community will have ample opportunities to be involved in RTCCS. Over time, parents, guardians and members of the community will become members of the RTCCS Board of Directors and actively participate in the governance of the school. There will also be a parent/teacher organization that parents and guardians can join to be more involved in the education of their children. RTCCS also plans on recruiting volunteers from the community to work with the students on projects and speak to them about different careers. When RTCCS is able to apply to CEP, parents will be involved in the application process and in the implementation if RTCCS becomes a member.

20. List the provisions of Title 6 of the Arkansas Code Annotated (Education Code), State Board of Education rules, and sections of the Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts from which the public charter school seeks to be exempted in order to meet the goals of the school. Identify the specific statute, rule, or standard requested to be waived by title and section number if applicable. Provide a brief description of the rationale for each waiver requested.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS seeks exemption from the following portions of Title 6 of the Arkansas Code Annotated (“Education Code”) and related State Board of Education Rules and Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts:

- A. Subtitle 2, Chapter 10, Section 6-10-106: Uniform Dates for Beginning and End of School Year: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. RTCCS will follow the school calendar for White Hall School District for the 2014-2015 school year.
- B. Subtitle 2, Chapter 13, Section 6-13-109: School Superintendent: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code due to it limiting our ability to meet the unique demands of hiring a superintendent of an open-enrollment charter school.
- C. Subtitle 2, Chapter 13, Subchapter 6, Section 6-13-601 et seq.: School District Boards of Directors Generally: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that its provisions relating to board size, qualifications, elections, duties, powers, terms, meeting location, and vacancies are: (a) generally not applicable in the open-enrollment charter school context, and/or (b) otherwise outlined in RTCCS by-laws.
- D. Subtitle 2, Chapter 13, Subchapter 13, Section 6-13-1303: Adoption of Policy: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires a vote by “certified employees” before the Board of Directors may adopt a policy for implementing site-based decision making in the school district, in light of the waiver request that is being made concerning “certified employees” under Section “G” on the following page. Instead, RTCCS will require a vote by “classified employees” (as defined in Section 6-13-1302).
- E. Subtitle 2, Chapter 13, Subchapter 14, Section 6-13-1401 et seq.: Consolidation, Annexation, and Formation: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that its provisions are generally not applicable in the open-enrollment charter school context.
- F. Subtitle 2, Chapter 14, Section 6-14-101 et seq.: School Elections: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that its provisions are generally not applicable in the open-enrollment charter school context.
- G. Subtitle 2, Chapter 15, Subchapter 10, Section 6-15-1004: Qualified Teachers in Every Public School Classroom and Section 15.02 and 15.03 of the Standards for Accreditation and the ADE Rules Governing Educator Licensure: RTCCS seeks exemption from these portions of the Education Code to the extent that it requires teachers to be certified. Instead, in addition to certified teachers, RTCCS will hire “highly qualified” teachers (as defined by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001).
- H. Subtitle 2, Chapter 15, Subchapter 10, Section 6-15-1005: Safe, Equitable, and Accountable Public Schools: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires alternate learning programs. RTCCS will be utilizing a variety of teaching methods and these methods will allow teachers to get to know each student's strengths and weaknesses and teach them accordingly.

- I. Subtitle 2, Chapter 16, Subchapter 1, Section 6-16-102 and Section 10.01.4 and 14.03 of the ADE Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts: School Day: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code because the school's education program requires flexibility in addressing the unique needs of its student population.
- J. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 1, Section 6-17-114: Daily Planning Period, and 6-17-111 "Duty-free_lunch": RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. The waiver from the duty-free lunch statute will give RTCCS added flexibility in the utilization of its teacher staff.
- K. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 1, Section 6-17-117: Non-instructional Duties: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires teachers to be contracted if they are assigned to more than sixty (60) minutes of non-instructional duties per week. Instead, RTCCS requests that the time be increased to two hundred forty (240) minutes. Such a revision recognizes that open-enrollment charter schools are often required to operate on a more limited budget than their traditional public school counterparts, requiring teachers to perform both instructional and non-instructional duties to achieve efficient and economical operation of the school.
- L. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 2, Section 6-17-203: Committee for Each School District: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. RTCCS will not employ enough staff to comply.
- M. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 3, Section 6-17-301: Employment of Certified Personnel: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. Instead, RTCCS will employ all employees on an "at-will" basis. This means that employment with RTCCS is voluntarily entered into, and the employee is free to resign at will, at any time, with or without notice or cause. Similarly, RTCCS may terminate the employment relationship at will, at any time, with or without notice or cause, so long as there is no violation of applicable federal or state law.
- N. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 3, Section 6-17-302: Public school Principals - Qualifications and Responsibilities: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. Instead, RTCCS principal will be employed on an "at-will" basis and will not be required to hold a valid supervisory or administrative certificate. In addition to identifying a principal with the requisite skills and experience in education and management, RTCCS will ensure that its principal is appropriately qualified to lead the school through extensive training in the school's educational methodology.
- O. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 3, Section 6-17-309: Certification - Waiver: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires teachers to be certified. As such, RTCCS will have the flexibility to identify and hire those individuals best suited to facilitate the school's educational program. RTCCS ensures that it will hire "highly qualified" teachers (as defined by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001).
- P. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 4: Certification Generally: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires teachers to be certified. As such, RTCCS will have the flexibility to identify and hire those individuals best suited to facilitate the school's educational program. RTCCS ensures that it will hire "highly qualified" teachers (as defined by the

- Q. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 9, Section 6-17-902: Definitions: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires teachers to be certified. As such, RTCCS will have the flexibility to identify and hire those individuals best suited to facilitate the school's educational program. RTCCS ensures that it will hire "highly qualified" teachers (as defined by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001).
- R. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 9, Section 6-17-908: Teachers' Salary Fund: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires insurance or other fringe benefits to be approved by a majority of the teachers in the school district. Instead, the provisions of insurance or other fringe benefits will be considered and provided pursuant to action by the Board of Directors.
- S. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 9, Section 6-17-919: Warrants Void Without Valid Certificate and Contract: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires teachers to be certified and contracted. As such, RTCCS will have the flexibility to identify and hire those individuals best suited to facilitate the school's educational program. RTCCS ensures it will hire "highly qualified" teachers (as defined by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001) on an "at-will" basis.
- T. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 12, Section 6-17-1301 et seq.: Teachers' Minimum Sick Leave Law: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. RTCCS is seeking exemption from any law requiring teachers to be certified. As such, minimum sick leave for RTCCS teachers will be addressed in Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 13, Section 6-17-1302.
- U. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 13, Section 6-17-1302: Definitions: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it excludes teachers from its definition of "school employee."
- V. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 15, Section 6-17-1501 et seq.: Teacher Fair Dismissal Act: RTCCS is seeking a waiver from the applicable sections of the Arkansas Code such that its teachers will not require certificates and may be employed on an "at-will" basis. As such, RTCCS will be free to hire teachers skilled in the implementation of the education program while maintaining the flexibility to dismiss those teachers when it becomes apparent they are not performing to the high standards required for the successful implementation of the program. Employees will have the right to appeal their dismissal in accordance with the grievance policy adopted by the Board of Directors.
- W. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 17, Section 6-17-1701 et seq.: Public School Employee Fair Hearing Act: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. Instead, RTCCS employees will be employed on an "at-will" basis. Employees will have the right to appeal their dismissal in accordance with a grievance policy adopted by the Board of Directors.
- X. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 22, Section 6-17-2201 et seq.: Classified School Employee Minimum Salary Act: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. Instead, RTCCS employees will be employed on an "at-will" basis and will be paid in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act, and in accordance with the personnel policies detailed in Waiver "X" immediately below.
- Y. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 23, Section 6-17-2301 et seq.: Personnel Policy Law for Classified Employees: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. Instead, the Board of Directors for RTCCS will adopt personnel policies, including, but are not limited to, the following terms and conditions of employment: salary schedule, fringe benefits, and other compensation issues; annual school calendar, including work days and holidays; evaluation procedures; leave; grievance procedures; termination or suspension; reduction in force; and assignments.

Z. Subtitle 2, Chapter 17, Subchapter 24, Section 6-17-2401 et seq.: Teacher Compensation Program of 2003: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code. Instead, RTCCS will provide compensation that is competitive with local public school districts. RTCCS reserves the right to determine specific salary schedules, taking into account the teacher's years of experience, skill, education, and other qualifications.

AA. Subtitle 2, Chapter 18, Subchapter 10, Section 6-18-1001 et seq.: Section 16.01 of the ADE Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts, and ADE Rules Governing Public School Student Services: Public School Student Services Act: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires a guidance program and on-campus certified counselor. The principal and teachers will be equipped to give students advice regarding higher education options, life after high school, etc. Similarly RTCCS staff will be informed they will be responsible to handle issues generally given to a campus counselor. Staff will be ready should such situations arise.

BB. Subtitle 2, Chapter 19: Transportation: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires RTCCS to implement a transportation program. RTCCS will be implementing a satellite pick-up transportation service.

CC. Subtitle 2, Chapter 21, Subchapter 1, Section 6-21-117: Leased Academic Facilities: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires facilities leased by RTCCS to conform to the school facility standards defined in the Arkansas School Facility Manual. Considering initial enrollment size, it will be difficult to financially follow through with this requirement. The applicant ensures any and all facilities it leases for academic purposes shall meet the requirements of all state and local health and safety codes, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

DD. Subtitle 2, Chapter 42, Subchapter 1, Section 6-42-101; Subtitle 2, Chapter 20, Subchapter 21, Section 6-20-2208 (c)(6) ("Monitoring of expenditures"); Section 18.0 of the ADE Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts; and ADE Rules Governing Gifted and Talented Program Approval Standards: Gifted and Talented Children: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires the inclusion of a gifted and talented program at RTCCS. While there will be students who would qualify and benefit from such a program, the general student population at RTCCS will be attending classes to master the curriculum and attain proficiency or higher on standardized tests. RTCCS will monitor the student population and assess their need for such a program. If the need for a gifted and talented program is determined, then RTCCS will attempt to align with a public or private school to offer students the opportunity to participate in a gifted and talented program.

EE. Subtitle 2, Chapter 48, Subchapter 10, Section 6-48-101 et seq.: An Act to Improve the Effectiveness of Public School Alternative Learning Environment and Section 4.0 of the ADE Rules Governing the Distribution of Student Special Needs Funding: RTCCS seeks exemption from this portion of the Education Code to the extent that it requires the inclusion of an Alternative Learning Environment. RTCCS will be utilizing a variety of teaching methods and settings as well as having a strict disciplinary policy to minimize any disruptive behavior that affects a student's ability to learn. We believe the need for alternative learning environments will be handled with our educational approach. RTCCS will monitor student progress and will implement alternative learning environments at a later date if needed.

21. Describe the potential impact of the proposed public charter school on the efforts of affected public school district(s) to comply with court orders and statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public schools.

Applicant Response:

RTCCS plans to locate its open-enrollment public charter school within the boundaries of the White Hall School District. As an open-enrollment public charter school, we also expect to pull students from the eastern portion of Grant county and the area of Saline county that attend Sheridan School District and the Hensley and Woodson Lateral areas in the Pulaski County Special School District. Pulaski County Special School District continues to work with the Office of Desegregation Monitoring to implement the policies and procedures to comply with the provisions of Plan 2000. Sheridan School District and White Hall School District are not under any court orders or statutory obligations to create and maintain a unitary system of desegregated public school. RTCCS plans on having a small school limiting enrollment to 50 students per grade and therefore does not believe our charter will negatively affect the desegregation efforts of any public school district within the state. The anticipated effect of granting a charter to RTCCS on Pulaski County Special School District is minimal.

22. Identify the two or three key individuals responsible for this application. Discuss the experience and qualifications of each. Explain what the founders are doing or will do to ensure the success of the charter school when others are in leadership roles.

Applicant Response:

To ensure the success of the charter school, the original Board of Directors will remain in their positions until the charter has grown to a 5th through 12th grade campus (which should be five years from the opening of the charter if one grade is added each year). The members of the Board of Directors are committed to establishing a fiscally and educationally sound charter school. The members will start to be replaced gradually once the campus has become a 5th through 12th campus. New community leaders and invested parents will emerge and become a part of the Board of Directors and carry on Redfield's and its surrounding communities' vision for the charter school. The founding members of the Board of Directors have strong ties to Redfield and its surrounding communities and will be available to serve and support the charter after their time of service has ended on the Board of Directors.

RE: 1023 Application for Recognition for Exemption – Redfield Tri-County Charter School
FEIN# 46-2965353

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Redfield Tri-County Charter School will be submitting their application to the Arkansas Department of Education to meet the September 3rd deadline for an Open-Enrollment Public Charter School Application consideration for the school term 2014-2015 year. The Arkansas Department of Education requires applicants to have their federal exemption status before an approval would be granted.

It is our sincere hope that Redfield Tri-County Charter School's expedite request for non-profit filing exemption will be accepted due to the above stated requirement. We made an extraordinary effort to be precise and thorough in our completion of the application to help expedite the review process.

Please contact me at your convenience if you have any questions or if I can assist.

Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

- 1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. If you are unsure, see the instructions. Yes No
- b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2.
- 2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI. Yes No
- 3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4. Yes No
- 4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation? Yes No
- 5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.
The organization is not a private foundation because it is:
 - a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A.
 - b 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)—a school. Complete and attach Schedule B.
 - c 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)—a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete and attach Schedule C.
 - d 509(a)(3)—an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in line 5a through c, f, g, or h or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete and attach Schedule D.

Part X Public Charity Status (Continued)

- e 509(a)(4)—an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.
- f 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iv)—an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit.
- g 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)—an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public.
- h 509(a)(2)—an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions).
- i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status.

6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.

- a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. If you decide not to extend the statute of limitations, you are not eligible for an advance ruling.

Part IV.Narrative Description of Your ActivitiesPast

An organization was formed in October 2012 "Keep Redfield Middle School" to work with the White Hall School Board and Arkansas Dept. of Education in an effort to find ways to keep the middle school open for the students of Redfield. Keep Redfield Middle School has applied for tax exempt status under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code and received its verbal approval on July 17th, 2013 pending formal documentation to follow in the next couple weeks. This organization held fundraising events and accepted donations by the public to raise the funds needed to establish an open-enrollment charter school in Redfield. The Redfield Middle School was closed this May, 2013 and this began the need for an alternative educational opportunity for the children of Redfield.

Present

A task force was developed to seek out the best educational opportunities that would be available to the children of Redfield with the closing of the Middle School. The task force felt a need to extend this to the surrounding area. The task force applied and received their non-profit status thru the State of Arkansas effective June 4, 2013 as reflected in Part I, Item 11 of 1023 application.

Redfield Tri-County Charter School (RTCCS) elected a board of directors which are made up of individuals with ties to the Redfield Community that believe a growing, thriving community like Redfield needs local schools. Each member wants the families in and around Redfield to have a quality choice when deciding where their children will attend school. We strongly believe the successful education of children depends on the school, teachers, the parents and the community.

RTCCS has signed a four (4) year lease which does have a very usable structure that can be used for classrooms, admission, library, etc. RTCCS has also received a letter of intent of land donation based on the charter school formation which is attached. RTCCS has setup committees to research all aspects of school needs, portable buildings, buses, curriculum, staff, i.e. to assure our success.

RTCCS has developed a website: www.redfieldcharterschool.org and email for any questions that may arise and to update the public.

RTCCS has setup three (3) public hearings to include the development of flyers and brochures to inform the parents/grandparents of the purpose of a charter school and target areas. Several task force members have met with the Arkansas Department of Education for guidance and have sign up for instructional classes to streamline the charter application with the Department of Education. The last of the three (3) scheduled public hearing was held on July 15, 2013.

Redfield Tri-County Charter School (RTCCS) sole purpose is to provide educational opportunities in the surrounding tri-county area of Redfield (Jefferson, Grant, Pulaski counties). RTCCS will strive to instill core values such as civic duty, honesty, diligence, perseverance, respect, kindness, and independent thinking, all while following a coherent and cumulative curriculum of language, mathematics, civics, science, the arts, humanities, and athletics.

The sole purpose of the 501(c)(3) exempt statuses is for educational purposes only for the operation of the charter school. All funds will be utilized for that purpose.

The current board and committees spend an average of 12 hours a week on this endeavor. Once the charter school is approved standard work hours for employees and volunteer will be encouraged to participate as frequently as possible. The board will continue to hold monthly meetings and be a working partner with the staff of Redfield Tri-County Charter School.

Planned Activities

RTCCS plans to submit the charter school application in August of 2013. Our goal is to open RTCCS in August of 2014 as a middle school with grades 6th through 8th If permission is granted by the Arkansas Department of Education. Each grade will consist of fifty (50) students. If the total number of applicants exceeds the number of open enrollment slots, an admissions lottery will be conducted.

Fundraising events will be conducted and public donations will be received by Keep Redfield Middle School to continue raising the necessary funds that will be needed for the establishment of RTCCS. This funding is needed prior to the opening of the school to purchase items such as library books, janitorial supplies, sports equipment, school supplies, and cafeteria equipment.

Our vision for the future is to add a grade each year until RTCCS educates grades 6 through 12. Our long term vision is to grow into a kindergarten through 12th campus.

If RTCCS charter application is approved, funding will come through state general tuition support, federal and local grants, and contributions.

Currently everyone involved with this undertaking is a volunteer. Once our 501(c)(3) is approved as well as the charter application, the board of directors will hire a Director of Education. Then the Director of Education with board input will hire a CFO. From this point, those individuals will handle the staffing of the charter school.

5a Conflict of Interest Policy

Redfield Tri-County Charter School Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect Redfield Tri-County Charter School's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of Redfield Tri-County Charter School or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II Definitions

1. Interested Person
Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest
A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment or family:
 - a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement,
 - b. A compensation arrangement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement, or
 - c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose
In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists
After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.
3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest
 - a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
 - b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 - c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 - d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.
4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy
 - a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
 - b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV
Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

- a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V
Compensation

- a. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's Organization.
- b. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- c. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

- a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
- b. Has read and understands the policy,
- c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
- d. Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII
Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII
Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

Redfield Tri-County Charter School Addendum to Conflict of Interest Policy

This addendum will serve as a supplementation to the Conflict of Interest Policy. This addendum applies only to the potential conflict of interest that may be perceived when a board member of Keep Redfield Middle School (KMRS) also serves as a board member of Redfield Tri-County Charter School (RTCCS).

Background: KMRS was organized in 2012 and filed for non-profit status as a 501(c)(3) private foundation. This organization was formed for the cause of saving the middle school in Redfield, AR from being closed by the White Hall School District. Its main function is to hold fundraiser events and receive monetary donations in an effort to keep the school open. The organization also holds organized community events in an effort to inform the public of the importance of establishing an open-enrollment charter school in Redfield, AR. Additionally, the organization (as a non-profit) will accept a donation of real property that would be the location of a future open-enrollment charter school in Redfield, AR.

On 23 May 2013, the board members of KMRS met to organize and elect a board for RTCCS. Some of the board members of KMRS were nominated and elected as board members of RTCCS.

It is agreed by both boards that board members may serve on both organizational boards without a conflict of interest. There is no conflict of interest between the organizations at this time, and serving on both boards does not pose an interest to any single board member.

However, both boards agree that each organizational board should elect different officers (President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer) because this could be viewed by the public as a conflict of interest. Therefore; to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest, individual officers will hold a position on one board only.

The current officers of KRMS are as follows: Todd Dobbins (P), Ronnie Meredith (VP), Mandy Kight (SP), Allison Beasley (Sec), and Stacy Dobbins (T)

The following is a guideline that was used in the election of officers for RTCCS.

- It is agreed that the President of RTCCS should be either a past or present educator with authoritative experience such as principal or superintendent.
- It is agreed that the Vice President of RTCCS should either have the educational background or at least the higher education indicating that this individual has the knowledge to fulfill the duties in the absence of the President.
- It is agreed that the Secretary of RTCCS should have the administrative experience to qualify that individual to perform the basic duties of note-taking (either digitally or manually) and have access to a computer to electronically generate and distribute minutes and reports to the Board of Directors.
- It is agreed that the Treasurer of RTCCS should have basic knowledge of record-keeping and experience in annual financial budgeting.

Part VIII, Your Specific Activities (Continued)

15 Do you have a close connection with any organizations? If "Yes," explain. Keep Redfield Middle School, as the parent organization of Redfield Tri-County Charter School has also applied for their 501(c)(3) Public Charity status to which they will support RTCCS in charitable donation in the form of volunteer's time, gifts and contributions as it relates to the key areas of student need and facilities.

The parent organization to Redfield Tri-County Charter School is "Keep Redfield Middle School", Federal EIN: 46-1231877. Keep Redfield Middle School was organized in October 2012 by community members of Redfield, AR. Form 1023 was submitted in November 2012, and the tax exempt status for Keep Redfield Middle School is in the final stages of process (Group #7826, ID#1004826). This organization worked with the White Hall School District and the Arkansas Dept. of Education to suggest ways to keep the middle school open in Redfield. The organization held public meetings during this time to inform the community of the changes and decisions that were taking place with the White Hall School District. Public donations were received to help pay for the expenses involved in the research such as document printing, FOIA fees, and attorney fees. This organization presented ideas and suggestions to the school board and the state board of education, but the school board voted to close Redfield Middle School in January 2013 with May 2013 being the last month of operation.

Once the board closed the school, Keep Redfield Middle School began looking into establishing an open-enrollment public charter school in Redfield, AR. After several public meetings, it was clear that there is an overwhelming community desire to establish an open-enrollment public charter school. Keep Redfield Middle School accepts public donations and raises money through fundraising activities to start an operating fund for the charter school.

The Board of Directors for Redfield Tri-County Charter School was voted in by the Board for Keep Redfield Middle School. Directors were chosen based on educational background and business knowledge. Officers of Redfield Tri-County Charter School were voted in by their Board of Directors.

The organization, Redfield Tri-County Charter School adopted an addendum to the Conflict of Interest Policy which indicates that some members of the board of directors may also serve on the board of directors for Keep Redfield Middle School. The following is a list of the current members that serve on both boards and are also voting members of each organization:

- Amanda Kight serves as Spokesperson for Keep Redfield Middle School and also serves as a board member and holds the officer position of Secretary for Redfield Tri-County Charter School.
- Todd Dobbins serves as President of Keep Redfield Middle School and also serves as a board member for Redfield Tri-County Charter School. He holds no officer position.
- Ronnie Meredith serves as Vice President of Keep Redfield Middle School and also serves as a board member for Redfield Tri-County Charter School. He holds no officer position.
- Linda Banks serves as a board member of Keep Redfield Middle School and also serves as a board member for Redfield Tri-County Charter School.

No officer of either organization serves in the same position for either board.

Keep Redfield Middle School will continue accepting public donations and having fundraisers on behalf of Redfield Tri-County Charter School so the operating money will be available to obtain and set up portable class room buildings, turn on the utilities, and purchase the start-up supplies that will be needed prior to the opening of the school.

Keep Redfield Middle School has also solicited property donations of two buildings, one of which may be leased to Redfield Tri-County Charter School at or below fair market value. As the school enrollment grows each year, additional campus space will be needed to eventually have an elementary, middle, and high school operated by Redfield Tri-County Charter School.

The long-term goal for Keep Redfield Middle School is to develop a children's program for afterschool activities and a summer learning program that will involve grades 4 through 8 in Redfield and the surrounding tri-county area.

The long-term goal for Redfield Tri-County Charter School is to open and maintain an open-enrollment public charter school for grades 6 through 8 adding a grade per year over the next four years to establish both a middle and high school operated by Redfield Tri-County Charter School. At year five, elementary grades K – 5 will start to be added, establishing an enrollment of approximately 650 total students.

The two organizations will be tied together by providing the students in the City of Redfield and the surrounding tri-county area an option to attend an open-enrollment public charter school and also provide them an opportunity to socialize and learn in a safe environment after school and during the summer months when school is not in session. Select members of each organization will volunteer their time in the development of programs, curriculum, and grant-writing for both organizations.

Controlled burning helps forest thrive

Controlled burns thin out trees, lead to regenerated growth

of sun.”

Trees can better withstand the burning if the fire is limited to the base than if the fire has reached the treetops, Anderson said. Controlled burns are generally ground-level fires.

Anderson and two officials with the park acknowledged that there are people in Arkansas who question or oppose the practice of controlled burns.

“I think the main reason people are concerned about prescribed burns is the smoke,” Anderson said, adding that there are ways to control it. “I know that 10 years ago, this whole state was learning how to manage smoke.”

Fred Sutton, a park ranger, agreed.

“Most of the people around here have bought into the prescribed burning, but their biggest concern is smoke,” Sutton said during a question-and-answer session. When the park conducts a burn, factors taken into account include humidity, temperature, moisture on the ground and the position of the jet stream, he added.

Anderson told the audience that American Indians used controlled burning to rid the landscape of dry or dead vegetation.

But between 1921 and about the 1970s and '80s, “the idea was that all fire is bad,” Anderson said.

“It all started with the ‘Smokey the Bear’ thing,” said Hobbs park’s assistant superintendent, Jay Schneider, referring to the long-running public-service campaign. “Before 1980, it was: Put out all fires at all costs.”

But after a major fire at Yellowstone National Park in the '80s, the federal government began questioning whether decades of no controlled burns had created more fuel for the Yellowstone fire, and policymakers began making changes.

Sutton and Schneider said that in 2012, lightning strikes triggered about a half-dozen fires in the conservation area and previous prescribed burns limited their spread.

Only one of them was sizable — a fire the first week of August 2012 that consumed 30 to 35 acres, they said. The rest burned 3 acres or less.

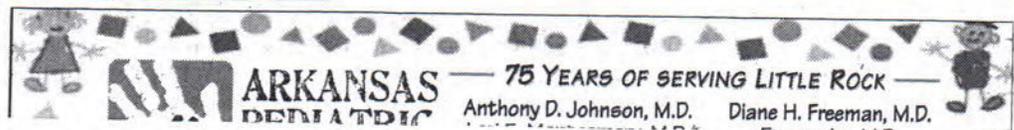

Anderson said that elsewhere across the state, federal and state agencies have found that controlled burns eventually lead to regenerated growth. In some cases, this has even included the appearance of rare plant species and native grasses not seen since the 1800s, he added.

“All this is driven scientifically, in trying to keep these species off the endangered lists,” he said. “This is all about keeping these species around.”

I am a parent/guardian that believes in the importance of education. Our community is struggling in dealing with the loss of one of our schools by our school district for financial reasons. Students are facing problems from this loss and forced relocation.

Teachers and our community leaders have a responsibility to give our children the best opportunity to succeed. I believe in the freedom of choice. Parents need to have a choice in the education of their children. Redfield, Arkansas has a great history of educating our children and we need to maintain facilities here in our community.

Whenever choice is involved in education: students, parents and communities are greatly benefited. The proposed forming of a Charter School with the support community members of Redfield is bringing a new resource to help change and improve our educational climate. This voice of hope is meeting our community's educational needs and our community's structural needs keeping a school within our township.

Sincerely,

Regina Puckering

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter to request your consideration of a proposed K-12 Redfield Tri-County Charter School located in Redfield. The proposed school would service students in the Redfield area who live in parts of Grant, Jefferson and Pulaski counties.

The Redfield community is part of the White Hall School District. White Hall has traditionally operated an elementary school and middle school in Redfield, but the district has decided to close the middle school effective at the end of this school year. As I understand it, a local group – the Keep Redfield Middle School Task Force – was subsequently formed and is in the process of obtaining the Charles Rivers Lab Building in Redfield for the purpose of housing a charter school. The three-story, 87,000-square-foot facility is located at 100 Boone Road in Redfield.

Residents of the community have expressed to me their strong feelings that a local school is vital to the growth and health of their town. Representatives of the task force say the new charter school will not only provide students the choice of a closer educational opportunity (versus bussing to White Hall), but will also provide a unique technological environment unavailable in a standard public school facility. Certainly we know the academic benefits of a successful charter school can be outstanding.

Thank you for taking time to carefully review the group’s application, and I appreciate your consideration of their request.

Sincerely,

Andy Mayberry
