Becoming an Arkansas Teacher Event Set for Nov. 22

Arkansans who are interested in becoming an Arkansas teacher can learn more about the process at the Arkansas Department of Education's Becoming an Arkansas Teacher event, which will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Nov. 22 at the Holiday Inn-Airport, 3201 Bankhead Drive, Little Rock.

High school and college students, in addition to Arkansans who have a non-education degree, will have the opportunity to meet with ADE and college and university representatives. Attendees can receive information about teacher certification master degree programs and ADE's Arkansas Professional Pathway to Educator Licensure (APPEL), or non-traditional licensure program. In addition to starting the background check process, attendees can visit with representatives from traditional teacher education programs from higher education institutions. An Arkansas Workforce Center mobile unit also will be onsite to assist with job searches.

To register for this free event, go to <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/becoming-an-arkansas-teacher-tickets-13742258465>, or contact Jeff Dyer, with the ADE Office of Teacher Recruitment and Retention, at (501) 682-5535.
